Floral Street School Remote Learning Survey – April 2020

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	My oldest child is able to follow directions and complete work on her own.	5/4/2020 10:55 AM
2	Most able to complete work independently with parent check-ins.	5/4/2020 9:43 AM
3	The sea saw app used requires complex operation which a first grade kid is having difficulty figuring out without parents help. It is hard for parents to help during office hours as we also work and be on calls at that time. Instead zoom kind of approach would be feasible as kid can operate if you show him one time.	5/4/2020 9:15 AM
4	my daughter does not want to do schoolwork, she thinks she is on vacation and is having a difficult time focusing, learning, and motivating herself	5/4/2020 9:07 AM
5	He is able to login to all the resources provided	5/4/2020 7:52 AM
6	7/10	5/4/2020 12:05 AM
7	I believe we are all doing the best we can with what we have. There is a lot of room for improvement.	5/3/2020 11:34 PM
8	Though not the ideal environment for learning and taking into consideration how suddenly they had to switch to remote learning, we think it's working pretty well for our child.	5/3/2020 10:37 PM
9	My rating is 4 Remote learning is working good but she is missing her social interaction with teachers and class friends.	5/3/2020 10:23 PM
10	It is difficult	5/3/2020 10:13 PM
11	Assignments are good and we are able to follow however students are missing the time they spend learning from their teachers. Like most work in different fields has shifted to online, I think the kids learning from their teachers can shift online too until they can get back into school safely. Everyday 2 to 3 hours of Zoom lessons from the teachers is going to go long way in my opinion. If it was a regular school day teachers and kids would be in school for 6 hours regardless. Not to mention travel time is additional. For online learning 2 or 3 hours of learning/time spent with teachers daily is going to be great. Thanks!	5/3/2020 10:07 PM
12	Very limited	5/3/2020 9:52 PM
13	A lot of good material.	5/3/2020 9:34 PM
14	Trouble with going from one website to another	5/3/2020 8:40 PM
15	Easy to access slides and enough work for the kids without being too overwhelming. The biggest negative is having to copy or print every one of the the documents. It is very time consuming and not cost effective if having to print.	5/3/2020 8:20 PM
16	Remote learning though useful cannot replace classroom learning	5/3/2020 7:59 PM
17	9	5/3/2020 7:32 PM
18	Overall I think it's going fairly well. That said, some assignments seem overly repetitive regarding writing assignments. There's only so many days where you can tell a child to revise or expand on the writing assignment that they did their best on the day before.	5/3/2020 6:57 PM
19	Able to access Zoom properly now. Wasn't working in the beginning.	5/3/2020 6:43 PM
20	We are doing the best, having to still go into work and there is not much direction with the ELA sections. This needs to be more clear	5/3/2020 6:41 PM
21	Not really sure if it's working to not. I am doing the best I can as a parent under the circumstances that I have to work while home schooling.	5/3/2020 6:39 PM
22	3	5/3/2020 6:37 PM
23	No new concepts are being taught, essentially putting breaks in the learning process. Though, the assigned work is going well but not taking the students further in the circullum.	5/3/2020 6:36 PM
24	It's not the same as classroom teaching, but I think the instructions are clear, and we're doing our best to stay on schedule.	5/3/2020 6:14 PM
25	8/10	5/3/2020 6:05 PM

Floral Street School Remote Learning Survey – April 2020

26	She gets it - she's learning. From my perspective with no teaching experience or full understanding of best practices or principles, I just feel like it isn't thorough enough because it seems quick and simple for her. But maybe that's normal. Just doesn't feel like lessons are always rounded out with more information. Maybe ELA and SS complement each other (at times I think they do) but there is no "educator, if you can connect the ELA lesson on red questions to this week's science reading..."	5/3/2020 5:33 PM
27	In terms of learning I think we are doing about a 7. That is more of a grade on my part as I'm not a school teacher and forcing a structured environment at home is difficult as I am also working from home. We are doing fine but if I was not working it would work better. More importantly, my daughter is very, very social.	5/3/2020 5:16 PM
28	Currently online classes are held 30min for two days in a week. it would really help we can increase the number of classes in a week and also duration of class or can split into multiple session in a day if more than 30 min is long	5/3/2020 4:51 PM
29	Learning plans are thorough. Seesaw and google docs are working well. Teachers are doing a nice job of supporting and engaging remotely	5/3/2020 4:44 PM
30	5	5/3/2020 4:43 PM
31	It is only about 2 hours of work per day and much of it is not very challenging (e.g. math) compared to what he would have in the classroom. In second grade, the kids don't learn much in an independent manner like older kids can so I feel like they need more time in front of the teachers.	5/3/2020 4:15 PM
32	As per the current situation, kids are bored at home. Because of remote learning classes they are spending e on activities	5/3/2020 3:15 PM
33	she communicates with her teacher fir her doubts on assignments and regularly attends the zoom meetings and submits her assignments online promptly	5/3/2020 1:57 PM
34	Based on our schedule work, another kid at least we are able to squeeze and be able to finish the homework though sometimes it's not easy	5/3/2020 4:56 AM
35	Hunter has been given a reasonable amount of work for the circumstances. It keeps him on track without overloading him (or me). Also, the zoom calls have helped him feel connected to his friends and teacher all of whom he was missing.	5/2/2020 6:44 PM
36	She is finishing her work, but when she gets stuck at something, I am not able to explain a concept. She says it's better big my teacher teaches me. But she likes being home too.	5/2/2020 5:18 PM
37	I would like to see longer times on Zoom with the teacher and more learning sessions	5/2/2020 3:50 PM
38	it is hard to keep the child stay engaged and motivated	5/2/2020 1:05 PM
39	Still working out our schedule for including art, music, gym, speech, and additional ela work. Concentrating on most important aspects of online work due to time.	5/2/2020 11:30 AM
40	She could use a few more hours in a week of live teaching.	5/2/2020 10:03 AM
41	My son just really misses school. He seems to have some trouble with the writing assignments. He does well with them but just seems to get worked up about them	5/2/2020 9:13 AM
42	They are learning . But ELA and writing needs more guidance or answers so that parents can check it Quickly.	5/2/2020 6:40 AM
43	too much screen time	5/2/2020 12:52 AM
44	I feel like the time spent on remote learning via zoom is way too short. In this covid situation we should try to have actual zoom classes for a few hours each day, like the kids would normally have. Attention span may be an issue, however, with this new world situation the kids will have to adjust and learn to learn via zoom.	5/1/2020 11:37 PM
45	Based on different learning styles, something more interactive is needed. Also, it's a little annoying that the "optional" work is not in the full PDF packet.	5/1/2020 11:31 PM
46	The learning online is pretty good. Not that many problems. And it's pretty easy to work with in these times. The only problem is that See-Saw is hard to work with for our family. We think that google drive was better and more easy.	5/1/2020 7:58 PM

47	He is struggling with computer, email, and accessing the lessons, printing and then understanding his lessons.	5/1/2020 5:30 PM
48	Remote learning plan are working okay. The one feedback , I have is every week especially in Math we have a new concepts that are introduced. If we could have an hour dedicated for teaching this new concept , it makes the assignments for the week much more easier. As of now parents are expected to teach the children new concepts every week , which is a time consuming	5/1/2020 5:01 PM
49	The remote learning plans are clearly improving over time but still are far less effective than in-person teaching. As my daughter spontaneously said just this week, "I finally have an assignment that feels like fourth grade work."	5/1/2020 4:44 PM
50	The technical changes are impacting how to plan the week .	5/1/2020 3:49 PM
51	Very good	5/1/2020 3:23 PM
52	I think it's doing good	5/1/2020 3:13 PM
53	We are working parents and it's getting difficult to spend quality time teaching the kids.	5/1/2020 3:12 PM
54	I like the weekly Overview of plans. I appreciate the extra papers that would normally go in their writing folders. I find them helpful as a parent. For example, instead of saying I hear you could say....	5/1/2020 1:53 PM
55	We like the consistency and have now developed a routine. The packet is helpful to organize the week.	5/1/2020 1:00 PM
56	My son does not think its important to do any assignments if it does not have to be submitted or if there is no online teaching. We would really appreciate if there can be more online live learning classes rather than just the independent work.	5/1/2020 11:05 AM
57	Email on Friday about the week ahead gives me time to plan my kids school work . Morning meetings with teachers .. followed by school work.Lunch break finish rest of the work followed by free play/ tv while I get my office work done well	5/1/2020 9:33 AM
58	Amount of work is less.	5/1/2020 9:08 AM
59	My oldest child tends to be an independent learner who does well with minimal supervision.	5/1/2020 9:00 AM
60	Having the weekly schedule keeps us organized and keeps him on track with what he's doing.	5/1/2020 8:58 AM
61	Mia is independently doing her work each morning. She likes the structure of how long to spend on each subject. Other than scanning documents for her, she has done everything on her own. I believe the material is helping her learn while not overwhelming her.	5/1/2020 6:44 AM
62	The teachers are doing amazing but it's hard for her to get excited about doing it and keeping her engaged	5/1/2020 6:17 AM
63	My child is excited to see videos but not enjoying write ups. Math seems to be working ok.	5/1/2020 1:04 AM
64	Hard to keep him focus	5/1/2020 12:15 AM
65	While I appreciate the weekly zoom meeting, the discussion board format is challenging for this age level. My child's teacher has been phenomenal but it's all just really challenging trying to meet the expectations while trying to work full time.	4/30/2020 11:47 PM
66	There are so many links for assignments and learning that it is overwhelming for my child so she gives up. I have tried to print as much much am finding it's just as overwhelming.	4/30/2020 9:01 PM
67	Great easy to follow google doc and same every week.	4/30/2020 8:13 PM
68	Getting self organized. Planning his day effectively.	4/30/2020 8:11 PM
69	Communication is sent out on Sunday for the entire week so we know what's expected every day.	4/30/2020 8:08 PM
70	There is a lot of writing involved. Lessons that the child can navigate by themselves and do all by themselves will make it easier for parents.	4/30/2020 5:34 PM
71	I would like to see more engagement from the school. The towns around us have two or atleast one zoom meeting per day. We have 2 half hour meets per week. In terms of active learning I	4/30/2020 5:28 PM think there's minimal to none done on Zoom. It's completely left to the parents to home school their kids.

72	Good engagement by the class teacher keeps kids busy	4/30/2020 5:17 PM
73	My child is learning well and is engaged.	4/30/2020 5:09 PM
74	I think the plans and level of communication from the teachers are amazing. It's just challenging to get him to do the work, and have time to assist while I'm working and helping to educate siblings as well.	4/30/2020 3:53 PM
75	well	4/30/2020 3:49 PM
76	My child alternates between being bored by the lessons or hyperventilating about starting a lesson because it is too hard. Also, lessons require a great deal of parent interaction, so my child gets many breaks when I get pulled away to do my own work, chores or give her sibling needed attention. It takes all day to do the assignments because of all the down time.	4/30/2020 3:45 PM
77	We're having some difficult days. We had a day where he spent 2 hours between his Zoom meeting with class, his specials, and his science. He melted down that day about doing the rest of his work. I let him do half of it and then finish up the following day. That seemed to help a bit. Also, he doesn't get speech services now. We haven't gotten any videos or any other supports that were mentioned in his IEP amendment due to the extenuating circumstances. His speech is backtracking and we don't have many ways to help him with his fluency now. We went back to his K cues and he seems OK with it.	4/30/2020 3:21 PM
78	While I am glad for the expanded use of Zoom meetings, I'm not sure why they are not scheduled daily. I also find that the amount of time spent each day is probably 15 minutes. While I don't expect us to fully replace a classroom experience with a remote learning one, I think that the amount of work being done is quite low. Friends and co-workers in other towns have a good bit more interaction and work. I'd be in favor of something like 30-45 min in the morning and then again in the afternoon via Zoom for more learning and more of a structured school experience.	4/30/2020 2:43 PM
79	Too young to learn remotely. Communication is challenging. Teachers aren't trained on technology. Difficult situation for everyone.	4/30/2020 2:41 PM
80	it is difficult to maintain the routine and have didactic	4/30/2020 1:05 PM
81	The remote learning platform places a lot of the teaching on parents. Thankfully, the Zoom meetings, which have been held 2-3 times per week by my son's teacher, have taken some of the load off. At the same time, there are many assignments that are more "independent" and require parents to effectively do the teaching. This can be very difficult with 2 other children who also have remote learning plans at the middle school level. In addition, some topics are not covered in a very challenging way. Math, for instance, is essentially a basic review and many of the problems are at a level much lower than what my son was doing in school. Friday's schedule is very limited. While the Genius Hour is a neat idea and allows for self-directed learning, my second grader requires supervision and help with this type of thing, which is not necessarily something I always have time to give. Consider changing the Friday curriculum to be more structured and adding Genius Hour as an option?	4/30/2020 12:53 PM
82	It's extremely difficult to engage a 7yo in online learning and Zoom meetings, due to decreased attention span and ability to focus.	4/30/2020 12:25 PM
83	It has been hard to keep the routine of work and it's not enough to keep the students busy.	4/30/2020 12:21 PM
84	The contents are well-organized. The amount of work each day is reasonable. My child can follow and complete most of them in time. While accompanying my child to work on the remote learning activities, I sometimes feel the need of a parent's guide on how to walk the kids through the activities.	4/30/2020 12:07 PM
85	He knows the expectations for the week and is able to access the information posted whether through Seesaw or thru the weekly email.	4/30/2020 12:00 PM
86	This pushes my kid to work/think harder to get work done right, but at the same time it frustrates him when he can't.	4/30/2020 11:40 AM
87	keep the kids engaged in daily learning with materials , tasks, and assignments	4/30/2020 11:32 AM
88	She is getting interested in the activities that are being provided to her.One thing we would like	4/30/2020 10:48 AM to improve is if possible to do zoom meetings at least 4 times a week. We recommend this because my daughter is getting up early and having a proper schedule for the rest of her day.

89	It seems too short for the online meeting.	4/30/2020 10:42 AM
90	Two half-hour Zoom meetings per week coupled with the work assigned strikes the appropriate balance. We are becoming slightly concerned about the number online "logins" required of an age demographic that is recommended to have little to no screen time.	4/30/2020 10:37 AM
91	I feel like to not enough face to face meetings(live zoom calls) are happening for my child.	4/30/2020 10:34 AM
92	The zoom meetings are difficult because 7-8 year olds have a lot of distractions at home and it's hard for them to stay focused when they know a sibling is in the other room watching cartoons or playing because they aren't old enough for school yet. If there was one place to go for everything that would be easiest. For parents who are both working at home it's difficult to remember which website to go to for extra stuff. Muster Doug and Go Noodle are great, but it would be easier if there was one portal (mobile friendly so printing can be done from phones) like the parent portal where everything is located.	4/30/2020 10:15 AM
93	It is working good. But we are finding it difficult to complete the specials every week.	4/30/2020 10:10 AM
94	Remote learning cannot be compared to in person learning but i feel something is better than nothing. We did have a bumpy start as its new for the teacher as well as the student. But i am so happy that all of us are trying our best to make this Remote learning work in the most efficient way. I appreciate the teacher's effort for making the sessions as engaging as possible and fun for the children.	4/30/2020 10:04 AM
95	5	4/30/2020 9:41 AM
96	She is mainly learning on her own.	4/30/2020 9:41 AM
97	Not enough practicing material In Math. Maybe it has to be some sort of a program were they can do more practicing in the computer were they can type in. Instead of printouts	4/30/2020 9:30 AM
98	it tries to stretch a small amount of material out over a longer amount of time than needed. my child gets bored and losses focus.	4/30/2020 9:26 AM
99	We find that Seesaw is easy to use and submit responses on. If we did not have Seesaw, we would find it difficult to complete assignments as we don't own a printer to print out any materials.	4/30/2020 9:21 AM
100	The plan is working. It is doable but he still misses out on that teacher interaction.	4/30/2020 9:18 AM
101	Our home environment is not conducive to learning. The top issue is the level of distraction from our preschooler. Second would be both parents are still working full time, so most of the remote learning has to be independent, which really is a struggle for our 2nd grader. I am not a great teacher, so when we hit roadblocks, they tend to be impassable. Curriculum-wise, the work coming home seems either way too easy or a battle to complete. Either way, it feels like this must be a fraction of what his education used to be. Our child absolutely views the remote learning as a chore and aims for the bare minimum of work, as fast as possible. Early on we could at least fill out the block of time with supplemental material or reading, but that has all fallen away at this point.	4/30/2020 9:16 AM
102	Difficult to engage my child in online learning	4/30/2020 8:43 AM
103	I really don't see any "learning" happening. Its just a simple assignment to complete each day	4/30/2020 8:39 AM
104	Kids are one way at school and another at home. I found that my child was lacking lots of motivation and had the mind set of "I'm home, why should I put effort"	4/30/2020 8:35 AM
105	The remote learning is working well because the assignments are posted on seasaw and he can be independent in his learning and submission of assignments. Zoom meetings are great also	4/30/2020 8:14 AM
106	this past week the links havent worked for the videos, worksheets, and stories. it's very frustrating and time consuming just to get everything ready for the "school day". also, my child has not received much feedback from the teacher regarding the work that's submitted; there was only one comment back about one assignment. it's disappointing and discouraging... i get the impression that the teacher is not even actually looking at the work (based on the one comment that was received); it seems they're just checking if the work was done/handed in. if	4/30/2020 8:10 AM

there was more feedback, it might serve as motivation for my child to work harder, to impress the teacher and to know their hard work is paying off. since there doesnt seem to be a correlation in my child's mind that the work output is being reviewed, i spend a lot of time motivating my child to do the work, and to do quality work.

107	My child's teacher is outstanding and she works extremely hard for the children. Although pleased with remote learning, it is not better than in classroom.	4/30/2020 6:11 AM
108	The current program is intended for independent learning which is not something the majority of the kids in 3rd grade had mastered. More interactive learning should be provided	4/30/2020 12:20 AM
109	There's a system that is regimented and clear. Solid instructions	4/30/2020 12:03 AM
110	It's difficult to teach a child on an type of device because it's not what they are used to everything is different especially as a parent when he's used to a teacher, also it's a lot to take in for an adult let alone a child and sometimes it doesn't work and it can be frustrating and there are all types of distractions so all around it's just hard obviously it's what has to be done but it's just not easy	4/29/2020 11:52 PM
111	Some kind of bridge between school and the kid, it gives positivity and hope.	4/29/2020 11:05 PM
112	It's too short a time. If it's half hour then it should be everyday. If only two days then it should be at least an hour!	4/29/2020 10:56 PM
113	There a clear assignments for every day, live sync-up twice week and quick answers to questions by e-mail or Seesaw.	4/29/2020 10:48 PM
114	I can give a 3.5 out of 5	4/29/2020 10:40 PM
115	My daughter is comfortable and independently working on her remote learning program	4/29/2020 10:34 PM
116	Overall it is going well. My child is getting the required work done, but is not doing much of the optional work.	4/29/2020 10:29 PM
117	Although remote learning is the best learning it cannot compensate for the 8 hour spend everyday at school learning varied things from teachers and peers.	4/29/2020 10:26 PM
118	Not great	4/29/2020 9:59 PM
119	I think the learning is going great but I'm not very sure about how well new topics are getting covered	4/29/2020 9:58 PM
120	The teachers have created a well rounded week of assignments. Thankyou for continuing to have our students do close readings and really focus on different skills. The math pages are great and has students to spiral back in review as well as focus on current concept of the week.	4/29/2020 9:55 PM
121	My daughter can do the assignments and follow the online classes. Her activities are checked by me but, in general, she is quite independent.	4/29/2020 9:53 PM
122	I think teachers are doing a remarkable job. My only note is that this remote learning cannot possibly come close to what they would learn in class. And it has nothing to do with the effort by everyone in the Shrewsbury school system which has been nothing short of remarkable.	4/29/2020 9:17 PM
123	I would prefer more Zoom meetings to be able to interact with his friends and teacher on video	4/29/2020 9:17 PM
125	My child stays focused	4/29/2020 9:12 PM
126	Certainly, remote learning cannot take the place of actual classroom experience(not even close). Under these unusual times, the staff is doing an excellent job utilizing remote teaching.	4/29/2020 9:10 PM
127	9/10	4/29/2020 9:06 PM
128	Great communication from teacher! Workload is reasonable most days, but student is requiring my help to navigate through and understand assignments.	4/29/2020 9:04 PM
129	My son was having a hard time with getting too distracted to do his school work while he was in class. I feel like he can concentrate better at home.	4/29/2020 9:00 PM
130	More live touchpoints (both small and full group sessions) would be helpful	4/29/2020 8:12 PM

Floral Street School Remote Learning Survey – April 2020

131	My child is on an IEP and frankly it is taking a good chunk of time to help and guide them in completing their work. Their is no 1 on 1 time with teachers, only group. Also really hard to keep up with work for other services.	4/29/2020 7:58 PM
132	So far it's going great, my child is engaged well and the lesson plans cover all the subjects.	4/29/2020 7:55 PM
133	it is going about as well as it can. thank you for your efforts!	4/29/2020 7:45 PM
134	It works ok for him. He needs help from parents sometimes to understand what he needs to do for his assignments	4/29/2020 7:35 PM
135	I like that there are many options and difficulty levels since my child accesses ELA at a different level than other subjects. I think that the math could be more challenging.	4/29/2020 7:32 PM
136	not well too much work and distrctions	4/29/2020 7:23 PM
137	Remote learning is very well organize. We like the fact that we receive week's schedule before the weekend. We wish that teacher spend little bit more time with kids.	4/29/2020 7:17 PM
138	The remote learning plans provide some level of education, but both my school ages kids are becoming increasingly disengaged with the repetitive lesson and complete the work in less than half the suggest time. I strongly encourage additional teacher interaction. My wife and I spend considerably time each day adding our own content to supplement the learning process.	4/29/2020 7:13 PM
139	I will start by stating that it is understandable that no one was prepared for this situation. The remote learning plans do not offer much new learning. They are very repetitive and frustrating for our student. The zoom meetings are a cute way for friends to say hello, but add no new educational value and become one more thing to do without any true benefit.	4/29/2020 7:11 PM
140	He struggles with school so he needs a lot of help throughout the day. With my husband working in his lab every day, and me working from home, it is tough to provide the support he needs leading to several hours of work - and going into late hours to complete assignments. Tough to balance still working during the day and trying to support education of two kids at the same time.	4/29/2020 7:10 PM
141	My daughter is doing fine with the lessons. It is absolutely a new change of pace and can be difficult to get her to sit with mom to do school every day but we are certainly managing. All of the lessons are great and appropriate and we are getting through and appreciate all of the hard work Floral and her teachers have done.	4/29/2020 7:08 PM
142	Remote learning is a good option in this situation. At the same time it is little difficult to make the kids do their work everyday.	4/29/2020 7:06 PM
143	The remote learning plan works well for my kid.	4/29/2020 7:05 PM
144	Work is clearly laid out. The PDF of worksheets is helpful. I book mark the weekly plan for my daughter and she is very self sufficient. Zoom calls happen regularly at set times. She looks forward to these calls.	4/29/2020 7:00 PM
145	My child is resistant to his new teacher at home. I do think the plans are great but my student needs to have a more positive attitude about learning at home.	4/29/2020 6:58 PM
146	He's fine with amount of work he's getting done.	4/29/2020 6:58 PM
147	The communication between the teachers and the kids is very limited. There is very little teaching going on. There should be a set time during the day where the kids can communicate freely with their teacher, ask questions and get responses instantaneously- something similar to Teams or Skype chat apps.	4/29/2020 6:49 PM
148	The 2 x 30 minute face to face interactions/week with the teacher was a good starting point. However, at this point, I feel significantly more teacher interaction is warranted to share the teaching responsibility with parents. The parents are tasked with keeping these kids engaged, and by only having 2 x 30 minute interactions a week the children are not getting much encouragement to stay engaged from the school. In order to share the teaching responsibility, and to better teach the application of lessons, we feel that daily interaction with teachers is indicated at this point in time.	4/29/2020 6:46 PM
149	We had a set schedule that was working quite well. With the increased zoom For all of us - we now are really struggling to keep a consistent schedule as teachers are adding more each week. Gone are the "blocks" we spent learning together and now we are running from one thing	4/29/2020 6:34 PM to our next. Some assignments take much longer than required time depending on the amount of time I am able to sit with him and help. I often need to be in a meeting or with my other son who also needs help with each assignment. I often run between the two and they both get frustrated. Both boys get frustrated with the videos and we are lucky to be able to print most assignments for them to work through on paper in front of them. We look forward to trying to finish by 1:00 so the boys can pick hands on activities(science experiments, art, learning to tie knots , read aloud etc) and be able to learn together again . Some days writing assignments pose a huge challenge than other days

150	Daughter is easily completing the work. Not sure if she is being challenged.	4/29/2020 6:31 PM
151	The work load is not overwhelming. The activities are engaging and my daughter enjoys them. I find days that have a heavier work load I can save an activity for another day if needed, and the lighter days have a lot of choices to add if we would like to.	4/29/2020 6:26 PM
153	I have been frustrated with all the weekly, sometimes daily changes. We are in a very stressful time and all this extra work put on working parents is not easy at all. No tears than its worth.	4/29/2020 6:18 PM
154	Starting to understand the concept	4/29/2020 6:13 PM
155	It gives us the core learning that we need while giving us the flexibility to also explore other areas.	4/29/2020 6:08 PM
156	My child can do the work at her own pace and on her own time, she can also balance it out with fun activities she enjoys.	4/29/2020 6:08 PM
157	Not well it's difficult. It's better to start school early rather than remote learning.	4/29/2020 6:05 PM
158	I think it is going very smoothly. I love getting the info ahead of time to plan the week, and the consultant schedule.	4/29/2020 6:04 PM
159	I am incredibly disappointed in the number of live lessons the district has instructed the teachers to provide each week. I think the teachers have done a great job trying to keep the kids engaged and connected, but it is a complete joke, that my first grader only has one live lesson a week. Shame on this school district.	4/29/2020 6:00 PM
160	Teacher was/is very communicative. Checking in multiple times a week.	4/29/2020 5:59 PM
161	We find it complicated trying to go back and forth between websites and as 2 parents that are still working outside of home it is hard to juggle everything.	4/29/2020 5:58 PM
162	Working we'll but down side is not being able to fill in worksheets online and pass them in that way.	4/29/2020 5:54 PM
163	Lots of writing for individual work no help or direction	4/29/2020 5:50 PM
164	It is not clear to me what the point of each reading exercise is. It would help to have a parents' guide to help us ask probing questions which help our kids arrive at the "best" answer... It would also be very valuable for her to have once / week one on one sessions with her teacher.	4/29/2020 5:42 PM
165	We are getting assignments, my child is completing the work. Reading the daily assignments can be confusing.	4/29/2020 5:39 PM
166	It keeps them engaged in different subjects and extra curricular activities	4/29/2020 5:38 PM
167	There is too much work- it's overwhelming for us as "teachers" and our children. I don't think my child is learning as much at home. He is on an IEP- so remote learning is even more challenging.	4/29/2020 5:37 PM
168	Adhd and focus not there in the home setting	4/29/2020 5:35 PM
169	We prefer to have more online time (preferably few hours of Zoom class, class room style) so kids can engage for longer duration. Teachers can give 30 min tasks and check back on Zoom after task duration. Total 3-4 hours is ideal in my opinion.	4/29/2020 5:33 PM
170	The remote learning is ok not that great. I have heard that in other towns that the teachers are doing zoom meetings for grade 1 students from 9 -3 everyday, whereas here the students are just assigned stuff and then it becomes parents responsibility than the teachers to have all the work completed with their child and have their own tasks as well for the office	4/29/2020 5:32 PM

171	During these difficult times, my daughter was not progressing well with her first grade work. We were in the process of starting EIP paperwork. She has done well gaining concepts and improving on her overall work.	4/29/2020 5:32 PM
172	I think my child enjoys finishing her assignment. Thank you for all the teacher's hard work. I am not sure if I, as a parent, help her in reading, and writing as expected	4/29/2020 5:31 PM
173	5 on a scale of 1-5	4/29/2020 5:29 PM
174	My child is in the spectrum can not work independently	4/29/2020 5:29 PM
175	The remote learning is going well however, it is an adjustment for the children to do school work from home.	4/29/2020 5:27 PM
176	she did not like waking up early to do her zoom. when we werent sure how things were going to look like, we allow the kids sleep late and wake up late so we(parents) can also get stuff done and some sleep too. Then the mandatory zoom schedules and assignments started and its a hurdle waking them up to join their friends. But once they are awake, its smooth sailing afterwards	4/29/2020 5:25 PM
177	My child is completing the work each day without issue. However, it's all just busy work. He's not learning anything and his typical passion for reading, writing and learning in general is gone.	4/29/2020 5:25 PM
178	I think that my daughter is learning from the work.	4/29/2020 5:25 PM
179	Remote learning requires us to be engaged in order for my son to actually do the work. With a younger sibling at home and with both of us working from home this is challenging.	4/29/2020 5:24 PM
180	He does not really like using computers and is not used to using them. But we try and print off a lot of the reading material	4/29/2020 5:23 PM
181	Certainly the remote learning assignments are allowing our child to maintain the math and ELA skills they've learned and he's enjoyed some of the links to science and history materials available online. There have been some technological hiccups getting up to speed on Zoom logins and occasional technical difficulties. Probably the biggest hurdle is the sheer volume of emails coming in from the SPS, Floral, his teacher, etc - we can get upward of 50 Seesaw notifications in our inboxes daily from just his primary teacher and that's not including emails from his specials instructors, the weekly lesson plan links from Principal McCubrey and the updates from the SPS Superintendent. We've missed announcements and assignment information just from it getting buried in all the other messages. Given the degree of difficulty and the turning on a dime that the entire school district has done, this is a minor thing and overall the faculty and administrators have risen to the occasion in a genuinely touching and remarkable way.	4/29/2020 5:20 PM
182	Curriculum with limited options is good. But, we are not sure if we are able to do justice with WFH.	4/29/2020 5:20 PM

186	It's very less time with teachers and faculty on one and one fashion. Total 60mins a week with 20kids in session does not provide much value.	4/29/2020 5:15 PM
187	The child is able to do most of the activities independently and the remote learning activities and guidance from the educator is in itself self explanatory. The educator stays connected though virtually, and there is ample time to surf through variety of study materials and resources online. Remote learning is also helping to stay safe inside home, practice social distancing and learning to accept these challenges and overcome the testing times.	4/29/2020 5:14 PM
188	It is a reasonable amount of work that she is able to execute almost entirely independently with minimal help.	4/29/2020 5:13 PM

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	The teacher's preference is to submit the assignment via Seesaw. I don't like the application as there is a lot of logging in and out of accounts (as I have 3 children who use it) to submit. Also, I prefer that my child spends less time on screens...so I have to take the time to submit the assignments for them. The application can be cumbersome, and I can not add it to my phone due to limited memory issues. I would rather email the assignments to the teacher.	5/4/2020 10:55 AM
2	The process is simple enough to submit. We're almost never done by noon on Friday though.	5/4/2020 9:43 AM
3	His teacher is doing her best to give feedback and help out kids.	5/4/2020 9:15 AM
4	her teacher is amazing, always wanting to help and encouraging that connection.	5/4/2020 9:07 AM
5	Teacher can teach the concept for the kids before the kid starts working on the assignment	5/4/2020 7:52 AM
6	9/10	5/4/2020 12:05 AM
7	My child's teacher has been amazing through all of this. She is using the tools available as best she can. She is quick to provide personalized feedback shortly after assignments are submitted.	5/3/2020 11:34 PM
8	We are overall happy with the whole process. The teacher is accessible via various ways but email is our preferred means of communication. We get a quick response whenever we have reached out. Kudos to all the teachers!	5/3/2020 10:37 PM
9	My rating is 5. My daughter's teacher is Ms. Bisciglia. She is awesome teacher. She promptly checks all assignments and give her feedback. That helps my child to fix her work.	5/3/2020 10:23 PM
10	Good	5/3/2020 10:13 PM
11	it goes back to my previous comment. Submitting the assignments at end of the week is already week late for feedback. Most times kids cannot reference to what happened on last Monday if they get the feedback at the end of the week. The feedback is effective only when it is given the same day. Feedback comes in an email to parents and then parents read it to the students. The effect of delivering the message from teacher diminish right there especially for elementary kids. These kids look up to the teachers so much and for them feedback matters the most if they hear directly from their teacher.	5/3/2020 10:07 PM

19	submitting by a certain time, does not work for our family as I am still having to go to work	5/3/2020 6:41 PM
20	It's going well, I think. I am giving my daughter feedback with her work and not necessarily rely on teacher to give her feedback which could be delayed by a few hours. The other reason is also I have time constraints, I can not wait on the computer for long and add more back and forth to the teacher which will generate more work for me.	5/3/2020 6:39 PM
22	This could have been much better considering the level work being assigned that adds no new knowledge gain to the students. Any attempt teaching the concepts could have shown the willingness by teachers.	5/3/2020 6:36 PM
23	The teacher is excellent and gives immediate feedback. We're constantly in touch.	5/3/2020 6:14 PM
24	9/10	5/3/2020 6:05 PM
25	Easy to submit - we get feedback. A good back and forth when necessary	5/3/2020 5:33 PM

69	Going well	4/30/2020 5:09 PM
70	The teacher is constantly giving great feedback and offering small group/individual support via zoom.	4/30/2020 3:53 PM
71	it is easy	4/30/2020 3:49 PM
72	We haven't received much, if any, feedback on actual assignments. We have spent a long time discussing strategies/approaches though to reduce stress.	4/30/2020 3:45 PM
73	He has learned to submit his assignments pretty much by himself. He's learning to scan items and learning some basic typing skills to name his documents.	4/30/2020 3:21 PM
74	We have found with iPads and Seesaw we have good interaction with the teacher and can submit pictures of the work.	4/30/2020 2:43 PM
75	Assignments are sometimes vague and confusing. E.g. sheet may say Monday, but it's actually Wednesdays assignment. Or reading assignment may require scrolling to Thursday but it's meant for Tuesday. Wording is sometimes unclear, even for adults. So teachers available on the spot to answer, like in a classroom setting.	4/30/2020 2:41 PM
76	the teacher is very attentive and is always willing to help	4/30/2020 1:05 PM
77	When we email the teacher items, she responds very quickly and directs the email to my son, which I think is terrific.	4/30/2020 12:53 PM
78	My son's teachers both send out daily communications and respond to private emails promptly.	4/30/2020 12:25 PM
79	The teacher has been very responsive to everything. However, the amount of mandatory work is very little. The students have less incentive to do the optional work but if they could submit their optional work to the teacher for feedback--they might do it more readily! They don't have to be graded on the optional work but it is a great way to challenge the students!	4/30/2020 12:21 PM
80	My child learned how to submit his work through Seesaw. It is pretty straight forward. The teacher gives feedback through encouraging comments on Seesaw. The teacher also goes	4/30/2020 12:07 PM

through some key activities during the zoom meeting. I can imagine the zoom meeting will be more efficient when the teacher and all parents are more familiar with the Zoom app.

81	His teacher is very communicative on whether she received the assignment or if the assignment is not done correctly and what may have been wrong.	4/30/2020 12:00 PM
82	It's easy to submit the assignments and the teacher always replies with explanations on how he could do better.	4/30/2020 11:40 AM
83	She is getting positive feedback and helpful feedback. She is taking that feedback and trying to make her work submission better.	4/30/2020 10:48 AM
84	The teacher gives correction and comments on the homework.	4/30/2020 10:42 AM
85	Teacher is very personable, positive and timely in her feedback	4/30/2020 10:37 AM
86	When an assignment is submitted the teacher gives feedback either that same day one or more of the assignments submitted. This a great turn around time.	4/30/2020 10:34 AM
87	It's easy enough to take a picture of a worksheet and email it to the teacher. She gets back to us with corrections and comments quickly too.	4/30/2020 10:15 AM
88	It is very easy communicating with Mrs Hogan.	4/30/2020 10:10 AM
89	As a parent i end up mediating this assignment submission and passing the feedback between the teacher and my child. At times it does get overwhelming but I am able to manage. My son loves receiving the feedback from his teacher and she is very prompt with her response. Thanks again!	4/30/2020 10:04 AM
90	10 on 10	4/30/2020 9:41 AM
91	Teacher gives timely and detail feedback .	4/30/2020 9:41 AM
92	I think that it has to be some sort of program were child can type in and teacher on other side can see every one progress and check their Math	4/30/2020 9:30 AM
93	not getting any feedback	4/30/2020 9:26 AM
94	Our teacher has been great with updating Seesaw and providing assistance for the kids.	4/30/2020 9:21 AM
95	the feedback received is clear and helpful for the both of us	4/30/2020 9:18 AM
96	The teacher is doing a great job. I have the tools I need to easily submit work to her and she is prompt and meaningful with her feedback.	4/30/2020 9:16 AM
97	Easy to send assignment to teacher by paper and taking a snapshot in seesaw... but difficult to have a 7 year old WRITE in seesaw with cursor	4/30/2020 8:43 AM
98	Nothing to say. Something is due and she does it. We had trouble dealing with SeeSaw so it wasn't the most easy to use.	4/30/2020 8:39 AM
99	The teacher was great with communication so that was extremely helpful.	4/30/2020 8:35 AM
100	Very easy on seasaw	4/30/2020 8:14 AM
101	already stated in my prior comment. there is essentially no feedback from the teacher about the work being done. and the app that's used to submit work (seesaw) is archaic and counterintuitive, definitely difficult to submit assignments at times because there is no option to do so for the particular assignment (not all assignments, just for some).	4/30/2020 8:10 AM
102	My child's teacher is very responsive and always answers inquiries timely.	4/30/2020 6:11 AM
103	No issues communicating with teachers, that's going very well	4/30/2020 12:20 AM

108	We always get feedback on the mandatory assignments but don't really know the status on the rest. If no comment means that there is nothing to improve, that's great but it needs to be reminded to the children.	4/29/2020 10:48 PM
109	I can give 4.5 out of 5	4/29/2020 10:40 PM
110	It's easy to submit assignments and we have many options via which we can choose to submit. Also we get feedback or corrections or improvements needs on submitted work by teachers	4/29/2020 10:34 PM
111	Communication from my child's teacher has been great!	4/29/2020 10:29 PM
112	We are not getting feedback on every assignment my child submits but only some of them are reviewed by her teacher on seesaw.	4/29/2020 10:26 PM
113	I think the teacher is doing great, she responds through email and Seesaw promptly	4/29/2020 9:58 PM
114	I use the CamScanner app and scan every assignment and send the pdfs in one email on fridays. The teacher responds quickly and encourages student to review answers as needed.	4/29/2020 9:55 PM
115	My daughter is using the Seesaw application to post assignments and there is always feedback from teachers.	4/29/2020 9:53 PM
116	Our classroom uses Seesaw and sometimes it's hard to know when there's feedback on the work submitted. But this isn't a reflection on the work of the teachers - who have all me nothing short of amazing.	4/29/2020 9:17 PM

122	We use Seesaw and it's been very effective!	4/29/2020 9:04 PM
123	His teacher is excellent at giving helpful positive feedback.	4/29/2020 9:00 PM
124	Mrs. Edgren has been very responsive to questions and offered to meet 1:1 via zoom when my child has technical challenges with assignments	4/29/2020 8:12 PM
125	Easy to submit on seesaw and teachers send feedback often	4/29/2020 7:58 PM
126	Teachers are giving feedback promptly and hence our child is able to correct the mistakes and trying to finish up the assignments on daily basis	4/29/2020 7:55 PM
127	Our teacher is extraordinarily in control and helps in a smooth class routine	4/29/2020 7:49 PM
128	I need to add reminder on my calendar to submit assignment to the teachers as I did not want to send in late to reflect bad performance on my child.	4/29/2020 7:35 PM
129	My student's teacher is responsive and gives good feedback.	4/29/2020 7:32 PM
130	not well doesnt want to do work	4/29/2020 7:23 PM
131	Teachers are always positive and provide encouragement. They immediately check the submitted assignment. May be school should explore tools using which teachers can provide precise feedback on the submitted assignments.	4/29/2020 7:17 PM
132	Using Seesaw to submit class assignment and receive feedback is easy and my kids can managed that without our help.	4/29/2020 7:13 PM
133	There is no feedback of value	4/29/2020 7:11 PM
134	Some struggles here and there but overall making it work	4/29/2020 7:10 PM
135	We are able to finish the lessons and turn them in on time and we always receive almost instant feedback and comments from her wonderful teachers	4/29/2020 7:08 PM
136	We are able to submit the assignments on time and the teachers are also giving their feedback the same day.	4/29/2020 7:06 PM

137	The teacher gives office hour and usually responds quickly about questions.	4/29/2020 7:05 PM
138	I'm not sure I've seen any feedback, but I am not concerned about that.	4/29/2020 7:00 PM
139	It's easy to submits assignments and the teacher always responds to the assignments in a reasonable amount of time.	4/29/2020 6:58 PM
140	Teacher is always available	4/29/2020 6:58 PM
141	The instructions on how to submit assignments provided by our teacher were excellent, and very helpful. And our teachers are prompt with providing helpful feedback on work that gets submitted.	4/29/2020 6:46 PM
142	His teacher is doing a great job. We just get tired of all the extra taking pictures and spending more time on devices to upload work each day .	4/29/2020 6:34 PM
143	Mostly daughters work passes and receives praise. Mistakes are noted and asked to be corrected.	4/29/2020 6:31 PM
144	Good	4/29/2020 6:27 PM
145	My daughter's teacher uses Seesaw, so submitting work is extremely easy.	4/29/2020 6:26 PM
146	7	4/29/2020 6:19 PM
147	The teachers have been AWESOME. The technical parts are not. There is too much jumping around for this grade level.	4/29/2020 6:18 PM
148	Teacher is very much involved and always get positive and encouraging feedback.	4/29/2020 6:13 PM
149	We always get prompt responses.	4/29/2020 6:08 PM
150	Teacher is fantastic at keeping on top of responding to assignments and answering questions in a timely manner.	4/29/2020 6:08 PM
151	It's easy	4/29/2020 6:05 PM
152	We submit the assignments through Seesaw, which is very easy. We get a response for every item submitted.	4/29/2020 6:04 PM
153	I am submitting assignments through an app that I don't really understand or am familiar with. I think my child's teacher is doing the best she can under these circumstance---again I don't fault the teachers for any of this, rather the district.	4/29/2020 6:00 PM
154	Constant feedback which is very helpful.	4/29/2020 5:59 PM
155	We try to get everything done by 11 then we get feedback and do corrections so we r working until 4 or 5	4/29/2020 5:58 PM
156	Little to no feedback on assignments each week. Also hard to submit works since it can't be done on seesaw or in the google doc directly off the link.	4/29/2020 5:54 PM
157	Don't hear much on feedback only exit assignments	4/29/2020 5:50 PM
158	My child values the feedback she gets from her teacher. My wife and I are not good teachers and lack the understanding and empathy that her teacher offers.	4/29/2020 5:42 PM
159	No feedback from teacher.	4/29/2020 5:39 PM
160	She gets feedback and compliments for her work	4/29/2020 5:38 PM
161	Feedback from the teacher is great! However, the I don't know how much is being retained with my child. I feel he has regressed tremendously.	4/29/2020 5:37 PM
162	Very easy	4/29/2020 5:35 PM
163	Submission process is very manual. (I send all assignments in email). I am not sure if there is a better way.	4/29/2020 5:33 PM
164	The remote learning is ok not that great. I have heard that in other towns that the teachers are doing zoom meetings for grade 1 students from 9 -3 everyday, whereas here the students are	4/29/2020 5:32 PM

165	Mrs McGrail is phenomenal about getting back to us and offering suggestions of improvement areas we can focus on	4/29/2020 5:32 PM
166	Mrs. Poppalardo and Mrs. Blair give Chiyo feedback on her assignment right away. It promotes her to finish her assignment.	4/29/2020 5:31 PM
167	Excellent	4/29/2020 5:29 PM
168	the special aide teachers are doing excellent job in accommodating his needs	4/29/2020 5:29 PM
169	The Zoom's are very important in all aspects especially socially. The teachers are keeping in touch constantly and offer additional help if needed.	4/29/2020 5:27 PM
170	I can reach my Childs teacher with any concerns, questions and she gets back to me in a very timely manner.	4/29/2020 5:25 PM
171	My child's teacher has been wonderful. She accepts work through email and SeeSaw. It's easy to submit and she is very responsive.	4/29/2020 5:25 PM
172	Submitting assignments through SeeSaw has been easy and the teacher has given response fairly quickly.	4/29/2020 5:25 PM
173	The teacher is very responsive, provides helpful feedback, and spends 1on1 time with my son.	4/29/2020 5:24 PM
174	All is good and feedback is prompt	4/29/2020 5:23 PM
175	We still haven't figured out how to submit assignments through SeeSaw so we've been emailing them. His primary teacher - and, really all of his teachers - have been super-responsive and also incredibly encouraging.	4/29/2020 5:20 PM
176	Teachers are kind, answering promptly	4/29/2020 5:19 PM
177	From 0-10. 8	4/29/2020 5:15 PM
178	Generally good. Seesaw can be difficult to use	4/29/2020 5:15 PM
179	Feedback directly coming from teacher than parent providing feedback From teacher to kids is less effective	4/29/2020 5:15 PM
180	The teacher is doing amazingly great work with prompt feedback, corrections and explanations whenever necessary. The child is happy to see positive remarks and more enthusiastic to share the assignments with the teacher.	4/29/2020 5:14 PM
181	Once the teacher was able to adjust to some of the remote learning aspects, there seems to be a good flow both interactively and asynchronously	4/29/2020 5:07 PM
183	She is very good at communicating.	4/29/2020 5:06 PM
184	We could use more feedback on ELA	4/29/2020 5:05 PM
185	Only selected assignments are required for submission which hardly indicates if child is making any progress.	4/29/2020 5:04 PM
186	I'm sometimes ,don't don't know how to explain to him some assignments.	4/29/2020 5:04 PM
187	Mrs. Murphy and Mrs. Burt very response on email communications and sharing feedback.	4/29/2020 5:04 PM
188	Easy smooth	4/29/2020 5:02 PM
189	It's easy enough taking a photo of assignments and emailing them.	4/29/2020 5:02 PM

193	At first the teacher would let us know when an assignment. Was missing but she has explained the process and we have not gotten any emails asking for assignments in quite some time.	4/29/2020 5:00 PM
194	When I have a question she responded quickly and resolved the issue with a small group learning zoom.	4/29/2020 4:58 PM
195	She is prompt reviewing and sends back work for corrections, usually because the directions are so bad my daughter can't figure out what she is supposed to do.	4/29/2020 4:58 PM
196	I feel like I'm constantly in the loop with his teacher. We receive quick and specific feedback.	4/29/2020 4:57 PM
197	We receive comments on the seesaw app	4/29/2020 4:56 PM
198	Mrs. Manning is the best :) She does a great job with feedback and posting comments on seesaw	4/29/2020 4:55 PM
199	It's going very well. The teacher explains the kids very well during love meeting	4/29/2020 4:55 PM
200	Going well and very cooperative.	4/29/2020 4:53 PM

1	2 live learning sessions is the max we can handle, so this is acceptable for us.	5/4/2020 10:55 AM
2	Time is available 2x/week, however at 8.30am the time regularly conflicts with business meetings.	5/4/2020 9:43 AM
3	I heard kids do have remote class via zoom everyday in other school districts. I think having few hours of remote learning after noon would keep them engaged.	5/4/2020 9:15 AM
4	i only give that rating b'c my daughter really flourishes with more direct contact teacher time..her teacher has made a commitment to a separate personal leaving meeting weekly which i know she will benefit from.	5/4/2020 9:07 AM
5	There can be more time spent by teachers teaching the concepts daily for each subject. May be they can group the kids and teach accordingly. As of now it's more like home schooling them instead of virtual schooling.	5/4/2020 7:52 AM
6	9/10	5/4/2020 12:05 AM
7	There is less than an hour of interaction each week. This is way too little. I'm not counting the office hours, which are offered but we haven't had a need for yet.	5/3/2020 11:34 PM
8	Could be slightly more and not just once a week.	5/3/2020 10:37 PM
9	My rating is 4 . It's nice to have live interaction with the teacher. But we would like to have 40 mins. I stead of 30 mins.	5/3/2020 10:23 PM
10	there is just 30 mins of zoom meeting for the kids twice a week. Since there are so many kids in a given class 30 mins is not enough	5/3/2020 10:07 PM
11	Would be nicer if kids can have more interactive online lessons by may be smaller group etc	5/3/2020 9:52 PM
12	There's enough useful interaction	5/3/2020 9:34 PM
13	It's nice	5/3/2020 8:40 PM
14	One hour a week is good for check ins, review and follow up info, but not enough for teaching new content	5/3/2020 8:20 PM
15	9	5/3/2020 7:32 PM
16	I think the group calls 3 times a week are the best that can be expected. But I wonder if the kids would get more out of it by having shorter calls with fewer kids on them (aka breaking up the class).	5/3/2020 6:57 PM
17	They meet twice a week and get emails daily.	5/3/2020 6:43 PM
18	she would benefit more with more class interactions	5/3/2020 6:41 PM
19	I am following all instructions and she's attended all live interactions.	5/3/2020 6:39 PM
20	2	5/3/2020 6:37 PM
21	Teacher to student interaction time could have been much better than whats being done, considering the best school rating given shrewsbury district compared to the neighboring towns. Honestly, dont see any talk by teachers that keeps students interests or learning in view. Putting a dent in the learning progress.	5/3/2020 6:36 PM
22	The number of hours are feasible.	5/3/2020 6:14 PM
23	10/10	5/3/2020 6:05 PM
24	Just feel like there could be more - or maybe more to the meetings. Seems more about reminding students that other students are out there too - and less about lessons. Which I understand.	5/3/2020 5:33 PM
25	This is not my area of expertise so I cannot effectively answer this question.	5/3/2020 5:16 PM
26	Would like multiple classes in a day on more than two days in a week	5/3/2020 4:51 PM
27	I wish there could be daily classroom instruction so kids can keep learning new content. I know this is logistically challenging for the district, but it would enhance remote learning greatly to	5/3/2020 4:44 PM

29	I feel like 2nd graders need a good deal of their learning to be teacher guided. Parents can help them complete the assignments but it isn't clear how much they are learning from completing assignments.	5/3/2020 4:15 PM
30	Live interaction with teacher is great and my kid can watch their classmates and clarification of doubts	5/3/2020 3:15 PM
31	good	5/3/2020 1:57 PM
32	We have one zoom a week, I think one more would be good and make my son feel more connected.	5/3/2020 1:42 PM
33	My son receives assignments that his teacher easily explains and then he is able to complete on his own.	5/2/2020 6:44 PM
34	We would like more live learning sessions with teacher.	5/2/2020 5:18 PM
35	A	5/2/2020 3:50 PM
36	a smaller group with the teacher will be beneficial. 30 min zoom meeting with 25+ students is too short.	5/2/2020 1:05 PM
37	Direct instruction for the week's assignments are well done.	5/2/2020 11:30 AM
38	We would like a few more hours of live teacher interaction.	5/2/2020 10:03 AM
39	He likes being able to log in and see his teacher and classmates	5/2/2020 9:13 AM
40	May need some more live learnings for ELA and writing	5/2/2020 6:40 AM
41	It's fine	5/2/2020 12:52 AM
42	I feel that we should strive to hold virtual classes at least somewhat similarly to what would be held pre-covid. Maybe 2 hours a day is a reasonable goal.	5/1/2020 11:37 PM
43	The 30 minutes 2x a week is very quick and rushed, wish it was a little longer for interaction and questions vs rushed	5/1/2020 11:31 PM
44	I think the teachers are doing there best to interact with the kids, and I understand they are trying there best, but I think maybe the meetings could be longer.	5/1/2020 7:58 PM
45	It is better than nothing for the kids to keep the spirits of a classroom with their teacher and friends.	5/1/2020 5:30 PM
46	If we could get extra time dedicated to teaching the new concepts being introduced in the weekly assignments in Math and ELA , it would make the assignments for the week much more easier	5/1/2020 5:01 PM
47	While I appreciate that the teachers are working extremely hard and have many demands for their time, my child is desperate for more interaction with her teacher and class. I would hope that live teaching sessions could be prioritized and occur far more often than 1-2 times per week.	5/1/2020 4:44 PM
48	1st grader need the classroom structure and to be in the classroom. We definitely miss that.	5/1/2020 3:12 PM
49	I think our teacher has been awesome balancing learning and connection. There is not much down time, they learns and they are off. This is extremely helpful bc he wants to finish writing whatever they were doing on zoom. I also loved that their special teachers were on and did a lesson, that takes one thing on off plate.	5/1/2020 1:53 PM
50	I wish there were more than one class zoom per week to ensure the kids are engaging socially and learning together but understand this is not easy for teachers who have families to care for at home.	5/1/2020 1:00 PM
51	We really wish if teachers can have more live classes, maybe a couple hours everyday so that kids can feel more engaged and can continue the learning process. 30 minutes is not enough time to interact with more than 20 kids.	5/1/2020 11:05 AM

52	Two half hours weekly seems to be working out and my kid looks forward for it and after it's independent learning/ doing	5/1/2020 9:33 AM
53	It is good. But we could have daily half hour class	5/1/2020 9:08 AM
54	Two live meetings per week is a good amount.	5/1/2020 9:00 AM
55	I wish that he could interact with his classmates more than just two half hours a week. It's wonderful that we're able to have that time, but I do wish there was more of that.	5/1/2020 8:58 AM
56	Having 2 Zoom interactions a week is plenty. She also regularly uploads videos on seesaw which are very helpful.	5/1/2020 6:44 AM
57	Live teaching they can interact with the teachers who know how to engage the children and it's more social then everyday schoolwork in the kitchen. However I realize they are parents too and as a working mom I understand that is not a practical approach	5/1/2020 6:17 AM
58	I would like to see more live interaction. Which can be just wick 15-25 mins call, 3-4 time a week.	5/1/2020 1:04 AM
59	The zoom check in meetings are great but the seesaw discussion board in a 20 minute window with a 7 year old is tough	4/30/2020 11:47 PM
60	Only twice a week for roughly 30 minutes.	4/30/2020 9:01 PM
61	Right amount of time. More I don't think student would be engaged.	4/30/2020 8:13 PM
62	Half hour 2 times a week is not sufficient to interact with each student!	4/30/2020 8:11 PM
63	He has Zoom meetings twice per week; Tuesday's and Thursday's at 8:30 am. I only wish they could be daily.	4/30/2020 8:08 PM
64	The circle time type of sessions are not equivalent to the teacher spending time with the child. Given the shift to remote learning, focus should be on 1 on 1 instructions for such young kids.	4/30/2020 5:34 PM
65	This is explained above	4/30/2020 5:28 PM
66	With twice 30 mins Live (Zoom) session, its perfect online/screen time	4/30/2020 5:17 PM
67	NA	4/30/2020 5:09 PM
68	The two scheduled zooms are great, and the option to have additional zooms for extra help is appreciated.	4/30/2020 3:53 PM
69	it is OK	4/30/2020 3:49 PM
70	I would like to see more teacher interaction specifically, more teaching of lessons. Also, 9:15 start time is too earlier in our household now. We get to the calls on time but my child is now sleeping into at least 8 AM and she does her best when awake for at least 2 hours before needing to participate.	4/30/2020 3:45 PM
71	I think that one Zoom meeting a week is not enough. Again, I know these are extenuating circumstances, but "Live Seesaw" really isn't live. My kiddo will watch the video that is presented, make his comments, and then move on to something else.	4/30/2020 3:21 PM
72	2 Zoom meetings a week (up from only 1) just isn't enough. At a minimum it should be daily, but twice daily would be better.	4/30/2020 2:43 PM
73	I would rather have more teacher time and no homework, or less teacher time and structured home learning plan. Having to sit with my child through 1-1.5 hours of classroom, and then do another 1-1.5 hrs of homework while having a job that is also work from home is more than challenging.	4/30/2020 2:41 PM
74	great interaction	4/30/2020 1:05 PM
75	I think the Zoom live teaching interaction has been great. It typically consists of 2 teaching and one 'fun' meeting, plus office hours. I'm torn, because I'm not sure my son would do well with longer meetings, but I'd like him to have more interaction with his teacher and class. Perhaps in lieu of office hours, elementary teachers could do a regular meeting on that day, which would give the kids a Zoom meeting 4 days/week.	4/30/2020 12:53 PM
76	Teachers are trying to juggle a lot but a daily hour of live interaction with the teachers will give	4/30/2020 12:21 PM

the students more of a routine.

77	It is challenging to manage the live sessions during Zoom meeting. Sometimes, we cannot hear what the teacher said, because of other children talk while the teacher speaks. Wish that the teacher can manage the mute/unmute better.	4/30/2020 12:07 PM
78	His teacher does Zoom meetings twice a week for a minimum of 30 mins but sometimes more if she needs to explain a certain topic again.	4/30/2020 12:00 PM
79	I think we're doing good.	4/30/2020 11:40 AM
80	Would like to have more weekly time for live teacher interaction	4/30/2020 11:32 AM
81	She is learning all that she needs to know for that weeks submissions. This is helpful because she has all the background knowledge that she needs for that weeks submission	4/30/2020 10:48 AM
82	Current assigned online learning is short.	4/30/2020 10:42 AM
83	The teacher does a great job of keeping the students engaged both in Zoom meetings and in daily Seesaw posts.	4/30/2020 10:37 AM
84	For a child that needs help with social skills only meeting 2x week with one teacher isn't sufficient enough when the child was seeing classroom teacher 5x week, 3x week special education teacher, 1x -2x week with school psychologist and speech therapist. That is significant drop off I am aware of circumstances as to why, I thought that specialized teachers would like to have more "live"interactions with child.	4/30/2020 10:34 AM
85	The zoom environment seems a little hard for kids of this age. It would be helpful if there were "teaching videos" that could be accessed on demand instead of live.	4/30/2020 10:15 AM
86	Wish we can have some more time with the teacher, like they can do some activities wit the teacher via zoom.	4/30/2020 10:10 AM
87	My son's teacher is available at scheduled times for live interaction and that's very helpful. It also gives us lot of comfort knowing that she has got our back and we are not alone.	4/30/2020 10:04 AM
88	10 on10	4/30/2020 9:41 AM
89	There's only 2 half hour sections in a week.	4/30/2020 9:41 AM
90	Live meetings with teacher has to be longer and more frequent, productive, cover new material and practicing, same as they did in class. It will be more efficient learning and will take less time from parents trying to explain, check practicing pages etc	4/30/2020 9:30 AM
91	one zoom meeting a week with nothing of significance talked about.	4/30/2020 9:26 AM
92	It's not even close to what they would be doing in school but our teacher has been good with the resources provided. Also, I don't believe parents can handle more live classes than what we are currently doing.	4/30/2020 9:21 AM
93	they meet twice as week, which is enough for him.	4/30/2020 9:18 AM
94	I'm not sure how to answer this. There is only one 45 minute morning session 4x a week. This is the highlight of our 2nd grader's day. It feels like I'd want more. I would like a teacher several times a day to interact with every subject and every assignment. But, I don't know if this is realistic or even possible. I know she is a teacher to many children, not a private tutor. But, our child adores the teacher and I could see one or two individual live chats being extremely beneficial.	4/30/2020 9:16 AM
95	2 days a week seems sufficient- any more and it would be difficult to get young kids to focus	4/30/2020 8:43 AM
96	Not sure how a half an hour call each day could compensate for six hours of interaction otherwise	4/30/2020 8:39 AM
97	I think more live interaction via zoom would have been better to give my child the sense of responsibility he needed to do his school work.	4/30/2020 8:35 AM
98	I think it is difficult to challenge each student when they are all different learners but I think everyone is doing the best they can	4/30/2020 8:14 AM
99	aside from 2 weekly half hour zoom calls, there is practically no teacher interaction.	4/30/2020 8:10 AM

Floral Street School Remote Learning Survey – April 2020

100	I think the interaction is great but too limited.	4/30/2020 6:11 AM
101	Too little live interaction. If instructional learning cannot be provided live, recordings could be posted on seesaw. Kids would love to see and hear their teacher instead of watching some video on YouTube	4/30/2020 12:20 AM
102	Could use more teacher interaction not just with kids but the parents. Offer more 1:1's or parent / teacher sessions. Office hours are not proactive enough	4/30/2020 12:03 AM
103	It's too short and there are many students so one on one time is not possible	4/29/2020 10:56 PM
104	There are live teacher interactions twice a week and things seem very clear afterwards for my child.	4/29/2020 10:48 PM
105	A 3.5 out of 5	4/29/2020 10:40 PM
106	30 minutes twice a week is fine	4/29/2020 10:34 PM
107	I am happy with the live teacher zoom meetings, I wish they were daily instead of twice per week.	4/29/2020 10:29 PM
108	There is always a scope of improvement. I would expect a everyday zoom meeting but its only happening thrice a week.	4/29/2020 10:26 PM
109	I'm not very sure if the online zoom session is enough	4/29/2020 9:58 PM
110	I wish students can have more virtual class room time through the week. Maybe 3-4x (fri off). I understand it could be alot on the teachers so I dont expect them to do the extra planning but maybe just review concepts or some of the assignments with the teacher. Obviously up to the teachers. I dont buy the excuses of families being overwhelmed. Our students need structure. Our students need the education and the more we can provide the better they feel and less of a separation they have from school.	4/29/2020 9:55 PM
111	I believe that we could take 30 minutes daily classes. Another important issue is ESL classes because my daughter arrived from Brazil in February / 2020 and still needs help understanding English. We should have exclusive online ESL classes.	4/29/2020 9:53 PM
112	I wish there was another live lesson in the week OR that the live lessons we had lasted a bit longer. But I fully understand that teaches have strains on their home time as well.	4/29/2020 9:17 PM
113	Would prefer every day Zoom session with teacher and friends	4/29/2020 9:17 PM
114	5	4/29/2020 9:17 PM
115	I consider 2 times a week sufficient	4/29/2020 9:12 PM
116	The live teacher interaction twice a week is perfect and is complimented with teacher office hours in which time we can get our questions answered.	4/29/2020 9:10 PM
117	8/10	4/29/2020 9:06 PM
118	My child meets with the teacher twice a week. She also has the opportunity for office hours too. The zoom meetings have been great to offer guidance on tricky assignments, as well as stay connected to the class!	4/29/2020 9:04 PM
119	I feel well guided and I don't think that we could Handel any more.	4/29/2020 9:00 PM
120	I think there should be more live touchpoints with teachers/specials	4/29/2020 8:12 PM
121	Having 2 group sessions are not helping. Really needs individual 1 on 1 attention.	4/29/2020 7:58 PM
122	We almost have 4 days of zoom sessions every week. Apart from that, teachers spend small group timings for math to work closer. They are also available in email and seesaw.	4/29/2020 7:55 PM
123	Great	4/29/2020 7:49 PM
124	I think they should meet 3 times a week or extended an hour twice a week, half an hour twice a week does not seem enough.	4/29/2020 7:35 PM
125	I wish there was more teacher interact but realize that it's not possible now with teachers having to balance their own children's remote learning with teaching their students. I also think it would be harder for me to have more scheduled calls since I'm working remotely too.	4/29/2020 7:32 PM

126	teacher interactions are fine but its hard through a computer and to pay attention	4/29/2020 7:23 PM
127	During live interaction, teachers do awesome job. We are hoping kids have more live interactions with teachers.	4/29/2020 7:17 PM
128	My oldest child is becoming increasingly disengaged in school with the minimal live teacher interaction, which consists of two scheduled Zoom meetings per week. We are also taking advantage of teacher hours on Zoom which is providing some much needed additional feedback.	4/29/2020 7:13 PM
129	There is one meeting a week and it is not instructional. Please note we do not blame the teachers for this in any way.	4/29/2020 7:11 PM
130	Just to what I already mentioned. His teacher is wonderful and must be a tough adjustment for her also - but more II was interaction would be helpful.	4/29/2020 7:10 PM
131	I think the two zoom meetings per week is perfect.	4/29/2020 7:08 PM
132	We feel live teacher interactions are better than kids doing the work by their own.They will listen to teachers than parents :).	4/29/2020 7:06 PM
133	The communication between teacher and kid is good	4/29/2020 7:05 PM
134	Two times per week is what is happening. I think that is fine for my child.	4/29/2020 7:00 PM
135	I'm very busy working from home and dealing with 2 children with live meetings, when I also have live meetings, can be a challenge. Having them meet twice a week is sufficient.	4/29/2020 6:58 PM
136	2X a week is perfect	4/29/2020 6:58 PM
137	There is minimum interaction happening only twice a week for about an hour each.	4/29/2020 6:49 PM
138	As I stated earlier, two 30 minute interactions is minimal and doesn't promote student engagement, nor does it promote learning and applying the lessons provided. Keeping these kids engaged could be a shared responsibility with the teachers if there was more interaction. During that interaction, constructive teaching time and allowing more discussion with students will help keep the kids better engaged and better share the workload with parents.	4/29/2020 6:46 PM
139	It would be way to difficult for us to juggle more amount of time. We found that once we were able to have a set schedule and focus on just two mornings a week for each child it was much better than the insanity of twice a day at first. We are juggling lots of our meetings and some days the family just sat on computers all morning which is sad. We now have a weekly schedule for meetings and very much hope that doesn't get added too. We would keep our children limited to two meetings weekly	4/29/2020 6:34 PM
140	Decent amount of time, could always use more.	4/29/2020 6:31 PM
141	I think twice a week is perfect. My family is very busy working from home. I have at least 6 meetings a week myself, sometimes more. 2 times a week keeps her engaged in a manageable way.	4/29/2020 6:26 PM
142	7	4/29/2020 6:19 PM
143	I think anything over 45 minutes is too much for their age. The kids love to see and hear from the kids and teachers.	4/29/2020 6:18 PM
144	classroom setting, also seeing the teacher in person and their classmates, interaction.	4/29/2020 6:13 PM
145	The time is appropriate to connect and teach new material while not having my child tune out.	4/29/2020 6:08 PM
146	My son is too small to pay attention throughout. I have to sit with him so he can learn I can't sit more than 30mins.	4/29/2020 6:05 PM
147	We have two, 45 minutes zoom meetings. One is a guided lesson and the other is a morning meeting. It hits both the academic and social pieces, which is important to us.	4/29/2020 6:04 PM
148	One live lesson of teaching a week is simply not enough. I think it should be happening on a daily basis.	4/29/2020 6:00 PM
149	Twice a week seems adequate and Ms. Ushinski has proven to be available, even when she is not, to fit my child's schedule.	4/29/2020 5:59 PM

Floral Street School Remote Learning Survey – April 2020

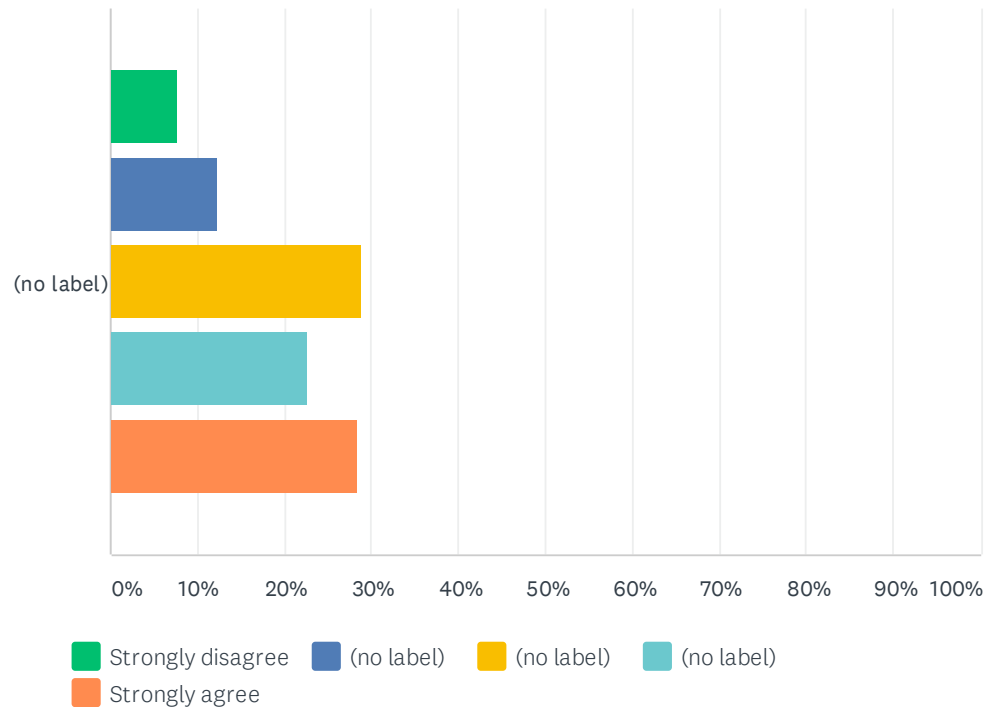

150	I appreciate the teacher taking time to connect but it's another hr of work added to the day that is already taking 4 hrs to complete	4/29/2020 5:58 PM
151	The zoom class meetings are great but the start time is not. 8:30 is far too early it was initially 10:30 which worked much better. If they are expected to be awake and ready to work little later would make a big difference. The lessons I listen to the kids all seem very tired and don't give much feedback.	4/29/2020 5:54 PM
152	Teachers should help the kids more maybe on1:1	4/29/2020 5:50 PM
153	I believe it would be valuable for my daughter to spend more time chatting with her schoolmates and with her teacher; either one on one or in small groups. The extra adult resource would be valuable.	4/29/2020 5:42 PM
154	Not enough	4/29/2020 5:39 PM
155	Once a week is not enough interaction	4/29/2020 5:38 PM
156	We need more live training on zoom/ with smaller classes. Special ed teachers also should be holding small classes as well.	4/29/2020 5:37 PM
157	Zoom confrences going well	4/29/2020 5:35 PM
158	As mentioned earlier, more live time (in classroom style) on Zoom would be great.	4/29/2020 5:33 PM
159	The remote learning is ok not that great. I have heard that in other towns that the teachers are doing zoom meetings for grade 1 students from 9 -3 everyday, whereas here the students are just assigned stuff and then it becomes parents responsibility than the teachers to have all the work completed with their child and have their own tasks as well for the office	4/29/2020 5:32 PM
160	I think we could do more interaction with the other teachers- for example music class is missed very much. It would be nice to have an offering of the special classes every so often.	4/29/2020 5:32 PM
161	30 minutes twice a week helps her to focus more on topic while she is on Zoom.	4/29/2020 5:31 PM
162	All going very well	4/29/2020 5:29 PM
163	not enough time my child requires one to one i think not enough time to accommodate him	4/29/2020 5:29 PM
164	The current Zoom meeting times are efficient and the teachers offer additional time if needed.	4/29/2020 5:27 PM
165	4 times a week is plenty of time to see and talk to her friends as well.	4/29/2020 5:25 PM
166	Zoom is getting to be something my child tolerates whereas at the beginning it was something he looked forward to to be able to connect with his teacher and friends. The 8:30 time is too early and the meetings now feel like a bore to him. His poor teacher is trying to engage them in learning and their attention is not there. It would be great to go back to social meetings vs live learning.	4/29/2020 5:25 PM
167	I think it would be nice to have daily class interaction.	4/29/2020 5:25 PM
168	More zoom time with the teacher and the classmates would be very beneficial, even more than academic work	4/29/2020 5:24 PM
169	With three children at zooming for school and also extracurricular activity zooms, 2 days a week school is about right	4/29/2020 5:23 PM
170	We'd love more teacher interaction, though I'm not sure how feasible that is. We'd also love to see his specials teachers - the choice board is nice but really, if it's not assigned it's not getting done. The structured assignments are much easier for him to follow - unstructured optional things are a little too much right now (choice board, "Genius Hour", etc.).	4/29/2020 5:20 PM
171	Keeping in live contact is working well	4/29/2020 5:19 PM
172	It's an appropriate check in without being overwhelming	4/29/2020 5:15 PM
173	As provided earlier	4/29/2020 5:15 PM
174	The teacher interacts twice in a week on live video calls, and every other days through the app to explain the assignments, give feedback on completed assignments and all online reading activities.	4/29/2020 5:14 PM

Floral Street School Remote Learning Survey – April 2020

175	My child does not enjoy the live zoom sessions. The content is usually not new for her so it is tedious and frustrating to sit through. Part of it may be due to the unfamiliarity of the teacher with the zoom platform as well.	4/29/2020 5:13 PM
176	It seems like a lot of the time for the interactions seems set from standards at the moment. If there are ways to expand to use remote tools for more independent plus the small group and whole class interactive lessons it would be great.	4/29/2020 5:07 PM
178	Learning new topics can be very overwhelming, especially when on Zoom others don't know how to mute,. Not being able to hear teachers explain info.	4/29/2020 5:07 PM
179	I think there needs to be more lesson based live interaction. If they can zoom for 30 minutes, then why can't that be done 3 or 4 days a week to actually teach the remote learning lessons.	4/29/2020 5:06 PM
180	As mentioned above probably a slightly longer schedule with the teacher would help	4/29/2020 5:06 PM
181	I would like to see more live or recorded learning on new material	4/29/2020 5:05 PM
182	Two half hour sessions weekly and two 10 minutes office hours per week are not enough.	4/29/2020 5:04 PM
183	Not the same at all	4/29/2020 5:04 PM
184	We should have 4 times in a week to accommodate academic year, soon we should go back to school.	4/29/2020 5:04 PM
185	It's tough with younger kids on computer	4/29/2020 5:02 PM
186	His teacher has set up 3 live Zoom meetings a week and on call office hours.	4/29/2020 5:02 PM
187	A little more interaction would be nice.	4/29/2020 5:01 PM
188	The live time is amazing! The teacher is using zoom in such a productive and efficient teaching way!!!!	4/29/2020 5:00 PM
189	My children are engaged with teacher accessibility.	4/29/2020 5:00 PM
190	She is is always available and interacts with the children.	4/29/2020 5:00 PM
191	I wish there were more live encounters and time for teaching as my daughter has difficulty with math	4/29/2020 4:58 PM
192	She would benefit from more time, later in the day. 830 am is impossible to facilitate with 3 kids, getting them out of bed, feeding them, getting dressed and ready to be learning while I am supposed to be working. it has put a significant strain on us to have these zooms that early.	4/29/2020 4:58 PM
193	2 zooms a week are perfect	4/29/2020 4:57 PM
194	Individual time with teacher is very less. Most of the time he is just listening in..	4/29/2020 4:56 PM
195	I think if possible, would be nice to have extra zoom time with class. This is something my daughter looks forward to every week.	4/29/2020 4:55 PM
196	I think the live interaction time should be more	4/29/2020 4:55 PM
197	It's quite appropriate	4/29/2020 4:53 PM

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Not much to connect to beyond the zoom	5/4/2020 9:43 AM
2	It is not as often and is a big group for the teacher to handle	5/4/2020 9:15 AM
3	when i just asked her she said no, because I get distracted very easily	5/4/2020 9:07 AM
4	8/10	5/4/2020 12:05 AM
5	My child is engaged but the time is too short and not frequent enough to foster meaningful connection.	5/3/2020 11:34 PM
6	They interact and talk to their teacher and peers so my child feels some connection. She misses school a whole lot so this is a welcome thing and she looks forward to it.	5/3/2020 10:37 PM
7	My rating is 5 . In each meeting my daughter gets excited to see all her class friends	5/3/2020 10:23 PM
8	He can see and talk to teacher	5/3/2020 10:13 PM
9	The connected feeling is still there however I fear it will fade overtime. As I said earlier, 30 mins twice a week is not enough for a kid to feel part of the class and learn from their teacher. This is like comparing 6 hours of school time daily vs 30 mins zoom meeting twice a week. You can decide on your own how kids can feel connected during this time.	5/3/2020 10:07 PM
10	Very well	5/3/2020 9:52 PM
11	They have zoom sessions	5/3/2020 9:34 PM
12	She is struggling with remote learning	5/3/2020 8:40 PM
13	Cameron feels like Ms. Ross is very involved and he still feels connected to her	5/3/2020 8:20 PM
14	9	5/3/2020 7:32 PM
15	Hard to replace the connection of normal school to an 8 year old	5/3/2020 6:57 PM
16	Participates and enjoy the class interaction.	5/3/2020 6:43 PM
17	she loves her zoom meetings with her class to connect to everyone	5/3/2020 6:41 PM
18	It's not the same as their interaction at school.	5/3/2020 6:39 PM
19	2	5/3/2020 6:37 PM
20	Students enjoy the 30 mins video session.	5/3/2020 6:36 PM
21	He misses the in person interaction but loves to see them on zoom nevertheless.	5/3/2020 6:14 PM
22	8/10	5/3/2020 6:05 PM
23	Simply doesnt feel possible. Not with an all class zoom twice a week for 30 minutes. More than half of that is a quick sound bite from each student.	5/3/2020 5:33 PM
24	I listen from afar (next room) and it sounds very interactive and engaging yet appropriate.	5/3/2020 5:16 PM
25	Misses socializing with friends	5/3/2020 4:51 PM
26	My kids feel connected. They get to say hi to each other and have time for sharing. But it is frustrating when other students talk over everyone and have poor video etiquette.	5/3/2020 4:44 PM
27	8	5/3/2020 4:43 PM
28	The teacher does a great job including the kids and relating to them individually.	5/3/2020 4:15 PM
29	He is missing his classmates and teachers. Through zoom meeting he feels connect to all of them	5/3/2020 3:15 PM
30	good	5/3/2020 1:57 PM
31	He is able to greet friends at the beginning of the call and is also able to participate using hand signals or raising his hand to answer questions.	5/2/2020 6:44 PM
32	She likes the zoom sessions.	5/2/2020 5:18 PM

34	I feel more time is needed.	5/2/2020 1:05 PM
35	Sees other students and teacher.	5/2/2020 11:30 AM
36	My daughter does feel connected to the classroom, however, just once in a week is not enough of connection. So if it would be more hours, it would be better.	5/2/2020 10:03 AM
37	I think it can sometimes be hard to focus as well since he is not in his actual classroom but overall he seems attentive and focused	5/2/2020 9:13 AM
38	Not much sure about that.	5/2/2020 6:40 AM
39	Yes ,children can see each other	5/2/2020 12:52 AM
40	She's connected but there's little to no interaction on her end.	5/1/2020 11:31 PM
41	My child is reading a lot, and studying, but again there should be more interaction with her teacher and friends.	5/1/2020 7:58 PM
42	They feel connected just more as an hang out with friends and teacher than really learning something.	5/1/2020 5:30 PM
43	Obviously it's not ideal, but she very much looks forward to connecting with her teacher and friends during live sessions. This morning she was in tears after a class meeting unexpectedly didn't happen, because she misses having more chances to connect.	5/1/2020 4:44 PM
44	My daughter loves to see her teacher and her classmates.	5/1/2020 3:12 PM
45	They all take turns at different times and they have done fun things.	5/1/2020 1:53 PM
46	With only one brief zoom per week, there is limited class connection.	5/1/2020 1:00 PM
47	As mentioned earlier, 30 minutes of live class twice a week goes by so fast. There is not enough time for all kids to talk and interact.	5/1/2020 11:05 AM
48	Likes interacting with teacher and her classmates	5/1/2020 9:33 AM
49	Most of the days he is excited to be part of the zoom meeting	5/1/2020 9:08 AM
50	My child has self-reported this feeling.	5/1/2020 9:00 AM
51	Since not everyone's posts on Seesaw are public, he is limited in what he sees from other classmates. On Zoom meetings, they don't have a lot of interaction with eachother, as classmates. I think it's great that they are able to connect in a classroom-like setting, but I don't know how connected he truly feels.	5/1/2020 8:58 AM
52	She loves seeing everyone on zoom but it isn't the same as being in a classroom where the connection is much closer.	5/1/2020 6:44 AM
53	She feels connected to her entire class and looks forward to seeing them	5/1/2020 6:17 AM
54	Live interactions, feedback on submission of class assignments etc. Seems my child feels connected.	5/1/2020 1:04 AM
55	I think the zoom meeting helps and his teacher posts a live story read every day (which has been amazing) but he's fairly disconnected from his peers, which is hard.	4/30/2020 11:47 PM
56	She enjoys the live connections	4/30/2020 9:01 PM
57	No social/remote interaction with classmates, usually teacher and students.	4/30/2020 8:13 PM
58	30 mins session duration isn't enough to connect well with each student	4/30/2020 8:11 PM
59	Zoom meetings definitely help him feel connected.	4/30/2020 8:08 PM
60	My child does not get time to speak with his friends or interact with them. It would be nice to set up sessions and break out rooms so few kids get to chat and share their experiences.	4/30/2020 5:34 PM
61	The frequency of interaction is very little. I don't expect to see results with this much done	4/30/2020 5:28 PM
62	Both during Class Live session and during personal time, kids are trying to get in touch and	4/30/2020 5:17 PM

64	He would prefer to see everyone in person, but enjoys the opportunity to connect on zoom.	4/30/2020 3:53 PM
65	rather connected	4/30/2020 3:49 PM
66	My child gets bored during remote learning. She has a hard time concentrating on her peers and sometimes her teachers. It depends on the subject matter though.	4/30/2020 3:45 PM
67	Zoom he feels connected. He gets excited about seeing his friends; however, he dreads "Live Seesaw".	4/30/2020 3:21 PM
68	Again, the time spent in Zoom meetings isn't enough to make a connection.	4/30/2020 2:43 PM
69	My child hates the experience, loathes attending. But likes her teacher and classmates when in person.	4/30/2020 2:41 PM
70	can't interact much with friends via online class	4/30/2020 1:05 PM
71	I'm not sure my son feels very connected at the moment. Even with Zoom meetings, the natural, face-to-face interaction, which is crucial to social interaction and feeling connected, is missing.	4/30/2020 12:53 PM
72	My son does not enjoy the Zoom Meetings-it gives him increased anxiety. I think because he knows it is not a "normal" way of learning right now. He misses his teachers and his friends.	4/30/2020 12:25 PM
73	There is less sense of participation and more of individual work because of the nature of remote learning. So students miss the connection they had earlier. More regular live interactions might give them more opportunities to participate and be connected.	4/30/2020 12:21 PM
74	The teacher asks children to share their activities. This is a great way to connect children to classroom.	4/30/2020 12:07 PM
75	He is able to join in on conversations	4/30/2020 12:00 PM
76	He always comments on how would he do his work if he was in class.	4/30/2020 11:40 AM
77	For kids it's almost same as being in the classroom.	4/30/2020 10:48 AM
78	It's good but too short.	4/30/2020 10:42 AM
79	The Zoom meetings are great for seeing classmates and hearing their voices. Seesaw is a great place for sharing work and posting comments.	4/30/2020 10:37 AM
80	He looks forward to his zoom calls 2x week with the teacher and it allows him to see his classmates. It really helps brighten his week.	4/30/2020 10:34 AM
81	It's hard to say. I think he enjoys seeing their faces on the zoom meetings, but it's not the same as seeing them in person.	4/30/2020 10:15 AM
82	He kind of has a neutral feeling.	4/30/2020 10:10 AM
83	My son feels very connected to his classroom.	4/30/2020 10:04 AM
84	10 on 10	4/30/2020 9:41 AM

87	only one meeting a week.	4/30/2020 9:26 AM
88	She finds it difficult to not connect with her friends in person daily. It's more than just academics.	4/30/2020 9:21 AM
89	he likes seeing and catching up with his classmates, but he does not feel connected. He misses school.	4/30/2020 9:18 AM
90	It is the highlight of the day. Our child adores the teacher and loves live interaction with the class.	4/30/2020 9:16 AM

Floral Street School Remote Learning Survey – April 2020

91	Online learning is nowhere near close to the real social interactions of school	4/30/2020 8:43 AM
92	I am not sure how seeing people on zoom for 30 minutes under a controlled environment can provide connection.	4/30/2020 8:39 AM
93	Being in 3rd grade there was lots of nagging and "why do I have to do this" Even though, I would tell him that other students were doing the work as well, there was still lots of doubt on his end.	4/30/2020 8:35 AM
94	My son likes tonsee and hear his teachers and classmates	4/30/2020 8:14 AM
95	my child feels very disconnected from the peers in class. the children barely interact with one another on the zoom calls and there is very limited engagement in the seesaw app.	4/30/2020 8:10 AM

99	There's really no connection other then Xoom and a lot of the times we have trouble getting into it	4/29/2020 11:52 PM
100	It's more that I don't really know my child's feeling about this.	4/29/2020 10:48 PM
101	3 out of 5	4/29/2020 10:40 PM
102	She doesn't get to speak with friends or other students	4/29/2020 10:34 PM
103	My child feels connected to the classroom.	4/29/2020 10:29 PM
104	She always miss connecting to her friends and teacher specially when she doesnt know what to do with her free time.	4/29/2020 10:26 PM
105	My child is very interested and looks forward to meet her class	4/29/2020 9:58 PM
106	My child loves zoom. My child gets excited but the comfort level is taking time because it's a new approach(virtual learning)	4/29/2020 9:55 PM
107	She is extremely connected. She dedicates her time to stay focused on classes.	4/29/2020 9:53 PM
108	It's hard to be connected when there isn't much time. The focus right now is on learning as it should be.	4/29/2020 9:17 PM

111	My child participates	4/29/2020 9:12 PM
112	I don't think it is possible to feel fully connected with remote learning compared to being in the classroom. Two 30 minute sessions for the teacher to teach and connect with 24 students. Sorry, this is impossible. This is not the teachers' fault or the school's fault! Blame it on covid 19	4/29/2020 9:10 PM
113	8/10	4/29/2020 9:06 PM
114	Zoom twice a week has helped to keep a sense of classroom!	4/29/2020 9:04 PM
115	Hé likes to see his friends. But I wish that there was more free time on zoom. I have heard of some schools doing online recess so kids can play together in groups of 5 or so.	4/29/2020 9:00 PM
116	Twice a week doesn't feel like enough. My child misses art, music, etc.	4/29/2020 8:12 PM
117	Sometimes it goes well, other times distracted seeing their own video	4/29/2020 7:58 PM
118	Everyday kids get to interact with each other.	4/29/2020 7:55 PM
119	Absolutely	4/29/2020 7:49 PM
120	We have had trouble using the actual app. My son sees one person talking at a time. A separate meeting ID and password are needed to log into the app properly; the link provided takes us to a chrome plugin.	4/29/2020 7:45 PM
121	My child like partnering work with his classmates	4/29/2020 7:35 PM

Floral Street School Remote Learning Survey – April 2020

122	My student doesn't feel very connected because zoom meetings are short and once a week and not everyone feels inclined to speak up during the zoom meeting. The content in the zoom meetings seem rushed.	4/29/2020 7:32 PM
123	ok	4/29/2020 7:23 PM
124	Under the present circumstances, my child enjoys the online classroom environment. There is still some frustration with some kids disrupting the class but I was happy to hear that the teacher has been addressing that separating.	4/29/2020 7:13 PM
125	There is no interaction or back and forth with classmates.	4/29/2020 7:11 PM
126	He misses people!!! Doing ok but he needs to be surrounded by people all day :)	4/29/2020 7:10 PM
127	My daughter loves seeing her teachers and classmates during the live meetings and the lessons are great and she is focused and participates.	4/29/2020 7:08 PM
128	He is ok with the works but missing his friends,teachers and the classroom enviornment.Zoom calls and seesaw app make them feel little connected.	4/29/2020 7:06 PM
129	I think she looks forward to the Zoom calls and seeing her classmates and teachers.	4/29/2020 7:00 PM
130	My child occasionally can be resistant to online learning only because he wants to do anything but schoolwork.	4/29/2020 6:58 PM
131	He loves seeing everyone's face and it's just the right amount of time	4/29/2020 6:58 PM
132	There is actually no interaction between my child and classmates that involves learning subjects, besides the zoom meetings.	4/29/2020 6:49 PM
133	For the most part, it's an upbeat activity for the kids to connect over zoom. And its a positive experience for kids to hear their teacher providing a teaching lesson and/or providing encouragement to complete assignments. This connection with the teacher is crucial to teach kids the responsibility of.listening to them and learning from them, and holding the kids accountable (as of now, the parents are the ones keeping these kids on track and keeping them accountable).	4/29/2020 6:46 PM
134	My child's teacher does a great job. He just feels uncomfortable on camera.	4/29/2020 6:34 PM
135	sometimes kids are absent without reason or have a blanked camera during the meeting. So they are either not there or unseen.	4/29/2020 6:31 PM
136	She misses going to school. This is helpful, but it is not the same!	4/29/2020 6:26 PM
137	7	4/29/2020 6:19 PM
138	95% of remote learning is taught by me the parent. As a single mother with a full time job in the middle of a pandemic, I want me and my child as stress free as possible. I realize this is a difficult time for everyone, but I'm starting to think its more stressful and it is good.	4/29/2020 6:18 PM
139	not so much connected.	4/29/2020 6:13 PM
140	My child feels that she is not as connected simply due to lack of proximity but at times feels more productive due to less distractions.	4/29/2020 6:08 PM
141	He can see the faces and communicate, still I have to stay with him so he won't run away.	4/29/2020 6:05 PM
142	She loves seeing her friends and having an opportunity to participate with both her classmates and teachers.	4/29/2020 6:04 PM
143	My child loves to see his teacher and classmates during this time.	4/29/2020 6:00 PM
144	Good to see everyone.	4/29/2020 5:59 PM
145	It's clearly not the same as connecting in a class	4/29/2020 5:58 PM
146	Zoom class meetings keep them connected.	4/29/2020 5:54 PM
147	No real socializing	4/29/2020 5:50 PM
148	My child loves her teacher and school. The efforts made by the town are appreciated but the engagement needs to evolve and will never be as valuable as live school.	4/29/2020 5:42 PM

Floral Street School Remote Learning Survey – April 2020

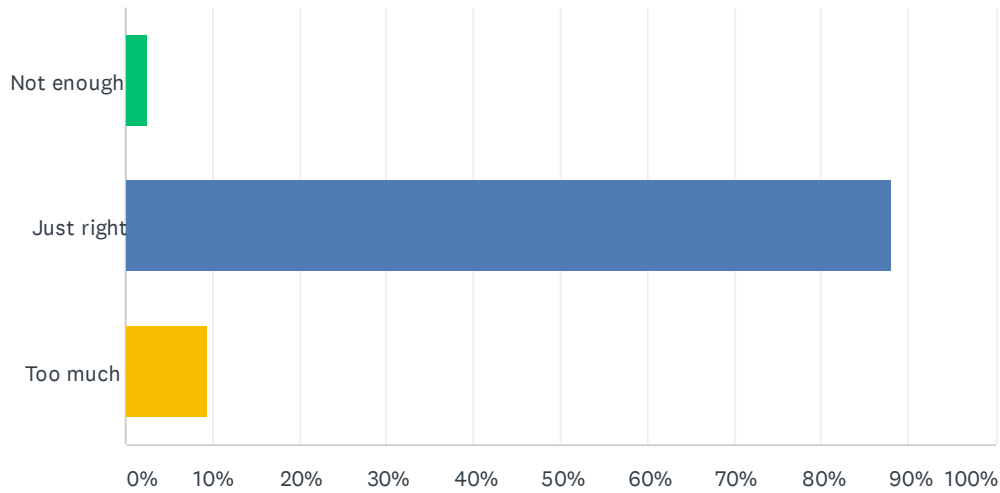

149	Gets to see classmates no real interaction with them	4/29/2020 5:39 PM
150	Waking early for the meeting is a little challenging but ok	4/29/2020 5:38 PM
151	My child needs other children to play and learn. He is an only child- so this isn't working for him or us as a family.	4/29/2020 5:37 PM
152	Zoom	4/29/2020 5:35 PM
153	Whatever time he is online on Zoom, he is fully engaged.	4/29/2020 5:33 PM
154	The remote learning is ok not that great. I have heard that in other towns that the teachers are doing zoom meetings for grade 1 students from 9 -3 everyday, whereas here the students are just assigned stuff and then it becomes parents responsibility than the teachers to have all the work completed with their child and have their own tasks as well for the office	4/29/2020 5:32 PM
155	It's hard to use zoom with a lot of kids. Maybe if the class was broken down into two groups. This would offer the children a better opportunity to participate.	4/29/2020 5:32 PM
156	She likes to read her teacher's feedback.	4/29/2020 5:31 PM
157	5 on a scale of 1-5	4/29/2020 5:29 PM
158	he gets great deal of attention and they to accommodate him as much as possible	4/29/2020 5:29 PM
159	It's a challenge to get the kids engaged while at home but once they are on they get more interested. It adds some structure which is helpful.	4/29/2020 5:27 PM
160	Yes can see her friends and hear them share ideas and stuff happening in their lives.	4/29/2020 5:25 PM
161	He's no longer interested in Zoom. The live learning has taken away from the connected feeling.	4/29/2020 5:25 PM
162	I feel that there should be more interaction with classmates. They only meet on Zoom for an hour 2X per week.	4/29/2020 5:25 PM
163	More interaction would be great. Maybe pairing up student to work together on something?	4/29/2020 5:24 PM
164	He is a quiet boy and zooming can lead to him saying very little and watching only as more talkative people take over more of the conversation pieces	4/29/2020 5:23 PM
165	The hands-on project-based learning as part of a group is, by necessity, out - as is a lot of the socio-emotional work that gets done in class. I'm not sure how to recreate this or if that's even possible. His teacher has done a great job making the weekly "morning meeting" Zoom session a space where kids can talk about their lives and feelings somewhat. I know our son misses his friends terribly right now.	4/29/2020 5:20 PM
166	Seeing friends and teacher helps	4/29/2020 5:19 PM
167	She misses her classmates and teachers.	4/29/2020 5:15 PM
168	Based on comments from child	4/29/2020 5:15 PM
169	Virtual interaction at the time of learning is not efficient	4/29/2020 5:15 PM
170	The child is missing her teachers and school and classmates to meet them in real and have closer interactions especially during recess times. But learns to accept the limitations it has on virtual meetings in these testing times.	4/29/2020 5:14 PM
171	Students are asked to respond to the same "share" topic with a canned phrase which limits their ability to freely interact and share with their classmates	4/29/2020 5:13 PM
172	while on the live lessons	4/29/2020 5:07 PM
173	-	4/29/2020 5:07 PM
174	No concentration while on Zoom. Children talk non stop... Touching devices, making back ground noise. Unable to fully concentrate	4/29/2020 5:07 PM
175	When you 20+ kids it is sometimes hard for all the kids to interact.	4/29/2020 5:06 PM
176	I don't think he cares	4/29/2020 5:05 PM
177	It provides some discipline for child	4/29/2020 5:04 PM

178	Doesn't feel the same .	4/29/2020 5:04 PM
179	He is more focused and finishing assigned homework very quickly.	4/29/2020 5:04 PM
180	Missed real interaction with classmates but understands	4/29/2020 5:02 PM
181	He misses the social interaction and can't be reproduced on a video call.	4/29/2020 5:02 PM
182	My child often feels very upset and lonely and expresses how much they miss their classmates.	4/29/2020 5:01 PM
183	She loves seeing her classmates on zoom!	4/29/2020 5:00 PM
184	She misses the classroom	4/29/2020 5:00 PM
185	She would rather be in the classroom but considering she feels like she is part of the group and feels good about Contributing	4/29/2020 5:00 PM
186	She is in zoom to learn but it is hard to have socialization time with limited time to do lessons	4/29/2020 4:58 PM
187	i don't think 30 minutes twice a week early in the morning is really of any significance to make her "connected". most of the time she is more irritated that i dragged her out of bed to be on a computer.	4/29/2020 4:58 PM
188	He misses his friends but zoom and seesaw give him access to them.	4/29/2020 4:57 PM
189	He seems fine and connected	4/29/2020 4:56 PM

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	One email with remote learning plans is awesome, but still getting regular communications regarding each individual classroom with separate info on specials, special education, etc. With kids across multiple schools, some of the info is redundant, but still takes time to go through to make sure nothing specific to one child is missed. I think everyone's doing a great job communicating with what they have to work with, though - this isn't how anyone planned to end the schoolyear. :)	5/4/2020 9:43 AM
2	We receive very regular update	5/4/2020 9:15 AM
3	the school is doing a really nice job with all of this	5/4/2020 9:07 AM
4	9/10	5/4/2020 12:05 AM
5	Communication is OK and maybe leaning a little towards too much communication. I have two children in the district. We are receiving an overwhelming amount of communciation in total.	5/3/2020 11:34 PM
6	FSS is prompt about news from.floral.	5/3/2020 10:23 PM
7	Ok	5/3/2020 10:13 PM
8	"Too Much" is not the right words I wanted to say however I just had no other option to select. I think school is doing terrific job in communicating with parents. I just wanted to mention that sometimes emails are too long and sometimes it becomes time consuming to find the real message in that email. I would really love to receive short emails. Or emails can be written in such way that the message to be delivered is on the top and then rest of the details can be in the lower section of that email separated from the message.	5/3/2020 10:07 PM
10	Balanced	5/3/2020 9:34 PM

24	Communication has been helpful and the right amount	5/3/2020 4:44 PM
25	8	5/3/2020 4:43 PM
26	We have three kids in three schools and it is difficult to stay on top of all the communication but I think the district is doing a good job to try to not do too much (which was happening at the beginning) and to make the communications very regular and expected.	5/3/2020 4:15 PM
27	Sharing news about current situation and assignments and about school committee meeting s are great	5/3/2020 3:15 PM
28	good	5/3/2020 1:57 PM

30	The communication is all good so far.	5/2/2020 5:18 PM
31	A	5/2/2020 3:50 PM
32	nothing to add	5/2/2020 1:05 PM
33	Weekly email from administrators.	5/2/2020 11:30 AM
34	We think the communications are just right.	5/2/2020 10:03 AM
35	The weekly email is great regarding assignments	5/2/2020 9:13 AM
36	just right	5/2/2020 12:52 AM
37	They are trying there best and communication is good, I appreciate there work.	5/1/2020 7:58 PM
38	I am getting so worried when see so many emails from same teacher because their communication isn't unified. Also sometimes they send same thing both in email and seesaw. So confusing and time consuming.	5/1/2020 5:30 PM
39	It's a little inconsistent on what to expect it's intermittent	5/1/2020 3:49 PM
40	Very good	5/1/2020 3:23 PM
41	The communication is good.	5/1/2020 3:12 PM
42	I don't have any questions and feel everything has been communicated. I still feel a sense of connection to the school and thankful for our administrators.	5/1/2020 1:53 PM
43	In the beginning it was too much, but has been better with the consolidated weekly packets of work.	5/1/2020 1:00 PM
44	It was overwhelming in the beginning with so many emails but is getting better now.	5/1/2020 11:05 AM
45	Great communication via email, Seesaw and also if needed teachers helping out If asked for help	5/1/2020 9:33 AM
46	We get regular updates	5/1/2020 9:08 AM
47	Initial communication from each subject's teacher was overwhelming, but it is much better now that it is consolidated.	5/1/2020 9:00 AM
48	I think the communication is great - and essential - but I do wish that it could all be a little bit more consolidated. I would prefer to hear from only the principal and the classroom teacher. Although specials are important, it does end up being a lot more emails to read through and process. If that content was funneled through the teachers instead, it would be slightly easier.	5/1/2020 8:58 AM
49	I appreciate the daily check-ins and other emails from support staff but there are just too many to keep up with. I also get a notification on my email whenever something is posted on seesaw. It can be overwhelming and I always feel like I am missing something if I don't read everything	5/1/2020 6:44 AM
50	With three kids and their extracurricular activities plus work email I probably get 200 emails a day	5/1/2020 6:17 AM
51	I appreciate the thoughtfulness in what is sent out. Particularly I appreciate you taking our feedback and adjusting accordingly. I have not experienced as much collaborative communication at other grade levels (ex. Middle school).	4/30/2020 11:47 PM
52	Good amount	4/30/2020 9:01 PM
53	Too many emails and often too long plus info can be repetitive	4/30/2020 8:13 PM
54	Communication Frequency is appropriate with the right 'to know' content. Thank you	4/30/2020 8:11 PM
55	Communication is timely and just the right amount. I like getting remote learning slides Sunday evening so we can plan our week.	4/30/2020 8:08 PM
56	So many emails...in addition to getting our work done, it is impossible to keep track of all these emails. 1-2 consolidated emails would make parents' lives much easier.	4/30/2020 5:34 PM
57	there is enough written communication	4/30/2020 5:28 PM
58	Too many e-mails with the same content from different leaders of the school make too much	4/30/2020 5:17 PM

noise and missing an important message. The school needs to co-ordinate this effort, moving forward

59	NA	4/30/2020 5:09 PM
60	It works for us.	4/30/2020 3:53 PM
61	just right	4/30/2020 3:49 PM
62	Not much to add here.	4/30/2020 3:45 PM
63	The directions for the new method of Zoom were so unclear that we were unable to log in to one of the meetings. There should have been some sort of images showing the login screen for Zoom and an explanation of needing the SSO to log in.	4/30/2020 3:21 PM
64	Seems good.	4/30/2020 2:43 PM
65	A million long emails that I don't have time to read. I have two students in the system making it worse. The only thing we need is the remote learning plan for the week. But we get multiple additional emails, often redundant. Just prepare everything for the week, send one message on Friday with a link to the learning plan including zoom info.	4/30/2020 2:41 PM
66	Very good	4/30/2020 1:05 PM
67	The teachers and the administration are doing a great job communicating with the families!	4/30/2020 12:21 PM
68	All information provided is given	4/30/2020 12:00 PM
69	Sometimes we get repeatedly emails that just says the same things.	4/30/2020 11:40 AM
70	We are getting regular updates	4/30/2020 10:48 AM
71	Agree	4/30/2020 10:42 AM
72	Updates are sufficient with the right amount of information.	4/30/2020 10:37 AM
73	At first, I was bit overwhelmed with all the email from all the different teachers and subjects. Once it was streamlined to email from the principal with centralized location much easier to access and less confusing.	4/30/2020 10:34 AM
74	The level of communication is fine. It would be helpful to get text reminders when an important email is send to us, because for many working parents they aren't thinking of checking their personal email every day or even every few days.	4/30/2020 10:15 AM
75	We feel like we are receiving the right amount of information.	4/30/2020 10:10 AM
76	I feel that the current level of communication is just right.	4/30/2020 10:04 AM
77	10 on 10	4/30/2020 9:41 AM
78	The situation keeps changing. School communicates timely with their plans. Sometimes the email is too long. It will be great if important information were highlighted.	4/30/2020 9:41 AM
79	Just right	4/30/2020 9:30 AM
80	.	4/30/2020 9:26 AM
81	the amount of communication is fine. Its needed	4/30/2020 9:18 AM
82	You're doing fine.	4/30/2020 9:16 AM
83	Alot of emails, but all with important info so I think that the amount can't be helped	4/30/2020 8:43 AM
84	What is there to explain?	4/30/2020 8:39 AM
85	Communication from the school was appropriate in keeping us in the loop of the school plan.	4/30/2020 8:35 AM
86	Emails are great, sometimes there are too many, but I understand it is the best way to communicate at this time	4/30/2020 8:14 AM
87	i guess it depends on if the question refers to general communication from the school itself (this is adequate or "just fine") or from the teacher. (inadequate).	4/30/2020 8:10 AM
88	Self explanatory	4/30/2020 6:11 AM

Floral Street School Remote Learning Survey – April 2020

89	I love that you send the assignments on Friday! Greatest idea! Thanks :)	4/30/2020 6:05 AM
90	Good emails from teachers and school and others	4/30/2020 12:03 AM
91	I have to say his teachers and everyone else has been really great at checking and and making sure we have what we need and trying to help the best they can!	4/29/2020 11:52 PM
92	Only one e-mail a week containing all the necessary information is great. That way we don't have to look for all the pieces of information in 10 different mails.	4/29/2020 10:48 PM
93	5 out of 5	4/29/2020 10:40 PM
94	Communication has been great.	4/29/2020 10:29 PM
95	I am satisfied with the communication.	4/29/2020 10:26 PM
96	Most information is useful, sometimes repetitive but I think it's needed given how things are changing outside	4/29/2020 9:58 PM
97	The more the better. I read all the teacher, principal, and district emails. thankyou for keeping us informed	4/29/2020 9:55 PM
98	The information received is clear and necessary.	4/29/2020 9:53 PM
99	Floral has been fantastic at communicating to all students - and parents too. There hasn't been a moment during this where we felt out of the loop.	4/29/2020 9:17 PM

103	We get many emails and we are constantly reminded that we can contact them if we have questions or concerns	4/29/2020 9:10 PM
104	10	4/29/2020 9:06 PM
105	Communication great!	4/29/2020 9:04 PM
106	It is as much as I can handle	4/29/2020 9:00 PM
107	It's a juggle to manage all the outreach with work, but the Friday communication for the next week feels just right.	4/29/2020 8:12 PM
108	Sometimes it's overwhelming to follow up with long emails from all teachers. But we understand it's needed. Thanks for all your efforts	4/29/2020 7:55 PM
109	Initially it was a bit on the higher side then it got streamlined pretty well	4/29/2020 7:49 PM
110	too many emails.. we need: - one clear email with assignments for the week - maybe one check-in email or some office hours to meet with the teacher - one email with everything else.. between my son in district and my other son in a SPED placement out of district the email is way too much	4/29/2020 7:45 PM
111	it's right amount of communication	4/29/2020 7:35 PM
112	The communication level is fine, not too overwhelming.	4/29/2020 7:32 PM
113	good	4/29/2020 7:23 PM
114	Communication is precise, love the way Floral sends the weekly plans.	4/29/2020 7:17 PM
115	I feel strongly that at least one live online class per day should be the minimum target. We have friends in other school districts where is accomplished. School age kids benefit from consistency in teaching approaches on a daily basis, which is difficult when the majority of teaching is the responsibility of the parents.	4/29/2020 7:13 PM
116	Doing ok	4/29/2020 7:10 PM
117	We are pleased with the great and informative correspondence from the school	4/29/2020 7:08 PM
118	There is a good communication between school,teachers and parents.Only because of that	4/29/2020 7:06 PM parents can help their kids in learning in this situation.

119	I appreciate the weekly overview with assignments. I also read the classroom blog. My daughter's teacher also sends an email to confirm Zoom meetings. All good.	4/29/2020 7:00 PM
120	We get many emails from the teachers and the more emails we get, it can be overwhelming trying to keep track of all of them.	4/29/2020 6:58 PM
121	We get all the information multiple times a week. The reminders are great	4/29/2020 6:58 PM
122	Originally there were too many emails from too many different teachers. The consolidated weekly email with links for each grade level is great. Please keep it up!	4/29/2020 6:46 PM
123	Sometimes it feels too much. I rather receive the weekly work and not so many daily emails from the teacher that basically reiterate the same message everyday. My inbox fills up So quickly. Seesaw just doubles all the emails.	4/29/2020 6:34 PM
124	Initially we were getting overloaded with email and messages on multiple platforms and from multiple people. Now with a weekly message from the principle and quick updates from the teacher it is easier to keep up.	4/29/2020 6:31 PM
125	Hearing once or twice a week is perfect, thank you!	4/29/2020 6:26 PM
126	7	4/29/2020 6:19 PM
127	I can't keep up with all the emails. Unfortunately, I have to in order to follow your constant changes.	4/29/2020 6:18 PM
128	emails are very much self explanatory	4/29/2020 6:13 PM
129	We feel like we know what is going on, but not inundated.	4/29/2020 6:08 PM
130	I think we're getting the information we need without being bombarded.	4/29/2020 6:04 PM
131	My child's teacher emails multiple times a week, which is nice.	4/29/2020 6:00 PM
132	Perfect amount, from both the Principal and the teacher.	4/29/2020 5:59 PM
133	I hear from teachers/ staff multiple times a week about same things or things are always changing so when you get a game plan and consistency it then changes it's becoming a whirlwind that I want to give up on	4/29/2020 5:58 PM
134	Good communication	4/29/2020 5:54 PM
135	It's fine	4/29/2020 5:50 PM
136	Vanilla	4/29/2020 5:42 PM
137	Plenty of emails from staff and teacher	4/29/2020 5:39 PM
138	Not overwhelming information	4/29/2020 5:38 PM
139	Everything that is communicated is great- but very lengthy - I need the communication to be more concise.	4/29/2020 5:37 PM
140	Email and being aware of what's going on	4/29/2020 5:35 PM
141	The remote learning is ok not that great. I have heard that in other towns that the teachers are doing zoom meetings for grade 1 students from 9 -3 everyday, whereas here the students are just assigned stuff and then it becomes parents responsibility than the teachers to have all the work completed with their child and have their own tasks as well for the office	4/29/2020 5:32 PM
142	There is a lot of information. At the beginning it was overwhelming. I think the communication has gotten much better.	4/29/2020 5:32 PM
143	If I receive more emails from school, I am not sure if I "read" an important email.	4/29/2020 5:31 PM
144	5 on a scale of 1-5	4/29/2020 5:29 PM
145	excellent communication with all the different options (phone calls, email ...)	4/29/2020 5:29 PM
146	The Floral principle is sending weekly updates and keeping us connected as a community. The teachers I cant say enough about. They truly care and send regular updates daily for Zoom	4/29/2020 5:27 PM discussions etc.

147	its ok if you have just one child but its too much if you have 3 kids in the Shrewsbury school but in different classes	4/29/2020 5:25 PM
148	Not necessarily just from Floral, but emails and changes seem to be coming from all over the place.	4/29/2020 5:25 PM
149	Perfect amount of information from Floral	4/29/2020 5:25 PM
150	Very clear emails. Easy to read and run through.	4/29/2020 5:24 PM
151	We are used to the previous schedules of communication and it's nice to still have those , the additional email on Friday in relation to work packs is perfect and sent in a timely manner	4/29/2020 5:23 PM
152	It's mostly SeeSaw that's deluging us. Again, it's a small price to pay for the ability to continue with the school year - it's just that the SeeSaw notifications BLOW UP our email in-boxes to the point where I know notifications have fallen through the cracks. Having the weekly lesson plan packet available on the SPS/Floral website has been a big help - that way we can open the browser on our son's iPad and go straight to all his assignments and links from there, rather than having to open one of our email accounts on his iPad and doing it from there. The printable packet of worksheets for the week also helped to simplify things greatly. Any suggestions/complaints we may have PALE in comparison to the incredible job the Floral team has done getting an entire elementary school online and streamlining the process as it's happening. Seriously - we feel so grateful to be in this community.	4/29/2020 5:20 PM
153	All is well	4/29/2020 5:19 PM
154	The communication from the school Principal is up-to-date and very helpful. The teacher is also doing a great job helping with the instructions and learning activities through the online learning challenges. Very grateful for the right information and communication from The Floral team.	4/29/2020 5:14 PM
155	We are drowning in communication. 1-2 a week is plenty.	4/29/2020 5:13 PM

157	I think the school does a good job at communicating.	4/29/2020 5:06 PM
158	The emails are the right amount	4/29/2020 5:05 PM
159	There is enough communication.	4/29/2020 5:04 PM
160	Is real good .	4/29/2020 5:04 PM
161	We are receiving all communications with out delay, administration team doing very good job to make sure we as a parents are up to date with all school communications.	4/29/2020 5:04 PM
162	It is good that we are kept informed but as parents it can be overwhelming at times to keep up with all that communication.	4/29/2020 5:03 PM

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Thank you for putting all the remote learning plans in one email and for using google docs. All of these help make our school life easier!	5/4/2020 10:55 AM
2	Please stop sea saw based interaction. Sea saw based activities are good not the weekly once chat/ audio interaction session	5/4/2020 9:15 AM
3	Remote learning can be used for subjects like science and social. It would be good if the teachers spend time talking about those subjects too.	5/4/2020 7:52 AM
4	Nothing as of now	5/4/2020 12:05 AM
5	There are almost always a few issues with the links in the weekly learning plans. I feel the Floral teachers should be allowed more control over the learning plan. You have great teachers, let them teach.	5/3/2020 11:34 PM

7	As we are all learning together to get better at Remote learning I feel Floral School is doing a great job. As they say learning never stops I am sure we all together (Teachers, Parents and students) will get better over time. Hopefully kids will be with there teachers soon. They miss their school. But we do need to plan for long as until some vaccination is invented we all need to stay very careful even if state opens up back to business.	5/3/2020 10:07 PM

18	I'm curious what percentage of classroom learning the teachers and district think the 2nd graders are getting through remote learning. My son thinks it is not nearly as much. 25%? 50%? 75?	5/3/2020 4:15 PM

32	I would like to see it more kid friendly. As I appreciate a weekly overview, the links, pdf files. Is there someway I can get my child more independent? Also when sending files that can be printed please be mindful of font and picture sizes. This is so picky but it's taking up a lot of ink. I absolutely love listening to Mrs. Rice! You are truly gifted! Thank you for doing the science projects and thank your boys too!	5/1/2020 1:53 PM
33	We are very thankful for all the hard work of the teachers and know that this shift has not been easy for them.	5/1/2020 1:00 PM

35	So far working out good	5/1/2020 9:33 AM
36	Under the circumstances I think it is going fairly well, but this model does not work for every child's learning style. I am disappointed that Shrewsbury Public Schools had no plan in place for this contingency; I've heard anecdotally that other school systems were able to implement pre-existing remote learning plans within the first week.	5/1/2020 9:00 AM
37	Thank you for all your efforts. It is not an easy time, and all your work is truly appreciated.	5/1/2020 8:58 AM need for teachers to send many messages throughout the week trying to engage with students, because it's too much. Also, more remote classroom time if teachers do the work with the kids, or less remote classroom time if it's on the parents because there's not enough time in the day for working parents to do both.

52	I think it is a novelty for everyone but we are managing to have a good experience despite everything	4/30/2020 1:05 PM
53	Remote learning is challenging, even with the most advanced technology. I understand that the district needs to address the curriculum needs of students across each grade, but the teacher-specific aspects are missing. Now, everyone is doing the same exact assignments and there are no personalized changes at the classroom level. So, while each teacher used to incorporate the same curriculum requirement, they might have done it in a different way in order to address the needs/interests/level of their students. Now, all kids must do the same assignments without any changes to personalize them or address individual needs.	4/30/2020 12:53 PM
54	The students at this age learn a lot through socialization which has been missing given the circumstances. Some ideas could be a class-wide book club where the media teacher facilitates and the students talk about the different aspects of the book. Friday could be a virtual educational games/quizzes facilitated by the teacher which could combine fun and learning. I am sure the wonderful Floral Staff might have more creative ideas to alleviate the missing social interaction!	4/30/2020 12:21 PM
55	None at moment	4/30/2020 12:00 PM
56	I know this is new for everybody and I we are all doing the best we can. Maybe try to not give too much information in email, and try to repeat the same info over and over.	4/30/2020 11:40 AM
57	It would be great if remote leaning can be done for 4 days a week	4/30/2020 10:48 AM
58	The online meeting can be a little longer to ensure each student may have enough interaction with the teacher and classmate. Currently I felt that they just started to warm up and then it's over.	4/30/2020 10:42 AM
59	-	4/30/2020 10:37 AM
60	I understand that everyone is doing the best they can.I feel like the kids on IEP's have been bit left behind. I would have expected more "live"interactions or zoom conferences from the specialized teachers and therapist. I've been give the items to work on via email. This is very difficult since one I'm not specialist/teacher and that I too am working from home and managing 2 other children as well.. I feel a quick 15-20 min zoom call with the actual teacher/specialist would make a world of different to the child. I'm not expecting the same type of services having school remotely. Just surprised that he does not have more interactions via "zoom"/live chats. Hopefully, this is something that can be improved on worked as remote learning evolves.	4/30/2020 10:34 AM
61	I think the school is doing the best we can right now. Recorded lessons would be helpful. Otherwise we just have to keep taking it one day at a time.	4/30/2020 10:15 AM
62	If possible, A virtual yoga, workout, arts literacy or game night for the children would be a great addition to the remote learning.	4/30/2020 10:04 AM

65	I feel they aren't learning anything new.	4/30/2020 9:26 AM
66	The 8:30am Zoom class is tough because these kids aren't really on a regular sleep scheduled and waking up at that time can be hard.	4/30/2020 9:21 AM
67	It isn't realistic, but I wish there was a lot more web integration. Printing out a couple worksheets and scanning them back in feels... terrible. Only a small interaction with the teacher and the class doesn't feel like enough. There aren't any resources for students to interact with each other. Parents, too. Maybe some parents are better teachers. Maybe they could volunteer host a supplemental session to cover the more difficult subjects. I just feel so distant from everything and have so little tools to solve these problems. That all being said, I get it. I'm talking in ideals. I'm talking of an infrastructure that doesn't appear overnight. I get that I have more technology at my disposal than most and things have to be fair to all the students. I get that some of things I mentioned may not be safe enough or legal. You can't let strangers	4/30/2020 9:16 AM interact w/ students w/o oversight. It stinks. I can only hope that this is a wake up call to the Commonwealth and we get some grants or plans to put a computer in every student's hands and resources to every school to transition between home and school.

69	I'm really bothered by all the complaints from teachers in the survey from Joe Sawyer on spring break. Do they realize that we as parents are also dealing with multiple issues in addition to many who don't receive pay or are assured of a job like they are? Talking about how tired and overwhelmed they are made me realize how ungrateful they are for what they have and what poor role models they are to my children.	4/30/2020 8:39 AM
70	I want to say thank you to all involved in making it happen for our children to be taught at home given the circumstances. It was definitely one of the most challenging times I could remember, I hope this never happens again for all our sake. Thank you	4/30/2020 8:35 AM

74	Instead of providing links to online videos on Revolutionary War and water cycle, Why don't we have teachers record themselves explains the same topics in words 3rd graders can understand and w/o background music? Instructions also can be recorded and posted online. Divide the week's material between all 3rd grade teachers, each working on a 10minute video recording, send that with the plan for the week. Kids would love to see their teacher and other 3rd grade teachers and probably more motivated to listen and learn and feel connected (if extending zoom meetings is not possible)	4/30/2020 12:20 AM

100	We know families at other Shrewsbury schools that have more face time interaction with their teachers, for same/similar grade levels, on a weekly basis. I do not understand why other schools, in the same district, seem to have more student engagement on a weekly basis. I strongly encourage Floral school to provide more teacher interaction given the prolonged nature of this school closure to keep these kids engaged, and active in the learning process.	4/29/2020 6:46 PM
101	Printing out homework assignments. I try to conserve paper by printing on both sides of the paper. However when both landscape and portrait orientations of the pages are mixed, I can not just print out odd then even pages. I have to manually select what is printed and the orientation. It would be nice if just one orientation was chosen for the homework pages. I.e. any landscape orientations rotated to portrait orientation.	4/29/2020 6:31 PM

105	I think this has been such a smooth response to an unprecedented situation. The hours spent designing and improving upon the program really show in its quality.	4/29/2020 6:04 PM
106	As I mentioned previously, I am incredibly disappointed in the district's remote learning requirements. I understand these are unprecedented and challenging times, but I am tired of hearing how different families have different needs. This is true, but you are not going to be able to please everyone. Why at least one live lesson is not taught per day escapes me. What my child/children are currently receiving for remote lessons, is absolutely sub- par. Again my irritation and disappointment, is not toward the teachers. I think they are trying their absolute best, but I am disappointed with the districts approach of trying to pacify everyone.	4/29/2020 6:00 PM
107	Times are overwhelming and with I appreciate all the school is trying to do it's creating a huge emotional stress on all members of the family. The workload is fine but the amount of extra websites that need to be done to complete the work is too much and too complicated	4/29/2020 5:58 PM

111	since we don't go back to school this school year- at least there should be an option for remote learning all summer. The children need their community and we need more time with teachers. I'm very concerned my son will regress even more than he already has- he is on an IEP- already and I fear he won't be able to catch up. I theory the remote learning plan is amazing- but the reality is we as parents aren't teachers- and we need to be in school ASAP- and for the full year- no summers off.	4/29/2020 5:37 PM
112	The remote learning is ok not that great. I have heard that in other towns that the teachers are doing zoom meetings for grade 1 students from 9 -3 everyday, whereas here the students are	4/29/2020 5:32 PM

and run a business at home. My child can not just “go with it” and requires substantial support from me, especially with the areas of difficulty reflected in their IEP. But we are doing our best and happy to keep working together with the school team. It’s a difficult situation all around.

137	The work assigned is WAY more than is assigned at SMS.....I know that many families want more to challenge their child, but I wish you could offer Tier 1 assignments (just the very basics) and then what you're currently offering is Tier 2 with all the bells and whistles.....Thank You!	4/29/2020 5:00 PM

We had reading comprehension my kid got sent back 2x with, that i had to assist her, and we together still couldnt find the answers the teacher sent back to me. Also it is too much on the parents. i am spending hours aside from the kids doing this to organize, print, communicate with teachers, etc. our household feels as if all this is a total waste of effort on everyones part, as my kids are not focused, or learning anything through this process, and are coming out with actually hating having to do anything school related like it is torture/punishment. i feel like they would benefit much more from reading for periods daily and working math facts/somthing they may actually retain.	4/29/2020 4:58 PM

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	There is a lot of ELA work for my child that is brand new to her. It takes a lot of time for her to understand concepts dealing with narrative and opinion essays.	5/4/2020 10:58 AM
2	Needs significant 1:1 guidance to complete work (exacerbated by special needs, making management more difficult as his schedule and accommodations have drastically changed). Has difficulty applying what he may have previously learned in classroom setting (foundations) to evolve the curriculum/learning at home.	5/4/2020 9:45 AM
3	I would prefer more hands on learning . My child is already shutting down and saying “not another video” and less engaged. I’m taking the activities and using items and things around the house to adapt the assignment to a more beneficial learning experience than watching a video. While each home is different and this may work well in many, we are finding the kids are way more engaged when we spend less time on devices.	5/3/2020 9:03 PM
4	Remote learning is going okay. It doesn’t seem as involved as the 4th grade expectations. It is expected that only the two highlighted assignments be turned in, which makes it very difficult to keep my 3rd grader motivated to do the nonessential assignments	5/3/2020 8:29 PM
5	Communication with the teacher and weekly plans are working.	5/3/2020 6:49 PM
6	We have to print and then take screen shots of a lot of his work to submit it. It’s not as convenient as actively completing work in Seesaw	5/3/2020 4:48 PM
7	Technically he has no knowledge of computer, emails, seesaw, google docs and printing and finally online learning.	5/1/2020 5:41 PM
8	The assignments seem appropriate, but it is very difficult as a parent to know to what standards the students should be completing them. It is thus very difficult to help them to improve to an appropriate level.	5/1/2020 4:47 PM
9	My daughter looks forward to the online class to see her teacher and friends. She likes to do her assignments but needs my help but unfortunately with my work I am not able to give her enough time. It would be so nice if teachers can have more live classes and help kids with their assignments on a daily basis so that kids can stay connected with school as well.	5/1/2020 11:23 AM
10	My second child is not an independent learner and requires more guidance and interaction.	5/1/2020 9:13 AM
11	I find it is hard for a child so young to be able to sit at the computer and work. They are used to doing learning activities with their friends. It is sometimes a fight to get her to do all of the assigned work.	5/1/2020 6:53 AM
12	Please see comments for 1st child.	4/30/2020 10:39 AM
13	I think it would be better on seesaw	4/30/2020 8:16 AM

16	My child finishes work quickly	4/29/2020 10:00 PM
17	7/10	4/29/2020 9:09 PM
18	Student is doing well with remote learning.	4/29/2020 9:06 PM
19	All my previous statements for my child in 3rd grade apply to me child in 1st grade. Remote learning is an understandable necessity right now, however my child is becoming increasingly disengaged with the minimal live teacher interactions and repetitive weekly assignments. Daily live meetings would support a more engaging class environment and consistent teaching approach.	4/29/2020 7:22 PM
20	I have to sit with him for every lesson. My other kids work more independently.	4/29/2020 7:15 PM
21	My child is able to understand the concepts with little complaining about doing the work. The instructional videos have helped greatly too.	4/29/2020 7:01 PM
22	The amount of time estimated to complete the remote learning plan seems inflated. If the goal is to spend a certain amount of time learning each day, the estimated timeframes provided are currently overestimating the time as most lessons are completed under the times provided.	4/29/2020 6:55 PM

Otherwise, the links to the different activities work well, and the directions contained in the remote learning plans are clear.

23	We feel we are getting the core lessons we want and like the flexibility to study other interests as well.	4/29/2020 6:17 PM
24	Both of my children are doing well with the remote learning. The only challenge is the loss of "school structure " sort of speak and getting them engaged.	4/29/2020 5:34 PM
25	My second child loves learning and wants to be a teacher, therefore he engages very easily	4/29/2020 5:25 PM
26	Not as engaging	4/29/2020 5:23 PM
27	It is difficult to tell what the appropriate expectations are in terms of writing and reading gials	4/29/2020 5:19 PM
28	-	4/29/2020 5:08 PM
29	She is 100% independent minus passing in work. She's getting bored with not being in a peer learning environment.	4/29/2020 5:07 PM
30	I can give him one-on-one time that he needs to be successful in this academic year as well as the next.	4/29/2020 5:06 PM
31	Special Ed instructor is doing great	4/29/2020 5:03 PM
32	my child doesnt focus outside of the classroom. remote learning for her is on par with torture and corporal punishment. for her and i, who is stuck trying to impliment the ridiculousness	4/29/2020 5:02 PM
33	He is too young to navigate all the links within links	4/29/2020 5:01 PM
34	It is just fine for him. He does not seem to be learning anything new	4/29/2020 4:58 PM
35	She is not engaged and has no motivation to do the work	4/29/2020 4:51 PM

Floral Street School Remote Learning Survey – April 2020

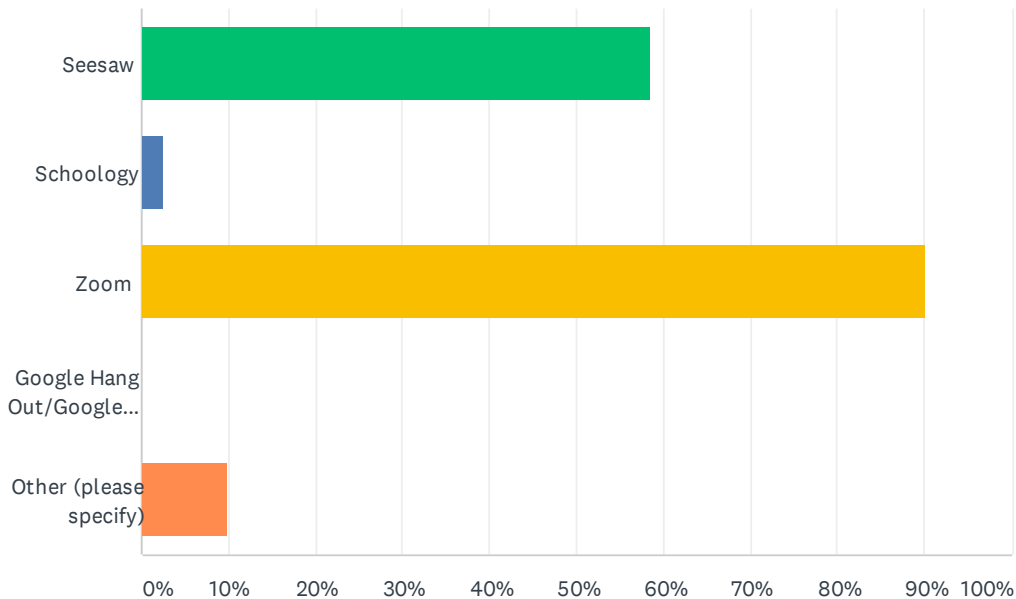

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	We have 2 live learning sessions a week. This is the max we can handle, therefore it is acceptable.	5/4/2020 10:58 AM
2	We would not be able to fit in more live time between the four of us each week and keep our sanity. The most effective learning is the time we are spending discussing family read alouds, journal writing and hands on experiments we are doing based on their interests. As a parent of a child who has sensory integration issues , too many screens and zooming is not effective in helping him digest information.	5/3/2020 9:03 PM
3	I feel like there needs to be more interaction with the third graders and their teacher. Especially when learning new materials and information.	5/3/2020 8:29 PM
4	The class meets three times a week.	5/3/2020 6:49 PM
5	Teacher is doing zoom lessons and individual support lessons as needed. She has great command of student behaviors on the zoom call. She's done a great job!	5/3/2020 4:48 PM
6	I believe younger kids need more online time with teachers for learning.	5/1/2020 5:41 PM
7	As mentioned earlier, kids would really benefit if they had more live/online interaction with their teacher. My kids have not seen a single read aloud video posted by their teacher and I feel bad because teachers are putting efforts to make them, but instead if the teacher has a live zoom class with read aloud I am sure my kids would sit and listen.	5/1/2020 11:23 AM
8	Two whole-class meetings per week is appropriate. One-on-one live teacher interaction would be helpful for some children.	5/1/2020 9:13 AM
9	I think 2 zooms a week is plenty. I also feel like if I want Lydia to have more interaction, Ms McCarthy is always available to help.	5/1/2020 6:53 AM
10	Please see previous comments	4/30/2020 10:39 AM

15	Student meets twice a week on Zoom with the classroom. Usually one or the days is to offer a lesson.	4/29/2020 9:06 PM
16	All my previous statements for my child in 3rd grade apply to me child in 1st grade. Remote learning is an understandable necessity right now, however my child is becoming increasingly disengaged with the minimal live teacher interactions and repetitive weekly assignments. Daily live meetings would support a more engaging class environment and consistent teaching approach.	4/29/2020 7:22 PM
17	Just long enough	4/29/2020 7:15 PM
18	Being a first grader can have its challenges related to his attention to online learning. 2 sessions a week are plenty.	4/29/2020 7:01 PM
19	I feel the two 30 minute interactions per week was a good starting point. However, given the prolonged nature of the school closure, there needs to be significantly more interaction to keep these kids engaged in the learning process. Its becoming more challenging to keep these kids engaged with short daily lessons and minimal live interaction. In order to share this responsibility with the parents, having more teacher interaction will help. Additionally, it teaches these kids to stay accountable to their work and accountable to their teacher.	4/29/2020 6:55 PM
20	It is great for her to see her teacher and friends. She must be prompted to maintain focus after about 20 min and we are just holding on by the end.	4/29/2020 6:17 PM
21	Getting the children engaged is not easy but once a Zoom starts she gets the children excited to learn in vast ways.	4/29/2020 5:34 PM
22	He loves his teacher and the teachers structure of live learning really simulates the class environment. They complete a subject in each zoom	4/29/2020 5:25 PM

23	It's good, especially enjoyed his teacher reading a book	4/29/2020 5:23 PM

29	I think that he would benefit from more time with teacher and class	4/29/2020 5:01 PM
30	For 1st grade the call is approximately 30 minutes. Most of the time is spent with each kid saying hi individually and then bye individually.	4/29/2020 4:58 PM
31	The live meetings help get her motivated	4/29/2020 4:51 PM
