School District Items

1. Please Note – Friday Lunch and Learn Sessions for Shrewsbury High School Students (New)

Do you have a student interested in learning more about Engineering, Construction Engineering and Virtual Design?

This week, on February 9th, the SHS Lunch and Learn guest speaker is Mr. Tim Agurkis. Mr. Agurkis is a Professional Land Surveyor and Vice President of Feldman Geospatial, a firm specializing in using the latest technology for Land Surveying, Construction Engineering, Virtual Design Construction (VDC), Building Information Modeling (BIM), Subsurface Utility Engineering (SUE) and 3D laser scanning/Reality Capture. With 23 years of field and office experience, his current role involves the day to day operations of the company as well as mentoring staff and business development. Please visit www.feldmangeo.com to see pictures of the amazing projects they have worked on around Boston (Logan Airport, Boston Public Library, Bentley College, John Hancock Tower, etc.) as well as the careers that Feldman Geospatial has to offer.. Registration is required and students can register here.

Are you interested in being one of our guest speakers? An overview of the Lunch and Learn program can be found here, and the schedule of future speakers with newly added time slots for March and April, can be found here. Contact kkeohane@shrewsbury.k12.ma.us if you are interested.

2. Save the Date – Career Fair for Shrewsbury High School Students, February 6th (New)

Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors are invited to the SHS Career Fair during the Early Release day (8:45-11:00 am) on February 6th. Students can register through Schoology or contact their Counselor. See this flier for a listing of the 41 different careers, businesses and people, who are attending, many of whom align with our Career Pathway programs.

3. Save the Date – Sports Management Summit for SHS Students, February 23rd (New)

Do you have a student interested in a career in Sport, Sport Management or working with a local sports team? The Nashua Sport Management Summit will be held on February 23rd, 9:30-3:00pm at Rivier University in NH. Anyone interested in a career in Sports or a job with a local sports team should attend this event. Students will have the chance to meet with representatives from Celtics, Patriots, Bruins, Red Sox, Woo Sox and others. SHS Students who attended last year really enjoyed the event. Registration is required, please see this flier. Because this event will be held during February vacation, students must find their own transportation.

4. Save the Date – Special Education Services Panel Discussion, February 8th (New)

If you have questions about special education services in Shrewsbury, join us on Thursday, February 8 at 6:30 pm in the Beal School cafeteria for a panel discussion with administrators throughout the district to ask questions about how special education services are delivered in Shrewsbury. Please note this panel is for general questions. For student-specific questions, please reach out to the special education team chair at your school.

5. Save the Date – Shrewsbury High School Crew Fundraiser, February 8th (New)

Visit Dean Park Grill and Pizza on February 8th for dine-in or take-out from 4:30 pm until close (9:00 pm) and support the Shrewsbury High School crew team. Dean Park Grill and Pizza is donating 20% of sales to Friends of Shrewsbury Crew (FOSC) that evening. FOSC is the booster organization for the SHS crew team. Please mark your calendars for February 8th and come down to Dean Park Grill and Pizza to support our historic 85-year-old SHS crew program.

6. Please Note – Cafeteria Help Wanted

The Shrewsbury Food Service is looking for part-time employees, full-time employees, and substitutes to work in the school cafeterias. Days and hours are flexible. Duties include: prepping food, setting up serving lines, serving students and breakdown and clean-up. Lunch and refreshments are provided. Please click here to obtain an employment application.

Please forward this application to the Food Service Department C/O Shrewsbury High School, 75 Cypress Avenue, Shrewsbury MA 01545 or email to hdoyle@shrewsbury.k12.ma.us. If you have any questions, please call Heidi Doyle at (508) 841-8855.

7. Please Note – February Vacation Enrichment Classes

Shrewsbury Public Schools is pleased to be offering enrichment classes for students in grades K-6 during February vacation. These classes are open to the community. Registration is now open.

View program details and register for classes here.

Each class runs Tuesday-Friday, so students may select one class for the morning session and/or one class for the afternoon session. Students who wish to enroll in both AM and PM classes can bring lunch from home and will be supervised in the cafeteria from 11:30-12:00.

Preview the catalog here. If you have any questions about the program, please contact Karen Isaacson, Director of Extended Learning, at (508) 841-8727 or kisaacson@shrewsbury.k12.ma.us.

8. Please Note – News from the Shrewsbury Public Schools Art Department

The Visual Arts Department at Shrewsbury High School welcomes you to view the 2024 Winter Art Exhibit \(Virtual\) from students in semester one art classes. There will be an in-person art exhibition on May 16th at SHS to highlight semester two students...save the date!

During the month of February, SHS students in semester one will have their artwork on exhibit at the Shrewsbury Credit Union. A reception will be held on Thursday, February 15th from 4:30-5:30pm at Shrewsbury Federal Credit Union (489 Boston Tpke). The exhibit will run during business hours through February 29th.

On February 8th, a selection of art from students at Sherwood and Oak Middle (Cycles 1-3) schools will be on exhibit outside the auditorium at OMS. Viewing times are from 4:30pm-6:30pm. There will be a virtual art show in the spring to highlight students in Cycles 4-6.

9. Please Note – SAT Prep Course

The SHS Spring SAT Prep Course will be offered once again through Shrewsbury High School. The course will begin the week of February 12th and run through the week of April 1st. Participants may choose between Monday or Wednesday evening classes. Classes will meet remotely from 5:30pm to 7:40pm for a total of seven night sessions. Test taking strategies will be emphasized in this class and will focus on the new digital SAT. Class size will be kept small, allowing for a great deal of individual attention. Enrollment is strictly on a first-come first-served basis; the course is open to juniors and seniors. Students will also take two full-length SAT exams, which provides reinforcement for skills taught during the course and test-taking experience. The cost of the program is $270 for Shrewsbury residents and $300 for non-Shrewsbury residents. This class will run only if there is sufficient demand. Additional information and registration forms are located at SHS in Mrs. Monopoli's office on the third floor, the School Counseling office, or can be downloaded from the SHS School Counseling webpage (under "College Related Testing" on the SHS website). Please contact Jen Lundsten if you have any questions at jalundsten@shrewsbury.k12.ma.us or 508-841-8810.

10. Please Note – Families Needed for Culture Night, February 9th

Sherwood Middle School Families: Join us for Culture Night at Sherwood Middle School on Friday, February 9th, from 6 to 8 pm! Sherwood Middle School is inviting their families to participate in this special event. We're looking for individuals who are eager to showcase their culture through various means such as food, entertainment, music, dance, games, and more. Tables will be available for participants to set up their displays. If you're interested in presenting and bringing elements like food, traditional dress, music, books, games, or stories to share with others, please register here. Let's come together to celebrate the diverse cultures within the Sherwood community. Thank you for your participation!

11. Please Note – Judges Needed for SHS Annual Science Fair, February 12th

Forty projects are scheduled to be presented in-person on Monday, February 12 in the Shrewsbury High School Media Center. Please complete this form to express your interest and availability in helping us evaluate projects this year. Your effort is greatly appreciated. If you have any questions, please contact Dave Hruskoci, Director of Science & Engineering at 508-841-8836 or dhruskoci@shrewsbury.k12.ma.us.

Community Items

1. Please Note – Shrewsbury Town Hall Winter Drive (New)

The Shrewsbury Town Hall is hosting a winter drive organized by Migrant Alliance, a local student-led team, to fundraise for newly settled migrants of Shrewsbury. The bin is located in the front of the Town Hall. For our community's migrant families, the following is appreciated:

SPL Spanish Conversation Club

Are you looking for a casual space in which you can practice your Spanish and learn more about the multiple cultures of those who speak that language? Join the Spanish Conversation Club most Tuesdays at the Shrewsbury Public Library (6:00 p.m. in the Learning Lab on the second floor). No registration required. Visit our events calendar to check dates.

¿Buscas un espacio informal en el que puedas practicar tu Español y aprender más de las múltiples culturas que hablan este idioma? Únete a nuestro club de conversación la mayoría de los martes en la biblioteca pública de Shrewsbury a las 6:00 p.m. en el laboratorio del segundo piso. No es necesario registrarse. Visita nuestro calendario de eventos para verificar citas.

SPL Spanish Culture Club

The Spanish Culture Club provides an open and casual learning environment outside of the classroom for adults to learn and practice the language as well as to celebrate the cultures of Spanish-speaking countries around the world. This club is not only about learning Spanish, but learning about Hispanic culture: cuisine, idioms, movies, food, and more. The group will meet every other Wednesday at 6:00 p.m. at the Shrewsbury Public Library; no registration required. Visit the library's events calendar to confirm dates.

Tech Tuesday: Digital Privacy and Security

Join the Shrewsbury Public Library at 6:00 p.m. in the Learning Lab for Tech Tuesdays! This program is intended for proficient computer users aged 13+ who are familiar with navigating the internet. Laptops will be provided. Space is limited, so registration is required.

Writing Workshop

Join the Shrewsbury Public Library for a writing workshop on Saturday, March 2nd at 2:00 p.m.! A writing workshop is a place where writers can gather together, share writing, and receive feedback. A writing prompt will be given for the workshop, and time will be set aside for participants to write in response to said prompt. Afterwards, share and discuss your work with peers to improve your writing! Writing workshops are facilitated by Ashton Hooley, a published writer.

Sponsored by the Friends of the Shrewsbury Public Library. This program will take place in person at the library; please register to attend.

Shrewsbury Public Library Makerspace Survey

Calling makers of all ages! Shrewsbury Public Library is looking to start a makerspace and we would like your input. Click here to complete a survey to help us build the best makerspace possible.

Meditation for Health and Wellness

Join the Shrewsbury Public Library on Tuesday, February 6th at 7:00 p.m. for this lively and engaging workshop with Arlene Samsel. Meditation is being prescribed by many medical practitioners and has been widely recognized as a means to enhance one's health and reduce stress. Throughout the nation meditation has become a positive force for health and wellbeing. There will even be a chance to practice this technique.

Arlene Samsel is uniquely qualified and experienced in meditation, public speaking, and the performing arts. She has been an elementary school teacher and has also performed publicly as a musician for many years. In addition, Arlene was director of a camp where she taught children how to meditate. She has been meditating for 25 years and has given many meditation workshops and retreats.

This program will take place on Zoom; please register to attend.

Cycle of Memory Screening

Join the Shrewsbury Public Library on Thursday, February 8th at 7:00 p.m. for this film, followed by a Q+A with the filmmaker.

Mel Schwartz escaped the Great Depression on a bicycle adventure he'd remember for the rest of his life. But when Alzheimer's takes Mel's memories away, it's left to his grandkids to recreate the life-changing bike trip and find those memories.

With the help of a grandmother learning to live alone for the first time, Mel's lifelong friend and co-adventurer on the bike trip, and a family collection spanning 1950s film reels to 1990s video tapes, Cycle of Memory explores the importance of intergenerational connection, healing painful pasts, and leaving a meaningful time capsule for the future.

Sponsored by the Friends of the Shrewsbury Public Library. This program will take place in person at the library; please register to attend.

Sound Healing Presentation

Join the Shrewsbury Public Library on Monday, February 12th at 6:30 p.m. for a Sound Healing Presentation with Julia Nadolny. What is sound healing? Sound healing is an ancient practice that has been around for thousands of years that promotes balance and total bliss throughout the body.

It will be important to bring a yoga mat or towel, something to lay on during the program and a blanket to cover yourself up in. Pillows are a personal preference but you are more than welcome to bring one, whatever makes you feel most comfortable. Chairs will be available if anyone prefers them.

Sponsored by the Friends of the Shrewsbury Public Library. This program will take place in person at the library; please register to attend.

Lions, Tigers, and...Bulldogs? An Ivy League Writer's Road to Publishing

Join the Shrewsbury Public Library on Tuesday, February 13th at 7:00 p.m with Ivy League alumnus and professional writer and educator Matt Robinson. He will discuss his book, Lions, Tigers, and... Bulldogs? An unofficial guide to the legends and lore of the Ivy League and the lessons he learned while writing and publishing it.

A graduate of the University of Pennsylvania who is married to a Dartmouth graduate and the son of a Brown graduate, Matt Robinson has been steeped in Ivy League culture for most of his life. Matt has had an interest in the history and traditions of the "Ancient Eight" and a knack for remembering the mascots of many schools for far longer than that.

Sponsored by the Friends of the Shrewsbury Public Library. This program will take place in person at the library; please register to attend.

Music of the Beatles

Join the Shrewsbury Public Library on Wednesday, February 14th at 7:00 p.m. for this one hour concert with Melodious Zach. He will perform Beatles songs written jointly by John Lennon and Paul McCartney, and entertain you with Beatles trivia.

Melodious Zach has been performing music professionally since 2004. In 2015, he received the ASCAP Plus award for songwriters and independent recording artists. His music video "Hum It" was featured on NH Chronicle, followed up by NH Magazine's featuring his "20 Greatest Hits!" which was a #1 album on Amazon's new Bubblegum CD chart.

This program has applied for support from the Shrewsbury Cultural Council, a local agency which is supported by the Mass Cultural Council, a state agency. This program will take place in person at the library; please register to attend.

Exploring Identity, Love, and Being Black in America in Fiction Writing

Join the Shrewsbury Public virtually on Tuesday, February 20th at 4:00 p.m. with New York Times bestselling author Jason Mott about his recent novel Hell of a Book. This magnificent work of fiction is deeply honest, at times electrically funny, and is a book that goes to the heart of racism, police violence, and the hidden costs exacted upon Black Americans and America as a whole.

Unforgettably told, with an electrifying plot and characters who burn into your mind, Hell of a Book is the novel Mott has been writing in his head for the last ten years. And in its final twists, it truly becomes its title.

This program, brought to you by the Shrewsbury Public Library Foundation with the Library Speakers Consortium, is free and open to the public. This program will take place virtually; please register to attend.

7. Please Note – Shrewsbury Public Library Events for Tweens & Teens

We have some great events for tweens and teens happening in February at the Library!

Please remember that program attendees in grades 5-6 must be accompanied to the library by a parent/parent's representative who will remain in the building during the program and rejoin the attendee at the conclusion of the program.

Check our digital calendar and online calendar for more details and registration!

12. Please Note – Shrewsbury Youth and Family Services Parent Support Group

Shrewsbury Youth and Family Services has partnered with your child's school to offer a free Parent Support Group! Parents are often focused almost entirely on the needs of their children, sometimes to the point that they ignore their own needs and feelings. This group is a chance to address your needs. We will cover topics including the importance of managing parental stress, self-care and social support, child mental health, and finding joy in parenting. There will also be two sessions focused on managing screen time as this group is part of our Screen Time Reduction and Education Program (STREP). This group will be co-led by a licensed clinical therapist and Masters level intern and will be free of charge.

Two cohorts will be offered- a Monday group and a Wednesday group. The six week sessions will begin Feb 5 (Monday Group) and Feb 7 (Wednesday Group) and all sessions will be held virtually from 12-12:45pm. We will not meet during February break. For questions and registration, please email ARobinson@syfs-ma.org. Please note that we will require cameras to be on to promote a positive and cohesive group experience.

This group is made possible through the generous support of the Reliant Foundation.
