1. Save the Date – Maple & Main Spring Pop-Up Event, May 4th (New)

Join us at Maple & Main for a Spring Fling pop-up event on Saturday, May 4th from 10:00 am - 2:00 pm! We will have local vendors, food, a DIY flower bar, kids crafts, and a raffle. See you then!

2. Please Note – 2024-2025 Bus Registration Now Open (New)

We are pleased to announce the official opening of the 2024-2025 bus registration process. We encourage families who plan to use school bus transportation next school year to register before June 30th at 4:30 pm to avoid late fees and allow the transportation department ample time to prepare bus routes.

Please click here for more information about bus registration for the 2024-2025 school year. Thank you!

3. Please Note – Shrewsbury Education Foundation 2024 John P. Collins Awards Nominations

The Shrewsbury Education Foundation (SEF) is now accepting nominations for the 2024 John P. Collins Awards for Excellence. These awards honor the exemplary efforts of those dedicated individuals whose work brings to life the mission of the Shrewsbury Public Schools. The award is named for former Superintendent, John P. Collins, PhD, who served for 16 years in Shrewsbury (1978-1994) and exemplified the highest standards of professionalism and a commitment to lifelong learning.

Multiple awards will be presented in the following categories:

- Professional Educator
- Paraprofessional
- Support Staff
- Leadership

- Unsung Hero (Volunteers, PTO, boosters, supporters, fans, helpers)

Anyone who currently works or volunteers in the Shrewsbury Public Schools can be nominated. This includes any staff member or volunteer who you or your child either works with now or has worked with in the past. Just about everyone who's been touched by the Shrewsbury Public Schools at any level can nominate someone. All the nominees receive a copy of the nomination letter and a note of appreciation from SEF.

CLICK HERE to submit your nomination: Nominations will be accepted until Friday, May 10, 2024, and awards will be presented to each recipient in June.

Shrewsbury Education Foundation (SEF) is an all-volunteer organization that raises money to fund grants that put resources and programs directly into the classroom. For more information about the Shrewsbury Education Foundation, please visit www.SEFgrants.org.

4. Save the Date – Shrewsbury High School Lunch and Learn, April 25th & 26th

Do you have a student who is interested in a career in Physical Therapy? This week, on April 25th, the SHS Lunch and Learn guest speaker is Mr. Len Tocman, DPT Outpatient Physical Therapist. (He's also the father of SHS grads from 2020 and 2018). Mr. Tocman graduated from the University of Lowell with a degree in Business Administration in 1988. He started a small business in Automotive Repair. After 8 years of successful business ownership he felt uninspired and unhappy. Taking a leap of faith he decided to follow his passion for exercise and fitness. In 1999 he received my degree in Exercise Physiology and in 2001 he completed his Doctorate Degree in Physical Therapy. Today he has over 22 years of Physical Therapy experience including Hospital, Short Term Rehabilitation, Home Care, and Outpatient Sports Physical Therapy. Along the way he has continued his learning, always adding new skills like Dry Needling, Kinesiology Taping, and Therapeutic Cupping to his "Therapy toolbox". He looks forward to speaking with the Students at Shrewsbury High School regarding his passion and the possibilities of an exciting career in Physical Therapy. Registration is required and students can register here.

Do you have a student interested in a career in biologics, engineering, manufacturing, quality, and supply chain? The second guest speaker this week, on April 26th, is Ms. Kristen Springer and her co-workers, from AbbVie's Society of Women Engineers (SWE). AbbVie's Bioresearch Center (ABC), located in Worcester, is a leading producer and developer of biologics (medications that come from living sources). Members of AbbVie SWE work in a variety of areas including engineering, manufacturing, quality, and supply chain. Guest speakers will discuss how their work helps to propel a drug from an idea to helping real patients. SWE members will discuss career paths available to SHS students in the biotechnology space and provide guidance on how they can leverage their resources now to reach their future career goals. Registration is required and students can register here.

5. Please Note – Invitation to Support Our RISE Program and Maple & Main

Shrewsbury Public Schools invites community members to donate to our RISE (Reaching Independence through Supported Employment) programming and Maple & Main, an innovative retail store located at the heart of Shrewsbury Center. Please click here for more information about RISE and Maple & Main. Please consider making a donation to support innovative programming and local retail business!

6. Save the Date – Seeking Career Day Facilitators at Oak’s Grade 7 Career Day, April 24th

Grade 7 Career Day is coming soon at Oak Middle School! Please consider joining our Career Day presenters on April 24th from 8:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. This event is the culmination of research designed to expose our students to diverse careers. Career Day provides all Grade 7 students with an opportunity to connect with professionals from various fields, gaining insights into the world of work and allowing them to make informed decisions about their future career paths.

Here's what you can expect as a Career Day participant:

- You will have the opportunity to speak with two different groups of students, with each session lasting approximately 30 minutes.
- During the first half of each session, we encourage you to present and discuss your job. Please feel free to bring any presentation materials, brochures, or items related to your work.
- The second half of the session will be dedicated to a question and answer session with the students, where they can engage with you and gain deeper insights into your profession.

We appreciate your consideration! If you are interested and available to participate in Career Day, please take a moment to complete this survey. We look forward to welcoming members of our community to Oak Middle School for this event!

Community Items

1. Save the Date – Shrewsbury Trails Committee Spring Walk, May 4th (New)

Birds, flowers, maybe bees and butterflies... And more. Join a spring nature walk with Mass Audubon's Martha Gach on May 4th at 11:00 a.m. in Lake Street Park. This will be an easy, accessible stroll for all to enjoy in one of Shrewsbury's prime natural areas. The Shrewsbury Trails Committee is sponsoring this event with support from the Shrewsbury Cultural Council and Mass Cultural Council. Meet in the Park's upper parking lot near the picnic area. No registration needed. Questions? Email the Committee at trails01545@gmail.com.

2. Please Note – Shrewsbury Public Library Events (New)

Paranormal Hotspots with Ronny LeBlanc

Join the Shrewsbury Public Library on Monday, April 22nd at 6:00 p.m. with Ronny LeBlanc, local author, paranormal investigator, and former host of the Travel Channel's Expedition Bigfoot, who will give a presentation on paranormal hotspots in which he discusses parts of the U.S. that have had UFO, cryptid, and paranormal activity, including areas within New England. He will also provide some tips and advice for budding paranormal investigators for what to look for in older buildings such as the library!

Sponsored by the Friends of the Shrewsbury Public Library. This program will take place in person; please register to attend.

The Amistad Trials: What Price Freedom?

Join the Shrewsbury Public Library on Wednesday, April 24th with Justice Dennis J. Curran (ret.).

This case pits the American government against the Spanish government, the President against his own Secretary of State, the executive branch versus the judicial branch, and abolitionists against slave traders. It even prompted a former President to appear before the Supreme Court to condemn the policies of a present Administration. This case finally received the recognition it deserved from Stephen Spielberg's 1997 Academy Award-nominated feature film, Amistad.

Justice Dennis J. Curran (ret.) served as a Massachusetts trial judge for 15 years. He is a graduate of Boston Latin School, the University of Pennsylvania (B.A. and M.A.) and the University of Virginia School of Law.

This program will take place in person; please register to attend.

Matt York Presents the Songs and Stories of Willie Nelson

Join the Shrewsbury Public Library on Tuesday, May 7th at 7:00p.m with longtime New England singer/songwriter Matt York, who will perform songs and tell stories about the great Willie Nelson. York will focus on Willie's long and illustrious music career that has spanned over seven decades. In both 2022 and 2023, York was nominated for the Boston Music Award for Best Country Artist and last year, his album, Gently Used, was named one of the top albums by Worcester Magazine.

This program is supported in part by a grant from the Shrewsbury Local Cultural Council, a local agency which is supported by the Mass Cultural Council, a state agency. This program will take place in person; please register to attend.

50 States of Mind - Author Event

Join the Shrewsbury Public Library on Wednesday, May 8th at 7:00 p.m. with Ryan Bernsten, who set out to travel all 50 states to find solutions to the present day divide in U.S. politics. His findings? Our diversity is our nation's greatest strength, if only we choose to embrace it. Through humorous encounters, vivid storytelling, and insightful commentary, Bernsten highlights the common thread of humanity in the Americans he meets across the country.

Ryan Bernsten is a graduate of Northwestern and the University of Oxford's creative writing graduate program, where he received a distinction for his narrative nonfiction account of his American travels, 50 States of Mind: A Journey to Rediscover American Democracy.

Sponsored by the Friends of the Shrewsbury Public Library. This program will take place in person; please register to attend.

An Evening with Noor Ali, author of One Teaspoon of Home: Desi Food Poetry

Join the Shrewsbury Public Library on Thursday, May 9th at 7:00 p.m. with Noor Ali, who is a nature enthusiast, loves tea and delicious sentences. Noor's written works explore themes of justice, leadership, and the complexities of race in society, captivating readers with her unyielding honesty. Noor proudly presents her first book of poetry, One Teaspoon of Home: Desi Food Poetry, a tender tribute to the land (Lahore, Pakistan) that holds her heart. In this book, food is introduced to us as characters with personality, their quirks, flaws, punches, temperament(taaseer), attitude - overwhelming and underwhelming. Come and listen to Noor read her poems and talk about the inspiration behind each one of them. Also, sample some delicacies from South Asian cuisine.

Signed copies of the book will be available for purchase. This program will take place in person; please register to attend.

3. Please Note – Shrewsbury Public Library Events for Tweens & Teens

We have some great events for tweens and teens happening in April at the Library!

10. Save the Date – DEIB Committee Forum, April 25th

As part of our ongoing commitment to fostering an inclusive and equitable community, we are excited to invite Shrewsbury residents to the Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging (DEIB) Committee Forum that will be held at Shrewsbury Public Library on April 25th from 6-8pm in Meeting Room A.

Your voice is essential in shaping the agenda for the upcoming season, and we value your input on how the DEIB committee can better serve our diverse and vibrant community. We believe that diversity of thought and experiences is crucial in building a community that truly reflects the values and aspirations of all its members. Your presence at this forum will contribute to the collective efforts of creating an environment where everyone feels a sense of belonging.

Your perspective matters, and we look forward to hearing your ideas on how the DEIB Committee can make a positive impact in our community. Together, we can create a more inclusive and welcoming environment for all. Thank you for your participation and dedication to building a stronger, more united Shrewsbury.

11. Please Note – DEIB Committee Logo Contest

We are calling all art enthusiasts! The Town of Shrewsbury's Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging Committee is thrilled to announce our Logo Design Contest, and we want you to be a part of this creative journey. The winning design will become our official logo, showcased across various platforms.

The contest is open to all Shrewsbury residents. Group submissions are welcome. The contest closes on Thursday, March 30th or until we have 5 entries. Click here for submission details and judging criteria. Thank you for contributing to our commitment to diversity and inclusion!

12. Save the Date – Worcester Children's Chorus Auditions, May 21st & June 18th

Worcester Children's Chorus auditions are open! Children and youth ages 8-18 throughout central Massachusetts are encouraged to sign up for WCC's auditions for the 2024-2025 concert season on May 21st and June 18th from 4:00-7:00 pm at Joy of Music Music Program (1 Gorham Street, Worcester).
