

SHS Alumni News

Hello SHS Class of 2020! We know you've only been out of high school just over a year, but, believe it or not, you can already be an invaluable resource to current SHS students. Whether you've gone on to college, learned a trade, joined the military or you've gone straight to work, you have a story that can help current SHS students.

Click here to join SHS' new alumni program and learn more about how your story can help current students navigate through their high school years and beyond.

You can also connect with us on LinkedIn. Join our rapidly growing network of over 300 SHS alums and grow your own professional network, find lost friends and classmates and learn more about what's happening in your home town.

To see what other our alumni program is all about and to see what other alums are up to, follow us on Instagram.

Curious about how SHS alumni are helping our students? Take a peak here. They've also been highlighted in various publications like the quarterly School Journal and the yearly Annual Report. Check it out - you probably know someone.

Welcome back, Class of 2020!
