Spring Street School Remote Learning Survey – April 2020

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	I think everyone is doing the best they can given the situation. Working full time and teaching four kids is a huge challenge. My children attend their live times with their teachers, but most of the teaching is taking place between my husband and I and our children.	5/4/2020 9:47 AM
2	They are able to learn new concepts	5/4/2020 9:28 AM
3	Average	5/4/2020 8:59 AM
4	I think school should offer more classes to students.	5/3/2020 11:31 PM
5	Self motivation can be difficult when not in the classroom.	5/3/2020 11:12 PM
6	The remote learning is going to prevent a slide but I don't believe that the student is learning new material.	5/3/2020 4:31 PM
7	I find the expectations clear, and the methods to submit work have clarified and solidified. The YouTube teaching videos are also nice. 8:30 is too early, and 1/2 hour is too short, especially with a large class.	5/3/2020 4:07 PM
8	Assignments are clearly outlined with explanations and examples.	5/3/2020 2:36 PM
9	More focus on reading would be appreciated. Math focus is good Writing focus is good Although multiple step projects are difficult to keep track of (some stretch weeks).	5/3/2020 7:49 AM
10	The work is organized and there are several provided resources.	5/2/2020 11:01 PM
11	My child gets her work done and gets her goals in per guidelines. However, the zoom meetings are not great, 30 mins in and she is just looking at me like, huh?	5/2/2020 7:28 PM
12	It is easy to follow, but hard to work full-time from home and home school two children, especially a kindergartener that needs me to help him with the computer to do assignments.	5/2/2020 2:52 PM
13	My fourth grader looks forward to the live interactive meeting every morning with his teacher and classmates	5/2/2020 12:34 PM
14	Very interactive with daily zoom calls and learning via seesaw	5/2/2020 9:18 AM
15	Excellent effort put forth by the school and teachers to keeps the kids engaged and excited	5/1/2020 6:09 PM
16	Remote learning is too short to learn anything.	5/1/2020 5:42 PM
17	My oldest is completing her work, but rushes through to finish quickly and is not engaged in it	5/1/2020 3:05 PM
18	I am happy with the work sent. I love that he has a zoom meeting with his class every day. I think this is important to keep a social and academic connections for the kids. I would love if his teacher or any of the 4th grade teachers were able to offer more zoom meetings at a later time in the day for optional activity times for interested students.	5/1/2020 2:19 PM
19	My son needs to be in environment with less distractions.	5/1/2020 1:39 PM
20	It cannot replace invaluable face-to-face learning, but teachers and students are doing the best they can given the current situation.	5/1/2020 1:29 PM
21	Too many different links and formats so it's hard for him to do it independently.	5/1/2020 1:03 PM
22	It is difficult to have the same level of engagement with online learning. I think his teachers are doing an amazing job trying to connect the students and teach remotely and we are so grateful but this style of learning is not ideal for my son.	5/1/2020 10:59 AM
23	Work provided still requires a large amount of involvement by the parents. This is tough with two working parents...easier for now when everyone is basically "work from home" but this is going to get much more difficult when we aren't "work from home" anymore and one parent has to go back to their workplace.	5/1/2020 10:46 AM
24	I think my kids get enough work to keep her busy, and learning. I am worried of will they learn the new concepts properly.	5/1/2020 10:45 AM
25	The process put in place is consistent and well organized. My child enjoys seeing his teachers on zoom. I had to take the rating down one notch due to the fact that new material is not being taught.	5/1/2020 8:03 AM

26	They are not easy to follow. Suggestion to have the entire week ELA, Math, etc. is one section. Can delineate the days within the disciplines	5/1/2020 1:12 AM
27	My child isn't as engaged as I would hope. I know it is very difficult and applaud the teachers.	4/30/2020 11:12 PM
28	It doesn't feel like our student is making progress. It seems like kids are just treading water and not moving forward.	4/30/2020 10:48 PM
29	My daughter is learning new content and is able to explain what she is learning to us.	4/30/2020 9:48 PM
30	The assignments are not very challenging but then I am not sure I am capable of going deeper on my own.	4/30/2020 9:06 PM
31	Sometimes the work that needs to be submitted seems too easy. Other times we are spending more time and effort on things she doesn't need to submit. I wish we were able to get more feedback to know if we are on track for grade level expectations.	4/30/2020 7:51 PM
32	3	4/30/2020 7:36 PM
33	8/10	4/30/2020 5:28 PM
34	The work is organized and clear. My child is able to get the work done mostly on their own.	4/30/2020 3:14 PM
35	The process is fine, our teacher has been readily available and willing to help but it's hard being a parent and trying to assist with completing lesson plans.	4/30/2020 12:50 PM
36	He's doing well with remote learning, but it does not replace in-class learning. He is able to understand the information, but hopefully it is enough practice to make it "stick".	4/30/2020 12:44 PM
37	It has been very helpful getting plans on Friday and BRAVO to Spring St. for being so organized. So very helpful to have each day outlined on a screen for student to access independently with everything in one place.	4/30/2020 10:43 AM
38	The assignments are easily accessible and just the right amount of work.	4/30/2020 10:15 AM
39	We would prefer class to be later 8:30 isn't a great time for us. He could use more challenging work.	4/30/2020 9:14 AM
40	She still needs help and assurance regularly and is not grasping the full concept of subject matter	4/30/2020 8:51 AM
41	love having the plans to begin the week. The lessons are rigorous yet exciting.	4/30/2020 8:47 AM
42	We are making it work. It is difficult at times as both parents are also working full time from home and have demanding schedules. We also have an older child doing remote learning as well. Thankfully we have enough devices and high wifi bandwidth. I often think of those families who do not and wonder if this is fair for all? Our child is young, requires assistance with zoom and their work. It is a stress on all but we are getting it done and making it work. We do appreciate the packet for the entire week being sent all at once and it's obvious there are good efforts by the teachers but this is not an ideal or effective learning or teaching environment for anyone.	4/30/2020 7:55 AM
43	My fourth grader is an independent learner, and is comfortable navigating the technology needed to access and submit her school work. The challenge of the content is appropriate for her.	4/30/2020 7:43 AM
44	I think the remote learning is way too easy!!! The assignments that are provided to the children are not long enough and my child is in need of more work.	4/30/2020 7:24 AM
45	The work is clear and she is able to do most of the work independently. Time to complete work seems reasonable.	4/30/2020 7:23 AM
46	Kids stay busy	4/30/2020 5:17 AM
47	She struggles with attention and change in routine so that's proven difficult but teachers are doing an amazing job. I just wish she could have some smaller group instruction like she gets in the classroom. Smaller weekly math club was so helpful to her. Would be great if something like that could be provided.	4/30/2020 4:40 AM
48	It is just right. Does not help much	4/29/2020 11:22 PM

Spring Street School Remote Learning Survey – April 2020

49	They are working okay, it's a decent balance of work for the amount of time they are supposed to be working. There's SO many links for them to click on in each week's work, it's a bit overwhelming for my child.	4/29/2020 11:20 PM
50	There is engaging work, but the daily>weekly grind gets tiresome. It really shows how valuable SSS is.	4/29/2020 10:57 PM
51	There has enough materials to choose for studying in Mr. Mabie's weekly email links and my child is very responsible for himself.	4/29/2020 10:07 PM
52	We appreciate having a plan for each week and assignments for each day. Our child loves learning and is very interested in many of the assignments. It's nice to have connection to teachers and friends at Spring Street School, though our biggest challenge has been getting our child to attend Zoom meetings three times per week.	4/29/2020 10:04 PM
53	Clear, easy to read/easy to understand plans. Like the variety. Teacher videos are clear and impactful. Teacher communication is clear and teacher responds very wvly. We'd rather be at school, but I like the plans. Like that all kindergarten plans are the same across the district.	4/29/2020 9:47 PM
54	Teacher is doing a fantastic job communicating with and engaging the kids. Zoom schedule is manageable MWF. We really like the Seesaw app too.	4/29/2020 9:32 PM
55	I think everyone is doing the best they can given the circumstances but it can't replace what they'd be learning in school.	4/29/2020 9:15 PM
56	My child doesn't feel much attention and wouldn't put a lot of effort into homework	4/29/2020 9:02 PM
57	Too many video links and going back and forth between video and worksheets. My child likes the zoom lesson meetings much better. Also, parents would like more feedback on year end goals or benchmarks we need to be meeting. Can the weekly homework sheets that were coming home during the school year be sent with weekly remote learning lessons?	4/29/2020 8:57 PM
58	Hard to keep the attention span	4/29/2020 8:30 PM
59	My child has always had a love of learning, so a shift to remote learning has not really affected my child's ability to learn.	4/29/2020 8:30 PM
60	The work being generated for my child is extremely disappointing. The Shrewsbury Public Schools pride themselves on being a top rated school, yet we are being fed work from free websites loaded with ads and incorrect information. The lack of connection with the teacher is disappointing to the say the least. While I understand that teachers are working from home and may have families as well the amount of time they are spending on actually teaching my child is deplorable.	4/29/2020 8:18 PM
61	Teachers communication is clear. Two days of Zoom teaching is helpful, with one day of sharing/storytelling on Zoom.	4/29/2020 8:16 PM
62	- having class material send on Friday had been very helpful - we are struggling with zoom and transition to google account, it would be most helpful if the instruction were more verbose - classwork is a bit long	4/29/2020 8:05 PM
63	She does better with someone other than myself assisting her :)	4/29/2020 7:33 PM
64	Working well only because we have a family member who is able to devote the time each day to working one on one with my child. My husband and I are both working full time and are not able to spend the time needed to assist with the remote learning. It is not something she can do on her own without adult assistance.	4/29/2020 7:32 PM
65	They are okay, he's doing work but I don't think he's learning anything new.	4/29/2020 7:31 PM
66	Very difficult to engage child in line .	4/29/2020 7:17 PM
67	Wish more interactive time and more teaching sections.	4/29/2020 7:13 PM
68	He finds the work too easy/not enough work	4/29/2020 7:08 PM
69	Daily learning is not challenging enough. No new learning is presented.	4/29/2020 7:03 PM
70	His teacher is very responsive and helpful when problems arise	4/29/2020 6:59 PM
71	Hard to make routine	4/29/2020 6:51 PM

72	My oldest is working independently and finishes her work early.	4/29/2020 6:48 PM
73	It's going well	4/29/2020 6:47 PM
74	It is almost impossible to manage/home school a child with ADHD and parents that are working from home with demanding jobs.	4/29/2020 6:45 PM
75	The learning seems well structured and presented. My child enjoys the learning. My only problem is that she gets through it so quickly! (Which is not really a complaint... she just gobbles it up.)	4/29/2020 6:45 PM
76	We are unable to do much of live zoom classes	4/29/2020 6:42 PM
77	I am absolutely sure that homeschooling is not offering my child the same level of learning he receives in school. Thirty minutes of Zoom, three times a week is just not sufficient to make up.	4/29/2020 6:37 PM
78	My. Hold requires my 1:1 support to complete the work. The work also has to be broken down significantly. Not all the referenced documents are included in the pdf which makes it time consuming to retrieve and print	4/29/2020 6:07 PM
79	It is hard to have the children stay in task and they have very little interaction with friends for social development. However under the circumstances I believe the school system is doing a great job	4/29/2020 6:03 PM
80	A scale of 1-10, my daughter's teacher is a 10.	4/29/2020 6:02 PM
81	The learning is adequate to keep his/her skills at their current level but lack instruction to further the child's education	4/29/2020 6:01 PM
82	Mrs. Mac is going above and beyond but finding time as parents to go above and beyond has been challenging.	4/29/2020 5:51 PM
83	going great	4/29/2020 5:49 PM
84	They are getting the work done. I just don't think they are interested in it because it is a home environment. It's currently hard to re-teach that in this present time.	4/29/2020 5:43 PM
85	The curriculum is organized and I appreciate sending out the weeks work as a whole. Our challenges come from both parents working full time from home, with two kids at home as well. Often we do not have time to assist with the kids meetings and work during the day. This is a problem for the younger children who require support. It is not sustainable and is stressful for both us and the kids. We are making it work but certainly not ideal and I don't know how much is even being retained.	4/29/2020 5:42 PM
86	I appreciate the organization of weekly plans.	4/29/2020 5:40 PM
87	I think the time spent over zoom is not enough. The onus of overseeing the assigned work falls on the parents.	4/29/2020 5:38 PM
88	The remote learning material provided is extremely difficult for a second grader to navigate on their own. However the material itself is mostly busy work with a small amount of reinforcing previously learned material. Because the everything is geared toward the large group I am not seeing any new material being taught. Even in the "breakout rooms" there is no opportunity for interaction for my quieter child and still very little learning happening. I would like to see smaller groups, more live interactions with new materials, and enforcement of expected behavior as if the children were at school. 3 half hour meetings a week and a few worksheets is not a curriculum.	4/29/2020 5:36 PM
89	Sometimes links aren't working on assignments	4/29/2020 5:35 PM
90	not interested in doing work at home, challenging to get quality work	4/29/2020 5:27 PM
91	Zoom timing is a little tough. Having a first grader as well, juggling multiple calls can be a bit challenging. Maybe if they were spaced out a bit more?	4/29/2020 5:21 PM
92	There does not see to be any new learning going on. It is mostly review of previous concepts. There is a ton to homework but little actual instruction.	4/29/2020 5:16 PM
93	He is doing all the work. It is difficult to do some of the activities because they are games and with 2 working parents we do not have the time to do this. The limited feedback from teachers is difficult. The writing and science are hard to do because it requires a lot of parent	4/29/2020 5:14 PM involvement. 2 working parents are pulled in many directions. The work is only enough for a couple hours so I need to find outside resources for the rest of the day. The daily zoom is good. The online teaching is not enough with only 1 session.

94	The weekly schedule is well written and easy to follow.	4/29/2020 5:13 PM
95	My child is SPED for math and needs OT and ST as well as vision services. So virtual learning is tough for him. However, we have seen improvements in his math skills because we are doing so much repetition with him.	4/29/2020 5:10 PM
96	I appreciate receiving all information, schedule, printouts ahead of time. The workload in manageable. The work the teachers are doing in the zoom sessions are great.	4/29/2020 5:08 PM
97	It is well thought out, easy to print assignments. I do wish instead of one teaching session a week, there could be (1) a day to replace the Zoom call.	4/29/2020 5:06 PM
98	There is little in terms of 'required.' Most of it is 'optional.' Telling a child an assignment is optional is like telling them they can clean their room 'if they want!'	4/29/2020 5:03 PM
99	So far it's been working for my 1st grader, I can print out the work for the week and she can for the most part so the work herself if I get her set up for the day and then check her work after she is done.	4/29/2020 5:01 PM
100	Easy to follow, good directions, nice links and examples.	4/29/2020 4:59 PM
101	The remote learning adds structure to our day. It helps maintain the school learning expectations, while no one can replace our wonderful teachers. My child does benefit from the school interaction with the teacher and his classmates.	4/29/2020 4:58 PM
102	The assignments are varied and she is pretty independent in getting her work completed.	4/29/2020 4:53 PM
103	We have a schedule and we follow it most days	4/29/2020 4:52 PM
104	Some of text, testing and worksheets being used have misinformation on them	4/29/2020 4:51 PM
105	Not enough work although I understand the need for moderation as not all families can support their children due to their work or other family obligations. My child's teacher has been amazing and providing additional activities outside of the "weekly assignments" like read alouds and pre-recorded morning meetings. This is wonderful because my student still sees her teacher everyday even though it might not be a live zoom :)	4/29/2020 4:50 PM
106	The delivery of material has been good. It just feels like there is less work for the students than there was when teaching was in-person. I worry about curriculum coverage remote versus in-person. Are students being short changed?	4/29/2020 4:48 PM
107	It is enough work to cover each subject and still manageable to help with two working parents at home.	4/29/2020 4:46 PM
108	The educator plans prior to common planning were more rigorous and specific to student needs. All is well but we enjoyed the class specificity.	4/29/2020 4:45 PM
109	There is nothing especially challenging or enriching going on with the material.	4/29/2020 4:44 PM
110	Apart from technical shortcomings or difficulties, for the most part, my child is able to independently follow the planner.	4/29/2020 4:44 PM
111	The amount of work seems appropriate, and the level of work seems appropriate. The advice to break it into 20-30 minute chunks was particularly helpful.	4/29/2020 4:42 PM
112	The instructions are easy to follow and the log ins are all established, vs the beginning.	4/29/2020 4:38 PM
113	Not enough explains about some tasks...parent do not know what kids should do	4/29/2020 4:38 PM
114	Overall it is working fine! The expectations are realistic and the zoom meetings are phenomenal.	4/29/2020 4:38 PM

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	It is hard to know via what channel to submit work. We have 4 children in the school system and each teacher uses different platforms. Some teachers are commenting on work and asking that things be resubmitted and the way that is being communicated is confusing and I think things are getting lost in the shuffle.	5/4/2020 9:47 AM
2	Teacher replies with questions raised	5/4/2020 9:28 AM
3	Ok	5/4/2020 8:59 AM
4	the teacher is trying very hard to communicate with us, trying to help the kids	5/3/2020 11:31 PM
5	We are taking pictures and emailing them back. I wish there was a submit button for her to press when completing online assignments all from one place. It's just too hard to get things from different places for all the kids.	5/3/2020 11:12 PM
6	Teacher is great and responsive.	5/3/2020 4:31 PM
7	I am seeing very little feedback, or even recognition of receipt. This could be a problem on my end, but if so, the communication route is muddy.	5/3/2020 4:07 PM
8	Teacher has had excellent communication.	5/3/2020 2:36 PM
9	The work is getting done, but sending it in proves to be difficult!	5/3/2020 7:49 AM
10	The submission process is easy to use and the teacher provides feedback fairly quickly.	5/2/2020 11:01 PM
11	We haven't received any feedback.	5/2/2020 7:28 PM
12	Our teacher is always available to support my son. Easy to take pictures of the assignments and email to teacher each week.	5/2/2020 2:52 PM
13	Teachers check the work and give feedback	5/2/2020 12:34 PM
14	I haven't figured out where to see the feedback yet, I planned on asking the teacher this week.	5/2/2020 11:04 AM
15	Because they use seesaw, submitting assignments and receiving feedback is quite easy and quick	5/2/2020 9:18 AM
16	It feels like they are parents' assignments (LOL), especially when we have to balance our WFH time and kids study time online or offline.	5/1/2020 5:42 PM
17	Mix of email and seesaw is confusing	5/1/2020 3:05 PM
18	My child know exactly how to put stuff in the google drive to share or use Seesaw to upload items. His teacher does an amazing job of responding to everything.	5/1/2020 2:19 PM
19	How and when was not explained well.	5/1/2020 1:39 PM
20	My child's teacher is extremely responsive and gives prompt feedback on assignments.	5/1/2020 1:29 PM
21	We get excellent feedback on the assignments submitted. There is always suggestions for room to improve if the assignment allows for it as well as lots of positive feedback. He looks forward to seeing responses from his teachers.	5/1/2020 10:59 AM
22	Submitting assignments is very straightforward and teacher is very responsive.	5/1/2020 10:46 AM
23	I feel now my daughter knows how to post her stuff, so i am not worried.	5/1/2020 10:45 AM
24	Seesaw notifications can be very voluminous, making it hard to streamline straight to assignments and feedback.	5/1/2020 8:03 AM
25	Limited Feedback, not specific Not similar to feedback received with work completed in the classroom setting.	5/1/2020 1:12 AM
26	Teacher feedback has been great. Of course I fear that my child (and all children) aren't learning as much new material as they should be.	4/30/2020 11:12 PM
27	Our child's teacher is amazing. She is quite responsive and wonderful about giving feedback. She is really great at positive criticism, and our child responds to it (usually).	4/30/2020 10:48 PM
28	The amount of time my daughter's teacher is spending providing feedback to her is amazing - I	4/30/2020 9:48 PM can't imagine how she is able to do the same with such a large class.

29	We submit through seesaw and our teacher is very responsive.	4/30/2020 7:51 PM
30	4 out of 4	4/30/2020 7:36 PM
31	9/10	4/30/2020 5:28 PM
32	Teacher responds quickly and with positive feedback as well as constructive criticism when necessary.	4/30/2020 3:14 PM
33	Teacher has been very helpful	4/30/2020 12:50 PM
34	The teacher does a good job of giving advice if there is any issues with assignments.	4/30/2020 12:44 PM
35	feedback is quick turnaround	4/30/2020 10:43 AM
36	His teacher is always available to help and reviews work submitted very quickly.	4/30/2020 9:14 AM
37	My daughter is able to submit to the teacher on her own and her teacher is Very responsive to questions and help by email and zoom in a very timely manner.	4/30/2020 8:51 AM
38	Feedback is excellent. Seesaw is a good platform but we spend a lot of time trying to upload work on to have a spinning wheel. Logging in to Seesaw can sometimes be difficult.	4/30/2020 8:47 AM
39	As directed, we submit required and all other work completed to Seesaw on Fridays. The teacher returns comments within hours, great job!	4/30/2020 7:55 AM
40	Her teacher gives timely feedback, and will reach out promptly in the event my child does not submit a required assignment. My child does not necessary seek out the feedback, and it is something that I as a parent has to make sure she does.	4/30/2020 7:43 AM
41	Items are easily importable to seesaw and her teacher is very proactive and provides great feedback! There just needs to be more assignments!!!!	4/30/2020 7:24 AM
42	Formats can be difficult. We don't have a printer so we need to get the answers into the form electronically and it can be difficult to edit the PDFs and Word documents. She typically needs help to get her math answers into the form.	4/30/2020 7:23 AM
43	Progressing smoothly	4/30/2020 5:17 AM
44	Her teacher has been wonderful with individualized feedback - encouraging my daughter to submit all math work through seesaw, beyond highlighted assignments, so that teacher can review and comment. That has been a tremendous help and I'm so appreciative of the teachers offer to do this.	4/30/2020 4:40 AM
45	Teacher responds to the assignments and tell about the mistakes.	4/29/2020 11:22 PM
46	The teacher is giving some good feedback, but sometime when my student worked hard and all they get is a bitmoji picture from the teacher instead of an actual comment, he gets disappointed.	4/29/2020 11:20 PM
47	Seesaw is working for us.	4/29/2020 10:57 PM
48	There is no feedback, maybe because all assignments are correct.	4/29/2020 10:07 PM
49	Our child's teacher replies usually within an hour and is wonderful! The assignments that need to be submitted are fairly easy for our child and not stressful.	4/29/2020 10:04 PM
50	She says we can use a SeeSaw or pictures. Easy to "pass" in. Gives feedback quickly., which is appreciated.	4/29/2020 9:47 PM
51	The Seesaw app is easy to use...	4/29/2020 9:32 PM
52	Submitting assignments is easy and the teacher is very responsive.	4/29/2020 9:15 PM
53	I don't feel much connection between my child and teacher	4/29/2020 9:02 PM
54	Teachers have sent brief comments on the two assignments. Would like to see more feedback or more assignments.	4/29/2020 8:57 PM
55	Easy to upload to Seesaw! We need to spend more time going through teachers comments though. We upload and then forget about it.	4/29/2020 8:30 PM

56	My child's teacher has used SeeSaw since the beginning of school, so there was not much of a learning curve to switch entirely to SeeSaw as the primary platform for submitting work and receiving feedback. I appreciate getting notifications when my child submits work, as well as the feedback that is received from the teacher.	4/29/2020 8:30 PM
57	Little to no feedback is being provided by my child's teacher.	4/29/2020 8:18 PM
58	Submissions are easy via email or Seesaw. Teachers provide feedback within a day or so.	4/29/2020 8:16 PM
59	Her teacher has been beyond amazing.	4/29/2020 7:33 PM
60	Teacher has been very flexible about format for assignments being submitted and has responded timely to all emails.	4/29/2020 7:32 PM
61	The teacher is very timely and thoughtful in her feedback.	4/29/2020 7:31 PM
62	Our teacher has been very supportive	4/29/2020 7:17 PM
63	More zoom time, more teaching.	4/29/2020 7:13 PM
64	Submission process is easy to follow and teacher provides feedback	4/29/2020 7:08 PM
65	The teacher provides timely feedback and is extremely engaged.	4/29/2020 7:03 PM
66	Assignments are submitted daily and she has been very responsive and provides feedback for him to correct errors.	4/29/2020 6:59 PM
67	His teachers are exceptional! Shout out to Ms liporto and Bazydlo !	4/29/2020 6:51 PM
68	Teacher responds promptly.	4/29/2020 6:48 PM
69	Adequate feedback	4/29/2020 6:47 PM
70	I think getting feedback is great, but there is really no time to apply that. We are not teachers!	4/29/2020 6:45 PM
71	This is completely on me, I just forget. She does the work!	4/29/2020 6:45 PM
72	Teacher gives her feedback regularly	4/29/2020 6:42 PM
73	Teacher has responded to her activities with comments which motivates to do better	4/29/2020 6:42 PM
74	I have 20 to 22 pages to scan and it takes a long time.	4/29/2020 6:37 PM
75	Feedback is minimal	4/29/2020 6:07 PM
76	Teacher is very prompt	4/29/2020 6:03 PM
77	10	4/29/2020 6:02 PM
78	Submitting assignments is fine but receiving feedback should be a daily occurrence for writing assignments that progress over the course of the week.	4/29/2020 6:01 PM
79	It is an easy process and she responds to everything we submit.	4/29/2020 5:51 PM
80	clear expectations and directions	4/29/2020 5:49 PM
81	We are submitting assignments in Seasaw. They do respond and it is all and well but printing all this paperwork is getting annoying. Paper and Ink is getting used more and more. I know 5th graders are submitting assignments through Schoology while using notability. Why hasn't that been option with the younger grades?	4/29/2020 5:43 PM
82	Although there are only 2 required assignments, we do have our student complete the suggested work. The teacher has reviewed and commented promptly. She is making great efforts!	4/29/2020 5:42 PM
83	Submitting assignments is easy with applications such as Seesaw. There is not much specific feedback on each assignment which leaves me wondering if my child is on the right track with grade level expectations.	4/29/2020 5:40 PM
84	There is a learning curve for my kid to get acquainted with the process of doing the assigned work and taking pics of the completed work and sending it to the teacher is not always convenient.	4/29/2020 5:38 PM

85	Using seesaw to submit the items and having a teacher comment is relatively easy to do. It probably would be easier if the students could complete the work electronically. I'm not sure why they're only required to submit 2 assignments a week. I'm assuming the teachers review all work when school was in session.	4/29/2020 5:36 PM
86	It has been easy to submit photos of assignments on Seesaw and the teacher comments on the work.	4/29/2020 5:35 PM
87	teachers are very responsive and provide constructive feedback	4/29/2020 5:27 PM
88	He was well versed in seesaw before the remote learning so that was definitely a seamless transition for him	4/29/2020 5:21 PM
89	It has been rather random depending on assignment how they do.	4/29/2020 5:16 PM
90	Submitting on seesaw is easy. The teacher responds quickly. More assignments need to be passed in. 2 a week is not enough to know if he is progressing as he should.	4/29/2020 5:14 PM
91	Submitting the assignments are easy to upload and his teacher is very good and quick to correct and comment on his work.	4/29/2020 5:13 PM
92	We submit and get feedback but she's only seeing a fraction of the work we do so not sure if only submitting 1-2 pieces is giving her an accurate view of his abilities and progress.	4/29/2020 5:10 PM
93	We have not received a great deal of feedback. I specifically reached out to the teacher because I was not sure the work was being received due to lack of feedback. However, response to parent emails are quick and thorough.	4/29/2020 5:08 PM
94	It was not simple at first, but we did adjust.	4/29/2020 5:06 PM
95	Not getting much in terms of feedback at all.	4/29/2020 5:03 PM
96	Submitting on seesaw is very easy my 1st grader can submit her self! Her teacher is great at responding and giving feedback! Extremely happy with this process and the feedback given.	4/29/2020 5:01 PM
97	Easy to upload stuff to SeeSaw. I get very prompt feedback from the teacher.	4/29/2020 4:59 PM
98	Our teachers feedback helps me guide my child in areas he needs help with. And positive feedback to the student on jobs well done.	4/29/2020 4:58 PM
99	Her teacher is working diligently to connect with all of the students and she is a dynamite teacher.	4/29/2020 4:53 PM
100	Submitting is easy we have received very little feedback at all on submitted work	4/29/2020 4:51 PM
101	We get feedback everyday.	4/29/2020 4:50 PM
102	Teachers are very clear in their instructions and submission is straightforward.	4/29/2020 4:48 PM
103	There is no place to comment on question 4 - the daily workload varies greatly. Is there a way to have the same amount of workload from day to day versus the disparity? Our educator immediately provides positive feedbacks and points out incorrect answers for the student to redo. She will then comment on the resubmitted work indicating standards-based mastery.	4/29/2020 4:45 PM
104	The teacher is very responsive.	4/29/2020 4:44 PM
105	Am able to take pictures and send it to the teachers thru SEESAW and get an immediate response from the teacher.	4/29/2020 4:44 PM
106	All assignments are acknowledged, even those that are not required. The remarks are not constructive, but I think that's okay under the circumstances.	4/29/2020 4:42 PM
107	It is easy to do on SeeSaw	4/29/2020 4:38 PM
108	Very well, getting notes if got it tight or not	4/29/2020 4:38 PM
109	We submit more than required on some weeks just to show all the work she is doing. And our teacher is always so response.	4/29/2020 4:38 PM

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	My oldest meets with his teacher every day for 1/2 hour. The time is well spent, mostly reviewing what is expected for that day, but I am the one helping my child when questions come up about the material or expectations for the assignments. I understand there are live times with teachers, but it is just easier to assist my child than it is to figure out what teacher is on when.	5/4/2020 9:47 AM
2	Zoom check ins m-w-f and in between days are open for consultation	5/4/2020 9:28 AM
3	Wish there is more interaction	5/4/2020 8:59 AM
4	we think our school should offer more " classroom" time for students. not only half an hour a day. this is not enough time for kids	5/3/2020 11:31 PM
5	It's a good amount of time but some children are disruptive and write on the screen and unmute themselves. I find that the teacher ends up having to spend quality time redirecting when there isn't much time to begin with.	5/3/2020 11:12 PM
6	There should be an hour of live lesson every day and then an assignment.	5/3/2020 4:31 PM
7	45-60 minutes would be nicer, to give time to cover multiple bases while together.	5/3/2020 4:07 PM
8	There does not seem to be enough time with only 30" three times/week. One hour, which it was previously, was much better.	5/3/2020 2:36 PM
9	Daily class zooms would be better to keep the learning on track. Maybe Monday: reading Tuesday: Math Wednesday: writing Thursday: social studies Friday: Science The first zoom of the week being held is not educational my focused. Instruction Focused on a specific subject would be better	5/3/2020 7:49 AM
10	The daily meetings have been sufficient.	5/2/2020 11:01 PM
11	3 sessions of 30 mins of their teacher for such a large group is not enough. I did like how they broke up class in zoom but it was only for a few minutes out of 30 so not effective.	5/2/2020 7:28 PM
12	Love the opportunity for my child to Zoom with his classmates every day	5/2/2020 2:52 PM
13	I think it is a good amount of time since it is just for interaction and keeping in touch	5/2/2020 12:34 PM
14	Daily zoom calls and teachers being available for an hour after works great	5/2/2020 9:18 AM
15	half - one hour, tree times a week is not sufficient, not comparable with even a half-day content during normal school days. However, it's understandable that the teachers have obligations at home with kids and other family members. It is curious, how the remote learning would be able to grade or evaluate student's learning experience.	5/1/2020 5:42 PM
16	Would love to see more frequent or longer live interaction in addition to more small group or 1:1 interactions	5/1/2020 3:05 PM
17	I know it's difficult finding the right balance, but I think it's important to offer more.	5/1/2020 2:19 PM
18	My child need more time with teachers.	5/1/2020 1:39 PM
19	The daily interactions has been satisfactory.	5/1/2020 1:29 PM
20	Instead of having the Zoom check in / general classroom calls, more direct learning would be more beneficial.	5/1/2020 1:03 PM
21	I think it would benefit to have more live lessons with teachers if possible and even small group lessons or check ins would be beneficial. I definitely think the zoom meetings are helpful to stay connected and engaged.	5/1/2020 10:59 AM
22	My son desperately misses his teacher and classmates and while actual live interaction is not possible right now, I think there should be more scheduled virtual interaction. Another virtual session later in the day would be helpful.	5/1/2020 10:46 AM
23	I wish theses kids to get more time with teacher	5/1/2020 10:45 AM
24	I understand the time constraints to get through all the grades within the school day, but 30 minute zooms feel very short.	5/1/2020 8:03 AM

25	Other districts are providing more interactions per child per week.	5/1/2020 1:12 AM
26	30 minutes 4x a week doesn't seem like enough instruction time. The teachers are available longer, but since it isn't mandatory, my child doesn't stay online past the 30 minutes. I would like the students to have to stay online with the teacher for a few hours a day.	4/30/2020 11:12 PM
27	I really feel lessons should be daily. I do like how our teacher switches between subjects for the lessons throughout the week. I do notice our child is better able to finish that topic after the lesson. The improvement to my child's ability to complete work is what makes me feel lessons should be daily.	4/30/2020 10:48 PM
28	I feel as though my daughter's teacher is going above and beyond with the required sessions of live teaching and I am extremely grateful. I believe she is also effectively using other professional and paraprofessional staff to support her large class size.	4/30/2020 9:48 PM
29	It's about right only in that the level is a bit too low so that more would not be helpful. But if the level were higher more would be very very helpful	4/30/2020 9:06 PM
30	We could use more live learning	4/30/2020 7:51 PM
31	4/4	4/30/2020 7:36 PM
32	9/10	4/30/2020 5:28 PM
33	Right now it is one time a week. For our family that works.	4/30/2020 3:14 PM
34	Wish there was more interaction time for the class, along with the teacher to feel more like school. However my daughter has received extra help and her teacher has been wonderful providing it.	4/30/2020 12:50 PM
35	There is only one day of learning and the other days appear to be more social. I think maybe adding an additional day would benefit the students.	4/30/2020 12:44 PM
36	understand that. many teachers have families as well so need to accommodate for this	4/30/2020 10:43 AM
37	3 live meetings a week are a good amount. And the 1/2 hr time frame is perfect to hold his attention.	4/30/2020 10:15 AM
38	It's probably the right amount but at the same time maybe they could do a bit more.	4/30/2020 9:14 AM
39	It ends up being less than 30 minutes of learning time a week which I do not think is enough	4/30/2020 8:51 AM
40	live interactions are great but the 8:30 time slot is not easy for my family.	4/30/2020 8:47 AM
41	Two times a week is the current scheduled. It is totally fine given the circumstances. Three would be great but again, added stress for all.	4/30/2020 7:55 AM
42	As remote learning has evolved, I think the live teacher interaction has appropriately evolved with it. Initially, the morning zoom meetings seemed excessive, sometimes lasting over an hour. The most recent schedule limited to a specific time frame that includes some meets as instruction, others as check-ins, seem more manageable, especially with 4 people in the home sharing devices.	4/30/2020 7:43 AM
43	I think the amount of "live lessons" via zoom for my daughter in 3rd grade is NOT ENOUGH! This week 4/27 her sessions were increased to 2 learning sessions per week and then 1 social zoom. Its sad that we are in 2020 and cannot provide our students with live or previously recorded lessons for the full academic day, each day of the week.	4/30/2020 7:24 AM
44	check-ins 3 times a week seems appropriate.	4/30/2020 7:23 AM
45	I think an additional smaller group math meet up would be helpful - like math club opportunity.	4/30/2020 4:40 AM
46	There's a difference between learning and just being online with the teacher. I know that their social emotions are important, but why is their class going on more than some of the other 4th grade classes?	4/29/2020 11:20 PM
47	This is new to all of us, so it seems to work now, but may need to be adjusted.	4/29/2020 10:57 PM
48	I still think a live teacher interaction will be better than remote learning. At home my child chooses his interest to read and study though he is responsible himself.	4/29/2020 10:07 PM
49	We believe it's good for our child to have interaction with his classmates and teacher three	4/29/2020 10:04 PM

times per week for 30 minutes, but our child REALLY dislikes Zoom and dreads Zoom sessions. Our child much prefers learning one-on-one with a parent helping at a time we pick on our own during the day.

50	3x a week for meetings with teacher works well. Like/appreciate the consistent time for meetings.	4/29/2020 9:47 PM
51	Great schedule MWF Monday time is used to explain the work for the week, Wednesday is a live teach and Friday is reflection/game time.	4/29/2020 9:32 PM
52	Daily meetings	4/29/2020 9:15 PM
53	Meetings became very short, not much informative	4/29/2020 9:02 PM
54	My child responds well to online/interactive lessons rather than watching videos independently. Would love to see more online lessons via Zoom. Once a week is not enough.	4/29/2020 8:57 PM
55	We do 3x a week. I think it's sufficient. Again, the kids get antsy and hard to keep them focused for long periods of time.	4/29/2020 8:30 PM
56	I feel my child could benefit from more live teaching and less social-emotional work.	4/29/2020 8:30 PM
57	I am extremely disappointed in the lack of time my child spends physically interacting with the teacher and class.	4/29/2020 8:18 PM
58	2 live teaching opportunities via Zoom is better than 1, which it was before.	4/29/2020 8:16 PM
59	found the time zoom + teacher + other students were very helpful, making my son feel closer to being in school	4/29/2020 8:05 PM
60	I am very happy with the amount of live time she does get- but she did do better I think when she also had the 1:1 time	4/29/2020 7:33 PM
61	There is only 1 directed learning time per week and it is only for 30 minutes. As a parent in a household where both mother and father work full time it would be helpful to have more directed instruction from the teachers.	4/29/2020 7:32 PM
62	Why are they having to go on Zoom 5x a week when others are only having to go on 3-4 times?	4/29/2020 7:31 PM
63	I would like to see more teaching verses review of assignment .. also more guidance/instruction what is expected from each assignment	4/29/2020 7:17 PM
64	More interactive time	4/29/2020 7:13 PM
65	He meets Monday through Friday for one hour, includes two days of mini lessons. He feels this is the right amount of time	4/29/2020 7:08 PM
66	Student have just 30 minutes with the teacher. I would Like to see more interaction with teacher daily.	4/29/2020 7:03 PM
67	3 weekly calls and available for office hours has been working well.	4/29/2020 6:59 PM
68	Great interaction with teacher	4/29/2020 6:51 PM
69	We have meetings for 30min 5 times per week.	4/29/2020 6:48 PM
70	Adequate amount	4/29/2020 6:47 PM
71	I think 3 x a week is good, however, 1 hr is too long. Please keep it to 1/2 hr or 40 mins. The kids loose focus.	4/29/2020 6:45 PM
72	I would love if my kindergartener could meet 4 days per week, just because she loves having the class meetings. I completely understand there may not be benefit to more than 3.	4/29/2020 6:45 PM
73	Live classes should be available as a recording so we can review later	4/29/2020 6:42 PM
74	They have 30-45 mins of morning meeting everyday which is good	4/29/2020 6:42 PM
75	I wouldn't agree that 30 minutes of instruction 3 times a week is sufficient instruction.	4/29/2020 6:37 PM
76	Most of the warning is through self directed work which requires parent instruction and supervision. Hi boy 30 min sessions (3 times per week) are spent with the teacher.	4/29/2020 6:07 PM

Spring Street School Remote Learning Survey – April 2020

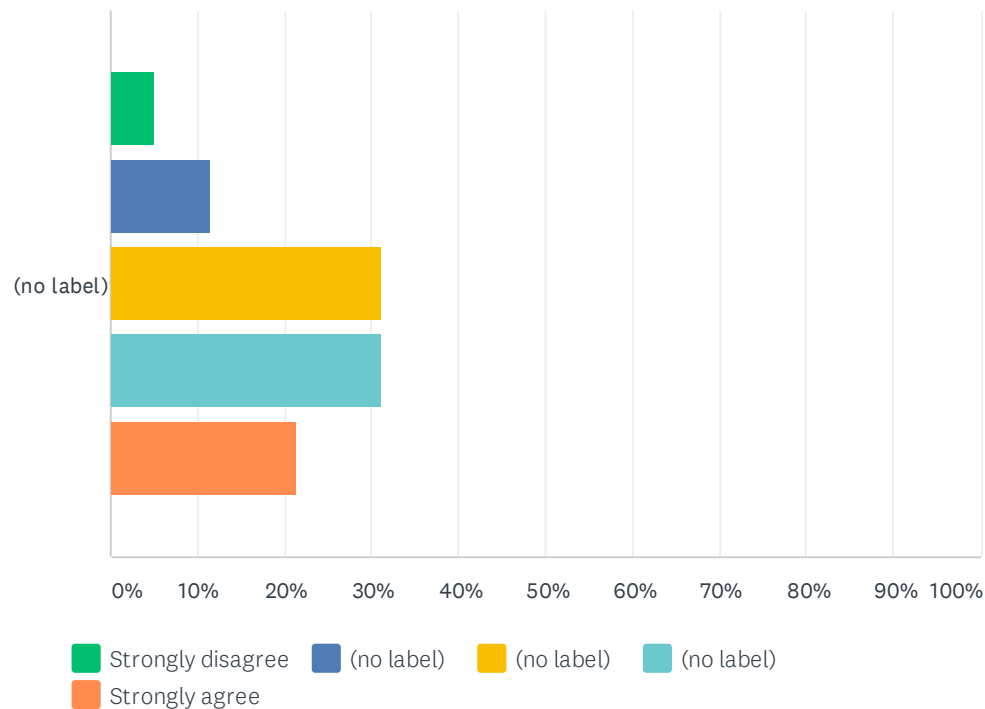

77	I believe we need more teaching and time with the teachers but again the restraints are not easy to work around	4/29/2020 6:03 PM
78	10	4/29/2020 6:02 PM
79	Students would benefit from one hour, daily live lessons involving actual coursework.	4/29/2020 6:01 PM
80	Of course we would love 6 hours a day but this is a good amount.	4/29/2020 5:51 PM
81	going well	4/29/2020 5:49 PM
82	They like seeing their Teacher and school mates	4/29/2020 5:43 PM
83	We are neutral on this...2 days a week is fine but it could be more.	4/29/2020 5:42 PM
84	It was much more effective for us personally when the teacher got to do an hour long zoom meeting three times per week at 11:00 in the afternoon. My child seemed to feel more connected to school/the class/schoolwork. He has been more disengaged with the work since it changed in order to make it the same for everyone and limit the time (which is understandable).	4/29/2020 5:40 PM
85	Would prefer if the live classes are longer. It seems as poor substitute for the in-class experience.	4/29/2020 5:38 PM
86	2 half hour lessons a week is hardly adequate, and by the time they start and stop its less than that. In the live lessons they're doing some of the assigned work. Would rather see them work on other material and then reinforce through they're assigned work. 1 class "meeting" a week is also not giving the students enough sense of maintaining the classroom community. My child is quieter and its been over a week since I've hear him actually speak on the live sessions. They're so quick and dominated by the same students.	4/29/2020 5:36 PM
87	I think that there should be at least one live session with the teacher every day with the introduction of new material. The kids are missing a third of the school year and remote learning so far isn't even getting at 50% of what they'd be doing in class	4/29/2020 5:35 PM
88	I would like and appreciate more time	4/29/2020 5:27 PM
89	30 minutes is just enough to support a lesson/assignment. When it was longer my son and I felt it was to long.	4/29/2020 5:21 PM
90	There is little live teacher interaction	4/29/2020 5:16 PM
91	The daily meetings have been great. I wish there was more online teaching. Once a week is not enough to teach the skills and make sure they understand them. I don't understand the new Monday office hours. Seems like the time would be better spent teaching.	4/29/2020 5:14 PM
92	Yes we have 3 live teacher interactions weekly and she is available on Mondays if needed	4/29/2020 5:13 PM
93	Not sure on this one ... I wish there was more but remote/Zoom/virtual is not normal ...	4/29/2020 5:10 PM
94	I think the time is great and well spent. My child looks forward to it each day.	4/29/2020 5:08 PM
95	Instead of once a week learning, it would be nice to have it daily for 1/2 hour.	4/29/2020 5:06 PM
96	We have half an hour of 'live' learning 3x/week. This is 1.5 hours. Do you actually think this is enough??!!	4/29/2020 5:03 PM
97	I feel the half hour is not enough time, especially since they are use to being in school for such a long time. I think a little longer on zoom would be nice	4/29/2020 5:01 PM
98	3 Zoom sessions with teachers and classmates is enough.	4/29/2020 4:59 PM
99	For a third grader I think the amount of time is sufficient.	4/29/2020 4:58 PM
100	The 30 minute time frame is an appropriate length of time 3 times a week. We are balancing 3 students: 1 at elementary level and 2 in middle school and the timing of everyone's online programs coordinate well, miraculously!	4/29/2020 4:53 PM
101	I wish there Was more time dedicated to teaching . 3 30 min periods of interaction for teachers is not enough classroom time	4/29/2020 4:51 PM
102	Three times a week is happy medium and I feel it's just enough without overstressing the teacher or student.	4/29/2020 4:50 PM

103	Teachers are doing a good job.	4/29/2020 4:48 PM
104	They appreciate the time in the class, but it isn't too much time for a family with multiple children and parents zooming throughout the day.	4/29/2020 4:46 PM
105	We have 3 structured zoom meetings for ~ 30 minutes where the educator reviews and engages in traditional classroom routines and has students interact with her and the students. This is the length of time my children can remain focussed on a screen before needing to engage in self-directed work.	4/29/2020 4:45 PM
106	More teacher interaction would keep him more engaged.	4/29/2020 4:44 PM
107	I think my child is happy with the amount of interaction right now, but misses interacting with other teachers.	4/29/2020 4:44 PM
108	I would of course choose more teacher interaction time, and at times smaller groups, but I understand it may not be possible.	4/29/2020 4:42 PM
109	It is the correct amount of time, and times per week is appropriate as well.	4/29/2020 4:38 PM
110	3 is good my son can do more	4/29/2020 4:38 PM
111	We have 3 zoom meetings a week. One of which is a learning one where they use breakout rooms. I can SEE and HEAR the energy in my daughter's voice during those. She loves those learning sessions.	4/29/2020 4:38 PM

1	My child participates but it is not like being connected in a classroom.	5/4/2020 9:47 AM
2	Student interactions and learning from others is still a better learning other than learning alone	5/4/2020 9:28 AM
3	Ok	5/4/2020 8:59 AM
4	it's too short, only 30minutes a day	5/3/2020 11:31 PM
5	There are so many children to filter through in her grade level. They end up waiting a long time. This is out of the teachers control.	5/3/2020 11:12 PM
6	Online learning	5/3/2020 4:31 PM
7	She did more at the beginning than as time is passing, but I imagine that is unavoidable.	5/3/2020 4:07 PM
8	Teacher does a wonderful job engaging the students.	5/3/2020 2:36 PM
9	My child enjoys seeing familiar faces and pays full attention during class.	5/2/2020 11:01 PM
10	She says too many kids and all are on mute. Only good thing is seeing all their pets per my daughter.	5/2/2020 7:28 PM
11	My child is really missing his friends and teachers	5/2/2020 2:52 PM
12	Nothing is like a real classroom	5/2/2020 12:34 PM
13	The zoom calls help a lot	5/2/2020 9:18 AM
14	Focus is good, as the my oldest kid hopes to return to school, back to normal.	5/1/2020 5:42 PM
15	Seems engaged	5/1/2020 3:05 PM
16	I think he is happy with the amount.	5/1/2020 2:19 PM
17	Children need to be together for development of social skills. These skills can not be learned online.	5/1/2020 1:39 PM
18	My child feels somewhat connected to his classroom but not in the same way as in person.	5/1/2020 1:29 PM
19	Even with Zoom calls it's impossible to be "connected" to the classroom right now.	5/1/2020 1:03 PM
20	My child really enjoys seeing his teacher and classmates on Zoom. He wakes up and easily gets ready on the days he has meetings but it seems harder for him to stay motivated on the days it doesn't start off with a meeting.	5/1/2020 10:59 AM
21	Remote learning is not a substitute in any way for live in-person teaching and interaction. My son likes being able to see and talk with his teacher and classmates, but you can tell that it does not fill the need for actual in-person social interaction.	5/1/2020 10:46 AM
22	I am not sure of that. I see her less connected with her school friends now.	5/1/2020 10:45 AM
23	Student really likes and finds the classroom presentation (1 per week) engaging. One per week is limited.	5/1/2020 1:12 AM
24	My child interacts with the teachers along-side classmates, but there isn't a lot of interaction among students.	4/30/2020 11:12 PM
25	My child does verbally tell us frequently that she does not like zoom because she does not feel like she can interact with students. She tells us she misses chatting with so and so while waiting for the buses, or sitting next to so and so during morning meeting. This cannot be replicated by zoom. I am not sure there is a way to help her feel more connected.	4/30/2020 10:48 PM
26	She listens to her teacher (way better than to her parents) and feels comfortable connecting with her peers.	4/30/2020 9:48 PM
27	She enjoys the zoom meetings and other informal video chats with friends however she can be very shy and interaction can be difficult.	4/30/2020 7:51 PM

33	feel doing the best we can given this unprecedented time	4/30/2020 10:43 AM
34	Zoom meetings help a lot to stay connected but it is still hard	4/30/2020 8:51 AM
35	There isn't a lot of student to student interaction during live interactions. Very teacher-driven.	4/30/2020 8:47 AM
36	The child feels connected during zoom calls but there is no connection during the independent work.	4/30/2020 7:55 AM
37	My child is more on the shy side, therefor is not as active in participating in the live meets. However she is connecting with the content.	4/30/2020 7:43 AM
38	3 days of zoom per week for 30 minutes each does not provide a connected feeling for my child	4/30/2020 7:24 AM
39	She likes seeing the teacher and other kids live and 30 minutes seem to be the right amount of time or she gets distracted.	4/30/2020 7:23 AM
40	I think the platform can be tricky for shy kids but it's been such a great way to get her motivated for the day's assignments.	4/30/2020 4:40 AM
41	I dont think its of any use	4/29/2020 11:22 PM
42	I think they are connected as they can be, but he would still rather be in school. :)	4/29/2020 11:20 PM
43	There is no substitute for SSS.	4/29/2020 10:57 PM
44	My child said it's good, but no more closer connection.	4/29/2020 10:07 PM
45	I think our child enjoys seeing friends on Zoom and sometimes talks about things a friend has mentioned on Zoom after the fact. I know our child misses friends and social interactions at school.	4/29/2020 10:04 PM
46	Was nervous at first, but getting more comfy. Teacher did private one on one Zoom meet up, which helped A LOT! She's patient and kind with all the kids. Lessons well planned and gave me insight into my child as a learner. Kids love seeing one another. Teacher does good mix of academics with classroom community building.	4/29/2020 9:47 PM
47	Feels connected as possible given the circumstances...	4/29/2020 9:32 PM
48	I think it is difficult for children to feel connected with a 30 minute zoom as their only class interaction.	4/29/2020 9:15 PM
49	My child barely participate in any discussions	4/29/2020 9:02 PM
50	More zoom opportunities	4/29/2020 8:57 PM
51	Sometimes hard to get my child to participate in zoom meetings. Shy and feeling intimidated on video.	4/29/2020 8:30 PM
52	Daily Zoom meetings makes it possible for the students in my child's class to interact with their peers.	4/29/2020 8:30 PM
53	My child feels like they are doing busy work and the teacher doesn't care about them.	4/29/2020 8:18 PM
54	My child is shy so Zoom communication is a bit more difficult than in classroom communication.	4/29/2020 8:16 PM
55	no interaction with other his own age, less motivation	4/29/2020 8:05 PM
56	She does like the zoom but she missed her friends and classmates :)	4/29/2020 7:33 PM
57	My child only gets to see her classmates two days a week and finds the short amount of time spent during the once weekly social meetings is not enough for her to feel connected to her peers.	4/29/2020 7:32 PM
58	He enjoys seeing his classmates although tends to get shy	4/29/2020 7:17 PM

61	Not enough time is spend for my child to feel connected. We need at least an hour.	4/29/2020 7:03 PM
62	Neutral rating because it's completely different than connecting in person and in the classroom. I think they're all trying but it's still a work in progress here.	4/29/2020 6:59 PM
63	Not obviously as good as being in school but pretty good	4/29/2020 6:51 PM
64	Not enough time for real interaction.	4/29/2020 6:48 PM
65	Not the same as being in the classroom	4/29/2020 6:47 PM
66	It's just not live face to face interaction. There's always technical problems, disruptions from students, or other distractions	4/29/2020 6:45 PM
67	She lives for these zoom meetings! She still feels like a part of her class and talks about them and to them during meetings.	4/29/2020 6:45 PM

77	Our child enjoys the live zoom calls but how can you feel connected learning alone in your home otherwise?	4/29/2020 5:42 PM
78	This was explained in my last comment. My child was much more connected when the teacher had control of when/how long zoom meetings were.	4/29/2020 5:40 PM
79	He seems to like it	4/29/2020 5:38 PM
80	My student felt connected at the beginning of remote learning but over the last few weeks that sense of community has declined with less live interactions. Small group interactions would be great from a social emotional standpoint as well as increasing the ability to tailor the work to students various levels.	4/29/2020 5:36 PM
81	Being able to see the teacher and classmates has been great. My child looks forward to these sessions which is why there needs to be more of them, it's the only way to feel connected with the current social distancing guidelines keeping them away from friends in person.	4/29/2020 5:35 PM
82	while he does not want to go to the live meeting, he enjoys it when he is there	4/29/2020 5:27 PM
83	There is little interaction between the kids.	4/29/2020 5:16 PM
84	Loves the daily morning meetings. Too short though and not providing the social interaction he needs.	4/29/2020 5:14 PM
85	Yes he is able to see his friends and teachers and talk when instructed	4/29/2020 5:13 PM
86	As best as can be expected!	4/29/2020 5:10 PM
87	Child states that there is no social time in Zoom sessions (which I understand)	4/29/2020 5:08 PM
88	It's just difficult virtually. Everyone is certainly trying their best, but it's not live training.	4/29/2020 5:06 PM
89	He only feels connected (somewhat) during the very little amount they Zoom each week.	4/29/2020 5:03 PM
90	There is no connecting between the students. To my child it doesn't feel like they are together	4/29/2020 5:01 PM

91	As much as possible given the situation.	4/29/2020 4:59 PM
92	My child is engaged in the topic and conversations in the zoom meetings.	4/29/2020 4:58 PM
93	With little to no feedback and 3 zooms a week he is greatly missing a classroom school connection.	4/29/2020 4:51 PM
94	Its hard when everyone is on a screen.	4/29/2020 4:50 PM
95	I know we can't do anything about it, but they miss their friends and opportunities to just be silly together.	4/29/2020 4:46 PM
96	The educator has established a clear system for greeting all students both to the educator and to their peers. Students are encouraged to ask each other questions and engaged in social interactions.	4/29/2020 4:45 PM
97	It just really seems to be a race to get the work over with so he can do something else	4/29/2020 4:44 PM
98	The class size for zoom interactions are too big. My child would probably do better with a smaller group - maybe up to 10 kids but not more.	4/29/2020 4:44 PM
99	It's difficult to feel connected when interaction is so limited and also so scheduled.	4/29/2020 4:42 PM

1	There are a lot of emails circulating between Spring Street and parents. Classroom teachers are emailing about expectations for the week, teachers are sending out zoom passwords for the week, the principal is sending out a weekly notice, the packet for the week is being communicated, teacher's responses to work being submitted is sometimes sent via email. When you have several children and each teacher is sending messages, it gets overwhelming.	5/4/2020 9:47 AM
2	It gives parents time to teach their kids and gives the kids learning time alone and learning time with the teacher	5/4/2020 9:28 AM
3	□	5/4/2020 8:59 AM
4	it's just right	5/3/2020 11:31 PM
5	We get what we need and not too much anymore.	5/3/2020 11:12 PM
6	I would like information of what the child would have been learning had they been in school so that I can supplement what is missing. I would also like the homework packets that we would have been doing each week.	5/3/2020 4:31 PM
7	It's nice to receive the following week's expectations on Friday. And who doesn't want little love notes from Bryan straight to your inbox??	5/3/2020 4:07 PM
8	Communication has been good.	5/3/2020 2:36 PM
9	Pick one day for all communication from spring street. It is difficult to manage all of the communication especially when you have multiple students and are working on top of this.	5/3/2020 7:49 AM
10	The communication from the staff at Spring Street has been wonderful.	5/2/2020 11:01 PM
11	No feedback regarding work skills would love if they can put out a book and have a book club chat in one of their zoom meetings.	5/2/2020 7:28 PM
12	Just right.	5/2/2020 2:52 PM
13	One email a week from the teacher is what we need	5/2/2020 12:34 PM
14	I like the format you use to communicate the learning plan for the week. Sometimes I have trouble logging in on google because I have more than one child on my device so I have to make sure it's not defaulting to the wrong google account but we've figured it out. It just gets a little frustrating at times.	5/2/2020 11:04 AM

17	Just right	5/1/2020 3:05 PM
18	It's the right amount.	5/1/2020 2:19 PM
19	All the schools are sending to many email daily. There needs to be reorganization to this and only the child's teacher send emails once per week.	5/1/2020 1:39 PM
20	Weekly communications have been great.	5/1/2020 1:29 PM
21	We are grateful for updates but does not feel overwhelming at all.	5/1/2020 10:59 AM
22	Would like to hear more about where the school system is hoping to bring remote learning and what they are working towards. This is new for everyone and things have progressed over the past couple of weeks to increase what is being done via remote learning, but I would hope there is more being planned.	5/1/2020 10:46 AM
23	I feel communication is good.	5/1/2020 10:45 AM
24	Limited interactions except for the weekly work, and one email feedback for the weekly work which is sent into school. Other districts are providing much more. Some 3-4 emails per student per week.	5/1/2020 1:12 AM
25	The weekly email with all the work is great. I can see seesaw to see what the teacher is saying regarding assignments. My inbox appreciates this method.	4/30/2020 10:48 PM

34	I appreciate the continued weekly emails from Mr. Mabie, and the daily communication from teachers. It is most helpful to receive the week's learning plan ahead of time to prepare.	4/30/2020 7:43 AM
35	Amount of communication is good.	4/30/2020 7:24 AM
36	Communication is just right to almost too much. Hard to balance all of the communications coming through from different schools.	4/30/2020 7:23 AM
37	The teachers have been wonderful in their communications.	4/30/2020 4:40 AM
38	Before, we were getting emails EVERY day from the teacher. It was TOO MUCH! At times, it seemed like she was just emailing us because she had to and didn't really have anything to say.	4/29/2020 11:20 PM
39	It seems to be ok at this time.	4/29/2020 10:57 PM
40	Mr. Mabie's weekly email is good and class teachers' remind emails for zoom meeting and explaining what will do in the zoom are also right.	4/29/2020 10:07 PM
41	We're fine with a lot of emails and are very pleased to be kept in the loop as things have changed. Sometimes there have been moments where communication from Spring Street on top of SPS emails in general have felt overwhelming, but that has been more due to the fact that some days it is very challenging to balance our jobs with parenting and homeschooling.	4/29/2020 10:04 PM
42	Loved daily emails before from teacher . But I get that's difficult to keep up. Like the weekly plans and regular communication from teacher. Weekly principal email updates helpful.	4/29/2020 9:47 PM
43	I like receiving the Friday email with the distance learning plan (can review over the weekend) and standard Monday communication email	4/29/2020 9:32 PM
44	No further comments	4/29/2020 9:15 PM
45	It's right	4/29/2020 9:02 PM
46	Too many emails. Also, parents are in the dark as to the goals for the week or benchmarks children should be reaching by year end. Might be helpful to have a parent only meeting to go over lesson plans or goals for the week or year end.	4/29/2020 8:57 PM
47	Once a week is about all a working mom can handle :)	4/29/2020 8:30 PM
48	I appreciate receiving all of the week's plans on Friday, but it is still a very lengthy, dense document.	4/29/2020 8:30 PM

53	The overabundance of emails being sent home from the town, school and individual teachers is completely overwhelming. Managing emails regarding my child's education on top of work emails and other emails in general is completely too much. The emails also come at various	4/29/2020 7:32 PM times throughout the week and can often be redundant. It would be easier if information was more streamlined and sent at the same time frame each week.

54	It's getting better after being way too much at first.	4/29/2020 7:31 PM

88	I greatly appreciate how the work is sent in one file on Friday's. Teacher are not overwhelming us with a million emails. It is nice and concise, yet they are still interacting nicely on seesaw. I just have to figure out the formatting issue with the schoolwork links as they sometimes don't line up on our computer screen.	4/29/2020 4:46 PM
89	There is one weekly email always at the same time. This needs to remain the same. The only feedback provided to our educator was to take whatever links come out via SPS and post these into the student's platform instead of having us look for the emails. She has done this making it easier to find and navigate this process.	4/29/2020 4:45 PM

1	We understand that the schools and the teachers are doing the best they can and we appreciate all the work that is being done! The remote learning assignments are sent out weekly in one email which is helpful. We have had some trouble printing things and it seems like every site needs a password which can be frustrating.	5/4/2020 9:47 AM
2	Thank u	5/4/2020 8:59 AM
3	we really think school should offer more class time for the students	5/3/2020 11:31 PM
4	I really like that Sherwood has a printable check list for students this way they are more accountable. I would like to see this at the elementary level as well. It works because it is printed and kept in a visible spot in the house for them to manage time for the week.	5/3/2020 11:12 PM
5	My child's teacher is wonderful. I wish there was more interaction regarding the weekly writing assignments, like each day a check in and feedback.	5/3/2020 4:31 PM
6	It would be really nice to know what the normal standards/expectations/topics covered are for the remainder of the year. I would appreciate the opportunity to supplement on my own, but in the right direction.	5/3/2020 4:07 PM
7	So far, it is going as well as can be expected. I think the teachers, staff and principle have done a great job coming up with these learning plans given the limited amount of time you were given to prepare.	5/2/2020 2:52 PM
8	I think math assignments are not challenging at all, wondering if my kid is going to be at the level he should be at for next year	5/2/2020 12:34 PM
9	No additional comments	5/2/2020 9:18 AM
10	Prefer to have more structured, richer content from online school. The learning plan for the kids is working as parents' teaching plan. I don't think home schooling is a good plan, not to mention using the same content (not customized/tailored for the kids).	5/1/2020 5:42 PM
11	Too many different platforms for accessing learning. Between emailing links to packets, learning videos, etc, zoom and seesaw, it's difficult to keep everything straight and nearly impossible for my kids to manage on their own	5/1/2020 3:05 PM
12	I appreciate everything the teachers are doing during this crazy time.	5/1/2020 2:19 PM
13	This is such a difficult situation and we are truly so grateful to his teachers who have done an amazing job helping our children try to stay connected. It certainly is not an ideal situation to learn, but we feel absolutely blessed for the support that has been given throughout this whole pandemic.	5/1/2020 10:59 AM
14	Hopefully, there is no one that thinks remote learning is any sort of replacement for in-person learning.	5/1/2020 10:46 AM
15	Include differentiated instruction to students.	5/1/2020 1:12 AM

23	Things seem smooth at Spring Street. I wonder what it looks like at the other schools where families may not have the same privileges.	4/30/2020 8:47 AM

Spring Street School Remote Learning Survey – April 2020

24	Great effort by administrators and teachers, thank you! We just question if this is effective and the work is being retained. Some of the work seems very low level - like it was from the prior year of school - some work seems like it needs to be taught live/in person. We understand it is very hard to strike the balance across the entire school district.	4/30/2020 7:55 AM
25	Thank you for all that you continue to do.	4/30/2020 7:43 AM
26	I think the amount of assignments provided needs to be increased and should be re-evaluated. Many thanks to the specialty teachers- art, PE, media for provide additional outlets!!!	4/30/2020 7:24 AM
27	I'm confused why the different teachers in the 4th grade are doing such different things. One of the documents we got said that there was supposed to similar learning and activities going on in each classroom. As other moms and I talk, we are finding that there are different online opportunities (small group lessons, meeting with other specialists online during meetings) going on in different classrooms. Why are these opportunities not equal across the grade level?	4/29/2020 11:20 PM
28	We really appreciate all that teachers and administrators are doing right now to help kids learn and stay connected. There is no perfect solution and we know everyone is doing their best. We couldn't be happier with the learning community at Spring Street and are SO thankful our child is a part of it.	4/29/2020 10:04 PM
29	Wish we were at school, but this is working for now. Teachers are working hard and helpful. I can tell they're learning new things and trying hard. Really enjoy SeeSaw!	4/29/2020 9:47 PM
30	Can online learning be real time? Kids can stay on zoom / video conference for as long as it takes them to complete all their work for the day. They can receive instruction from teacher as they would in a real class room. There can be breaks in between and parents can help resolve technical issues. I would think a 4th grader can spend 2 to 4 hours (including breaks) with their teacher(s) and the rest of the class in a "virtual classroom" daily. It's possible that there are nuances I'm missing and that this approach has been considered before.	4/29/2020 9:47 PM
32	I really wish to have a writing homework package every week	4/29/2020 9:02 PM
33	It would be great if the remote learning could follow, as much as possible, a typical school day. Some districts and other private schools are doing this. 90 minutes a day with lots of YouTube videos is not engaging and I think we can do better. The instructional lessons seem to work well and I would like to see them daily. I think it would engage students and establish routine. Finally, for students that were schedule to undergo an evaluation this year, I would encourage the district to find away to conduct that testing for IEP evaluations online or over the summer. It is not appropriate to wait until next fall (which could see further delays).	4/29/2020 8:57 PM
34	Overall happy with how it's going.	4/29/2020 8:30 PM
35	My child really appreciates the special subjects (PE, Art, Music, Media), and is one of the primary sources of motivation to attend school on a daily basis. With the lessons being listed as "optional", and the fact that there is very little "live teaching" (with the exception of pre-recorded lessons from Art teachers and some PE which are great!) my child has no connection to these special subject teachers. My child started to complete the lessons, but with no method for submitting work (except a submission folder for Art), and zero feedback for the work being done, my child has become disengaged with these classes. Why can't the Music, Art, Media, or PE teachers run a "live" class like my child's classroom teacher?	4/29/2020 8:30 PM
36	A serious change needs to take place. More learning needs to be happening through actual teacher directed learning.	4/29/2020 8:18 PM
37	much appreciate the teacher, principle and everyone involve making the transition to remote learning. And everyone are trying to help.	4/29/2020 8:05 PM
38	thank you so much for all your hard work as we all navigate these uncharted waters.	4/29/2020 7:33 PM
39	I am appreciative of the quick implementation of remote learning and the engagement of the students immediately. As this has drawn out longer, I am not feeling my child is being challenged by the work being sent out each week and would benefit from more direct instruction via online platforms.	4/29/2020 7:32 PM

53	Live lessons and recorded lessons in conjunction with homework packets like those that were assigned throughout the school year would be much more helpful than all of the hunting and clicking that we are currently doing. Some fourth graders are able to self direct but for the younger kids the current set up ends up being two hours of redirecting, printing, and serving as an IT person for the parents. Ideally, more of the learning would take place with the teachers. For writing assignments that span the course of the week, it would be helpful if teachers would schedule several 15 minute small group sessions with the kids to go over their work in progress.	4/29/2020 6:01 PM

57	I appreciate all of the teachers/administrators efforts during this time!	4/29/2020 5:40 PM
58	Longer classes and maybe an online website where the kid can submit answers or do the writing work directly for the teacher to check. It is again a lot of work to download/print the assignments and have the kid ether type/write on it and then send it back to the teacher.	4/29/2020 5:38 PM
59	I am honestly appalled that feedback was requested from the principal through the PTO president on a Facebook forum in which Spring Street teachers are members. How is that an opportunity for honest and comfortable feedback? The alternative was to email the PTO president which also is not appropriate. As a long time Spring Street parent I am very disappointed. I am also disappointed in the communication and work presented by the specials teachers. It is impossible for my student to navigate, provides no opportunity for submission, and seems very generic. Some of the links are impossible to access as well. I really do so no reason why each specialist can't provide a weekly, grade appropriate lesson. The slides are so difficult for an elementary student to work through independently. This age group NEEDS more live interactions and there has to be a way to present new material for children at higher levels.	4/29/2020 5:36 PM
60	I feel that now that we know the kids are not going back, there needs to be more assigned learning and more new topics introduced. The platforms are now in place and most of the assignments don't take nearly the amount of time allotted for them so I feed they should be doing more at least in grade 4 where the students are fairly independent with technology and don't need much parental supervision	4/29/2020 5:35 PM

61	It is very very difficult for working parents. I think there needs to be more teacher/student interactions. I think there needs to be more communication on how the school is going to handle end of the year closure for the kids no matter the grade.	4/29/2020 5:14 PM
62	I think the teachers have done a fantastic job of being available and working under these conditions. I am hopeful we can go back soon though!	4/29/2020 5:10 PM

68	I find that the material given does not challenge my child . He is able to fly through the work and has found mistakes in multiple worksheets . Asking a 3rd grader to identify a the shape Triangle on a math paper is Way below what academically should be offered.	4/29/2020 4:51 PM
69	The teachers are doing a great job in a incredibly difficult situation.	4/29/2020 4:50 PM
70	Thank you to the teachers putting in all of this work. My kids are able to manage and we are able to get by with both parents teaching/working from home as well.	4/29/2020 4:46 PM
71	Our educator, Ms. Baumann, has gone above and beyond. She engages through office hours, live sessions, and via the online platform seesaw. She responds promptly to emails and understands the need for balance. We are lucky to have her as our daughter's teachers. The only recommendation I would provide, is many if not all of the uploaded videos by staff are wonderful but the staff speak very softly and we simply cannot hear them. We have tried turning the volume all the way up, different devices, headsets, different platforms but video after video is simply too softly spoken. The material and activities are wonderful. Lastly, IT is wonderful and has provided exceptional follow up when we inquire for help. Thank you.	4/29/2020 4:45 PM
72	We appreciate all the work that has gone into making the best of a difficult situation.	4/29/2020 4:42 PM

2	My child needs a challenge in some areas and I am finding she needs more differentiated challenging work.	5/3/2020 11:17 PM
3	Second graders cannot self direct, especially the way it is currently set up. There are too many links and different instructions. The only way to effectively teach this age is with supervision and it is difficult for parent to sit and redirect over and over again for two hours. My child is much more engaged when interacting with the teacher. There should be live lessons and recorded lessons daily and a simple packet to print and complete for the week.	5/3/2020 4:37 PM

6	I find it very easy to email to his teacher (s). I have always gotten quick and helpful responses.	5/1/2020 2:24 PM
7	Seesaw requires an extra step to submit.	5/1/2020 1:05 PM
8	Navigating the volume of Seesaw is challenging, but teacher feedback is great. I should add that Seesaw has been more manageable this week now that parents receive a “daily update” rather than numerous individual updates through the day.	5/1/2020 8:07 AM
9	3/4	4/30/2020 7:38 PM
10	The teacher is very quick at getting responses back and is also very positive with constructive criticism when necessary.	4/30/2020 3:27 PM
11	We are submitting his work through Seesaw. Thankfully, my oldest child is familiar with the platform having used it all year as a fourth grader. Her knowledge of it was extremely helpful in teaching my first grader how to use the tool. It is very user friendly, and he is now able to navigate the tool independently.	4/30/2020 7:51 AM
12	My student gets individual feedback on every assignment that they submit.	4/29/2020 11:24 PM
13	Love the Seesaw app	4/29/2020 9:35 PM
14	Submitting assignments is easy and the teacher is responsive	4/29/2020 9:21 PM
15	We have an excellent Kindergarten teacher who goes above and beyond to stay connected to her students	4/29/2020 8:59 PM
16	Easy to submit assignments either through email or Seesaw	4/29/2020 8:20 PM
17	The process is easy and we get teacher feedback	4/29/2020 7:12 PM
18	She's very responsive and helpful with feedback. She's positive and encouraging.	4/29/2020 7:02 PM
19	Teach responds.	4/29/2020 6:50 PM
20	Feedback is great, but opportunities to improve or apply that feedback without teachers is impossible.	4/29/2020 6:48 PM
21	Assignments are emailed to teacher and she often responds quickly.	4/29/2020 5:11 PM

2	I almost feel like a lot more live interaction is needed at this age. Just based on the grade level.	5/3/2020 11:17 PM
3	Already answered	5/3/2020 4:37 PM
4	I strongly recommend daily interaction, it is like a starting point for daily work	5/2/2020 12:39 PM
5	Would like to see either longer or more frequent zoom sessions in addition to more small group or 1:1 interactions. At this point, I'm more concerned with keeping my kids engaged with the teacher, other students and learning process as a whole than individual assignments.	5/1/2020 3:11 PM
6	He only meets twice a week with his class. I think it's important with school being done for the year for the students to be meeting daily with classes to ensure academic as well as social growth for our students.	5/1/2020 2:24 PM
8	My child gets live teacher interaction once per week which is enough at this point.	4/30/2020 3:27 PM
9	The 3 times a week, for 30 minutes, works great for my child.	4/30/2020 10:18 AM
10	Three live teacher interactions is appropriate for a first grader. I think 5 (1 a day like my fourth grader) would be excessive for younger students.	4/30/2020 7:51 AM
11	We like the fact that the students do not have to be online each day. With all the other videos and online work they have doing assignments, it's nice that some days they don't have a 30 minute meeting on top of that. It's a lot of screentime!	4/29/2020 11:24 PM
12	Meet 3 times a week and I love that she does the routine morning meeting including share time from the kids - also a live teach day	4/29/2020 9:35 PM
13	I think my child could benefit from 5 days of live interaction as opposed to only 3.	4/29/2020 9:21 PM
14	Too infrequent	4/29/2020 8:59 PM
15	Hard to get my little one to participate in zooms. New different and a little scary.	4/29/2020 8:33 PM
16	Would prefer both Zoom meetings to be live teaching	4/29/2020 8:20 PM
17	I like that he gets to interact with his teacher and classmates four days a week. For the amount of kids on the meeting I feel they need more than the allotted time.	4/29/2020 7:12 PM
18	3 sessions per week and office hours are good.	4/29/2020 7:02 PM
19	My child could use more.	4/29/2020 6:50 PM
20	3x a week is good, but kids loose focus after 1/2 hr.	4/29/2020 6:48 PM
21	They meet as a class and do breakout sessions to make a lesson easier to get through on a zoom call. Plus you can tell they truly all like to be in each other's company so the class bond is evident and that makes a world of difference when using zoom I think!	4/29/2020 5:24 PM
22	The interactions are great with teacher, aides and students.	4/29/2020 5:11 PM

10	She likes using Seesaw to be able to interact with the other students but misses recess, lunch and those less structured time with her friends at school.	4/29/2020 11:24 PM
11	As connected as possible given the circumstances	4/29/2020 9:35 PM
12	3 Zoom meetings a week cannot replace the connections the children make in the classroom. Having said that, I believe everyone is doing the best they can given the situation.	4/29/2020 9:21 PM
13	Loves seeing friends	4/29/2020 8:59 PM
14	Hard to keep attention span. Easily distracted	4/29/2020 8:33 PM
15	It is difficult to feel truly connected without being in a classroom. Zoom is the best we can get during this time.	4/29/2020 8:20 PM
16	Distance learning is definitely not the same and can not replace the social aspects of the classroom environment	4/29/2020 7:12 PM
17	He seems very engaged and seems to participate a good amount during the zoom meetings.	4/29/2020 7:02 PM
