

THE FALCON FLYER

November 30, 2009

Dear Floral Street Families,

We hope that you had a wonderful Thanksgiving and some extended family time over these last five days. It is only a brief period now before our next extended break from school – we look forward to these coming weeks as an opportunity to look back at how far we have travelled since that last day in August. Our first trimester has drawn to a close, our students are more powerful learners, and we as professionals have grown in our own capacity in that time. We are anxious for the coming month as a time to celebrate and solidify this growth as we build and move forward!

Sincerely,

Todd Curtis
