

Hour of Unified Play

A Presentation by Beal
Students & Faculty

Community

com·mu·ni·ty

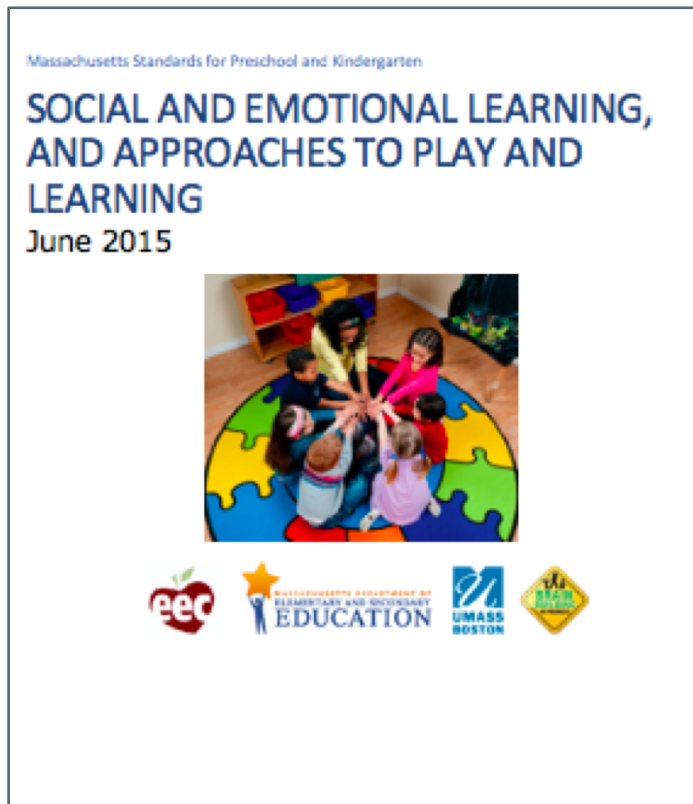

/kə'myoʊnədē/

noun

A group of people living in the same place or having a particular characteristic in common.

Play & Learning

The foundations of social competence that are developed in the first five years are linked to emotional well-being and affect later ability to functionally adapt in school and to form successful relationships throughout life.

—National Scientific Council on the Developing Child, 2004

Unified Play at Beal

"You can discover more about a person in an hour of play than in a year of conversation." ~Plato

Social and Emotional Competencies

Questions?

It was fun!

I got to play in the gym!

I found my way back to our classroom!

I was lonely and then
I found a friend!

It was a long time!

It was the best day of my life!

I have a new friend now!

It was hard when I couldn't find someone
I wanted to play with.

I played with a friend from preschool!

I found new things to do!

I tried some new activities!