Shrewsbury Parents & Community Members Please Join US

Many of us are concerned about the Opioid Crisis. We want to know how to keep our children safe, what is the impact on Shrewsbury and how we can help. A panel of experts will provide valuable information. The discussion will be followed by an opportunity to ask questions.

When: Monday April 11, 2016

Resource Tables: 7:00-7:30 p.m.
Panel Discussion, Q&A: 7:30-9:00 p.m.
Where: Shrewsbury High School
Free & open to the public

Panel Members include:
Todd Bazydlo, High School Principal & Panel Moderator
Cassandra Andersen, Department of Public Health
Charles Faris, President/CEO, Spectrum Health Systems
Hannah Kane, State Representative
Joseph D. Early Jr. District Attorney,
Lt. James J. Lonchiadis, Shrewsbury Police
Michael Moore, State Senator
Parent of a Recovering Addict
Person in Recovery

Sponsored by the
Shrewsbury Coalition for Addiction Prevention & Education (SCAPE)
Co-Sponsored by
District Attorney Joseph D. Early Jr. Central MA Opioid Task Force
Representative Hannah Kane
Senator Michael Moore

*For additional information, contact Terry Cassidy, Shrewsbury Youth & Family Services, tcassidy@townisp.com or (508) 845-6932 ext. 301