

SOCIAL JUSTICE TALKS

Shrewsbury Public Library Zoom Events

(Click on the titles to register.)

Rights and Wrongs: Black Women's History and the Suffrage Movement

Wednesday, Oct. 28, 7 PM

Kellie Carter Jackson's presentation will focus on black women's activism and leadership. We will discuss voter suppression, black women suffragists, and voting today.

THE SLAVERY ADVERTS 250 PROJECT

Wednesday, Nov. 18, 7 PM

Slavery Adverts 250 Project identifies every ad mentioning enslaved people that appeared in every newspaper published in colonial America 250 years ago that day. Presented by Carl Robert Keyes.

VIRTUAL TALK BY CINZIA PICA-SMITH ON INTERRACIAL FRIENDSHIPS

Wednesday, Dec. 9, 7 PM

Dr. Cinzia Pica-Smith will give a presentation on the importance of inter-racial friendships. After a 30-minute presentation, she will answer questions from the public.

You will receive a Zoom invite the day before the event.