Hello Lynsey,

Thanks for sending the information o tonight's school committee meeting.

The cuts you identified and those likely to come are indeed drastic.

The effects on students are predictable and unpleasant.

The excellent reputation of our schools plays across so much in our community including new business development and real estate attractiveness.

While not a popular solution I would support increased taxes to soften the blow.

While not as skilled at digital communication as our 16 year old granddaughter please feel free to pass on my comments.

Thanks Lynsey
